Troop 63 Boy Scouts Receive Awards At Court Of Honor In Methodist Church

At a court of honor in the basement of the Methodist church Thursday, January 13, eleven Boy Scouts of Troop 63, sponsored by the Coquille Kiwanis club, received awards, according to Scoutmaster Don Wade.

Tenderfoot badges were received by James Morgan, Gary Griffith; second class, Donald Sweetland, Leon Slate and John Stevens; merit badges, Leighton Benham, music; Don Wade, basketry; Cary Wade, fishing; Arnold Cullum, home repair; Delbert Moore, music; Clarence Cornwell, home repair and fishing.

MAST Hospital Births

One-year pins went to Arnold Cullum and Gary Griffith; two-year pins to Leighton Benham and Dennis Billings.

In conjunction with the court of honor a family potluck dinner was held.

Hostesses were Mrs. Mary A. Sweetland and Mrs. E. L. Benham. The tables were decorated with troop colors of blue and yellow. They were attractive and colorful.

Judicial of the court of honor was Tom Stevens, clerk was Scoutmaster Don Wade, and Awards clerks were Earl Weaver and Tom P. Griffith.

At Arago Mrs. Harvey Myers Called To Azalea By Father's Death

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Myers of Arago were called to Azalea last week by the death of her father, William Curtis McMichael.

McMichael was born October 19, 1877 at Galesville, Oregon. He died January 13 at the age of 76 years. Funeral services were held at the Alliance church at Wolf creek and final interment was at the cemetery there.

When he was a young man, McMichael acted as a guide and drove a string of pack horses, hauling supplies on the Rogue river, the Illinois river and lower Graves creek.

He worked 16 years for the Southern Railroad at Wolf Creek and in 1921 moved to Glendale, Oregon. He was employed there as a timber faller and night watchman until 1927 when he moved to Azalea to work in the mining industry. He had been a resident of Azalea for the past 26 years.

Survivors include his wife, Myrtle Edith McMichael; two sons, William S. McMichael of Arago and Henry V. McMichael of Azalea; five daughters, Mrs. Ruth Powers of Winston, Oregon, Mrs. Lolita Pope, Mrs. Pearl Shafer

4-H Gardeners Have Meeting

Eight Vegetable Gardeners 4-H club members met January 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Kock.

Mrs. Lee Beck, leader of the club, gave a report on insects and how to control them. Buddy Harding will give another report on insects at the next meeting. Also at that meeting, the members will tell of various things that will help them with their gardening.

Library Receives Fourteen Books

Two new books honoring past presidents of Coquille Business and Professional Women's club were presented the library last week, and twelve books were given by Mr. and Mrs. Jess Barton, Sr. from their library.

"Mary" by Sholem Asch was in memory of Mrs. Belle Gould; Thomas Clark's "Stepping Stones" was given in honor of Mrs. Bertha J. Smith.
