Guild Members Model Fashions At Style Show

One of the highlights of the social year for St. Cecilia's Guild was their outstanding and delightful style show held Thursday afternoon at St. James Guild hall.

Many "oh's" and "ah's" were murmured by those attending as members of the Guild gracefully modeled the fashions for late spring and summer. Styles featured were play clothes, cottons, afternoon dresses, semi-formals and formals.

Another outstanding event of the afternoon was the art exhibit of Patterson Chaney's work which was held in connection with the show. Beautiful water colors of California missions and etchings of horses and ships were displayed. And of special interest, was the exceptional water color of a forest he painted when only seven.

During the tea hour which was held following the style show, the High School Girl's Sextette presented a program of vocal numbers. They were accompanied by their director, Millard Kinney, and their numbers included "Stars Fell on Alabama," "What Is This Thing Called Love" and, for their encore, "Glow Worm."

Co-chairmen of the style show were Mrs. Dee Browne and Mrs. Jean Clark. Catherine Maynard was the fashion commentator.
