At Fairview

Mission Council Holds A Meeting

The Ladies Missionary Council of the Fairview Church met for their monthly meeting Thursday evening.

A talk was given on China and various articles from China were displayed after which Chinese tea and cakes were served.

A stork shower was given Friday evening in the church annex at Fairview for Mrs. Ross Laycock.

The color scheme was carried out in pink and white. Appropriate games were played.

A long table was lovely, spread under a canopy of pink and white streamers with tall pink and white candles. The center piece was composed of a stork in the midst of white camellias and rhododendrons.

The place cards were miniature cradles. Cakes decorated with little booties, and ice cream were served the fifteen guests.

Mrs. Laycock received many lovely gifts.

"Mothers Day" was observed at the church in Fairview with a goodly attendance. A short program was rendered and a message on "Exemplary Mothers of the Bible" by the pastor, Rev. Myrtle Badger. The Oldest and Youngest mother, also the largest family were presented a small gift.

U of O Mothers Meet Recently

Members of the newly organized Southern Coos-Curry Unit of University of Oregon Mothers met recently at the home of Mrs. Guy Mauney, president.

During the meeting, plans were made for the unit's contributing to the scholarship fund. Of the 100 scholarships granted to freshmen students last year, 14 were provided by the Oregon Mothers.

Plans were also discussed for Mothers' Weekend which will be held during Junior Weekend at the University of Oregon.

Other officers of the Coos-Curry unit are Mrs. Frederick Moore of Bandon, vice president; Mrs. B. Domenighini, Bandon, recording secretary; Mrs. E. E. Leslie, Coquille, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. John Purkey, Coquille, treasurer.

Board members are Mrs. O. C. Davenport of Norway and Mrs. W. F. Van Leuven of Bandon.

This Big Fish

Didn't Get Away

Frank Thrift really proved his worth as a fisherman last Sunday when he caught a 30 inch, 8 pound rainbow trout at Croft Lake. The fish is said to be the biggest ever taken from the lake, which places Frank as a fisherman of distinction.

Accompanying him on the fishing trip was George Taylor.

Practice Sessions Polish Legion Nine

Practice sessions are fast rounding the Coquille Post No. 36 American Legion baseball club into shape, according to observers at Fortier Field.

Coach Al Forkner is putting his charges through a series of hitting and fielding drills that should make the local Legion nine formidable when it meets the North Bend club in the opening game June 15.

Several practice games are being scheduled with Forkner set to release this schedule next week. The coach emphasized that all positions on the squad were still open and aspirants are asked to report to Fortier Field for practice sessions each night after school or to contact the coach.

Forkner was particularly impressed this week with the hitting of Hardy Spurgeon, Bob Wester, Howard Waggoner and George Davidson. Hurling duties are also well cared for by Gary Morris, Bob Cast and Waggoner.
