COOS BAY COQUILLE MYRTLE POINT

From Leaders Of State And Nation

Some idea of the respect with which the column is regarded is seen in these testimonials from government readers:

Of Capital Parade they say: "Capital Parade serves an excellent purpose in Oregon. It gives the people an interesting account of the highlights of their government in action."

Paul Patterson
Governor of Oregon

"Capital Parade contributes positively to the understanding of state affairs."

Earl T. Newbry
Secretary of State

"Capital Parade state news column keeps readers interest high in government affairs that are often too-little read."

Douglas McKay
Secretary of the Interior

"Capital Parade is indispensable to keep well informed on state government. It is often a shadow of things to come."

Sig Unander
State Treasurer

"A very excellent column, Capital Parade is the most informative column of state affairs of any written in Oregon."

Walter J. Pearson.

"Capital Parade keeps interest high in state government. It informs voters and makes them more efficient at the polls. The result is better government."

Dr. G. Herbert Smith
President of Willamette University

result is better government."

Baptist Youth Schedule Film

Emmanuel Baptist Young People's Fellowship will sponsor a film, "That Kid Buck" at 6:30 Sunday evening at the church.

The show is based on a true story and depicts the conversion of a troublesome youngster and shows the spiritual answer to the nation-wide problem of juvenile delinquency.

The public is cordially invited to attend the evening program.

Orval Denniston Will Speak Sunday At Baptist Church

Orval Denniston, high school teacher from Bandon, will speak at the Emmanuel Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, according to the pastor, Rev. George E. Horton.

Mr. Denniston has been a Bible teacher for some years and is the regular teacher of the Adult Bible class of the Emmanuel Baptist church. In addition to his training as a public school teacher specializing in mathematics, he studied at the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago.

Mrs. Art Husted Honored At Party

Mrs. A. P. Christiansen entertained at her home Friday evening in honor of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Art Husted.

Following a turkey dinner, the honoree was presented with many lovely gifts.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeCosta.

Credit School Set For Area

Merchants and personnel of credit offices of Coos and Curry counties will be given an opportunity to participate in a 10-hour course in Retail Credit Fundamentals in Coos Bay, January 26, 27, 28, and 31, 1955, according to an announcement by Earl Walrath, Credit Bureau of Coquille, Inc.

Conducting the school will be Sterling S. Speake, instructor in retail credit, of the Educational Staff of the National Retail Credit association.

Coos Bay has been selected as one of several cities to be included in this year's Credit Education program offered by the National Retail Credit association in cooperation with the Associated Credit Bureaus of America.

Old-Fashioned Preaching Set

Special meetings featuring Old-Fashioned Preaching and singing will be held at the Church of God in Coquille starting Thursday night at 7:30 and continuing every day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7:30 in the evening.

The preaching is done by Cyrus Hudson from Arkansas who is visiting his grandson, Rev. Alva Hudson, the local Church of God pastor.

Adventists Name Z. B. Bernston As First Elder

Z. B. Bernston, of Fairview was named as first elder of the Coquille Seventh-day Adventist church when the congregation met the latter part of December.

Other officers chosen include Dr. J. R. Bunch and Dr. Robert Gronemyer, elders; H. L. Hoover, first deacon; and Mrs. Avon Wilcox, first deaconess.

Mrs. Ray Barkhurst, clerk; Mrs. Virgil McKinney, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Gronemyer, church organist; Mabel Casper, assistant organist; Leslie Smith, Sabbath school organist; and Mrs. Levi Bunch, assistant Sabbath school organist, and Mrs. Z. B. Bernston, Sabbath school superintendent.

Budgeting Talk Given On Program Of BPW Club

An interesting talk on "Budgeting the family income in 1955" was given at the Business and Professional Women's club January 3rd by Arlene Robertson.

The meeting was called to order earlier by President Ernestine Bissett and a number of plans for the new year were discussed.

Following the program, refreshments were served by Arlene Robertson, chairman, assisted by Viola Newton and Hattie Lee Holimon.

Next meeting will be a social evening January 17th with the committee on news service in charge led by Hazel Flannery.

Beta Sigma Phi Has Kiddie Party

Members of Beta Sigma Phi and their guests enjoyed a "Kiddie Kapers" get-acquainted party Monday evening at St. James' Guild hall. Leatha Summers was hostess for the event at her home and those attending came dressed in appropriate kiddie costumes.

Children's games were played with Mrs. John Williams and Mrs. Robert Riedel in charge. Prizes of bubble gum, suckers, balloons and ceramic animals were presented to the winners.

Refreshments of ice cream cones, donuts, gum drops and coffee were served by Mrs. Stan Sherwood, Mrs. Bob Thomas and Mrs. Don Brown.

Mrs. Forrest Hales and Mrs. Robert Queen had charge of the invitations and decorations for the party.

Guests attending were Mesdames Bob Wilson, Elvin Widmark, Jack Calhoun, Maurie Engau, Pat Chaney, Bob McCarthy, Ted Cadman, Gene St. Clair, Lyle Rash, Ted Parrish and Ross Anthony.
