Carol Jean Gray, Harold Corbett Wed At January 9 Ceremony In Vancouver

Mr. and Mrs. Claire M. Gray are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Carol Jean, to Harold Thomas Corbett, son of the William Corbetts of Bend, Oregon, January 9 in the chapel of the First Methodist church at Vancouver, Wash. The Rev. Charles Dockstader performed the simple but impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of the young people's immediate families. The bride's father gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white lace and tulle over satin. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a white prayer book topped by an orchid arranged with satin streamers. The bride's sister, Mrs. Edward McCarthy, was honor attendant. She wore a coral net gown and carried a bouquet of daffodils and acacia. James Jammesson was best man. A wedding luncheon was served in the Green Room of the Congress hotel at Portland following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett left later in the afternoon by plane for a wedding trip to Southern California and Mexico. They will be at home in Seattle, Wash. after February 1.
