

Sonny Day Receives Active Club Gavel At Installation Dinner Held Jan. 6th

Sonny Day was installed as Tioga hotel in Coos Bay. Other officers installed were: president of the Coquille Active Club at a joint installation-dinner held January 6 with the Coos Bay club. The event was held at the Carr, treasurer; Cecil Moore, activator; Mike Meyer, historian-correspondent; and Bob Anderson, George Litzberger and Walt Scolari, directors. Cec Finley of Coquille, district governor, was the installing officer. Special entertainment was provided during the evening by the Girls' Sextette from Marshfield High school.

William Carr Speaks At Meet Of Credit Women

William Carr of Public Loan Corporation was the guest speaker at the Tuesday meeting of the Coquille Credit Women's Breakfast club. The members met at the Coquille hotel.

In his speech, Mr. Carr explained how loan corporations operate and why they are necessary for the people. He also explained how their loans differ from a bank's.

During the business session, plans were discussed for the annual Boss' breakfast which will be held sometime in March. The members also discussed ways of helping with the local "March of Dimes" drive.

Adventists Give Holiday Offerings For New Hospital

Mrs. Z. B. Bernston, superintendent of the Coquille Seventh-day Adventist Sabbath school, has announced that the local church school participated in the Christmas Day project of giving offerings to build a hospital at Taipei, Formosa. There were approximately 3,000 Adventist Sabbath schools taking part in the project. The cost of the hospital will be about $275,000. It will be of modern architecture and will provide facilities for the care of clinic cases as well as bed patients. Mrs. Bernston announces that a Nurses' Training school will be set up in conjunction with the hospital.

The hospital will be the 115th medical institution that the denomination operates.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Christiansen and daughter, Tonya, returned recently from San Diego and Los Angeles, Calif., where they spent the holidays visiting relatives and friends.

Luboshutz and Nemenoff

Famed Piano-Duo To Play Tuesday As Second In Coos Bay Concert Series

Luboshutz & Nemenoff, the famous duo-pianists, will appear at the Marshfield High School auditorium in Coos Bay, Tuesday evening, January 18th, at 8:15 p. m., as the second attraction in the 1955 series of the Coos County Community Concert association.

Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff, who is Mrs. Luboshutz in private life, have made a distinguished place for themselves as exponents of duo-piano literature. Recognizing early in their joint career that duo-piano playing called for distinctive techniques and colorings, they developed a unique and authoritative style in both classical and contemporary music which has won for them international acclaim.

They are among the handful of instrumentalists, and only duo-pianists, ever to appear as soloists with Maestro Toscanini. They are frequent guest artists with every leading American orchestra and their concert tours from coast-to-coast each year average some 80 recitals and orchestra engagements.

Admission is by membership card only.
