R. S. Knowlton returned last Saturday from his trip to San Francisco after seeing Mrs. Knowlton and National comfortably settled for the winter at Berkeley.

Sheldon Von Pegert, the young son of Fred Von Pegert, was operated upon for appendicitis last Sunday, and remarkable to say, he is out and walking around today.

James Polhemus, U. S. government engineer, came in here from the Bay Tuesday to inspect the machinery of the dredge that has been used for Coquille river work.

Mrs. Neils Oamundson and Mrs. Geo. Leach are expected home this week from Portland where they went a couple of weeks ago to visit their sister, Mrs. Jack Benham.

The wedding of Joseph J. Hennessey and Laura Dubay was solemnized at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Monica's church in Marshfield with Rev. H. J. McDewitt officiating.—Times.

Mrs. W. J. Longton has gone over to Marshfield to act as secretary for F. E. Conway while J. W. Motley and wife are back at Osceola, Missouri, spending a few months with the Mrs.'s parents.

Those who are not tenderfeet here speak of the present season as "winter" because the fall rains have begun, even though the weather since then has been actually warmer than it was before.

Mrs. N. C. Kelley and daughter, Vera, accompanied Mrs. P. C. Levar and Mary on the Kilburn sailing Wednesday. They also go to San Jose for the benefit of Vera's health for an indefinite stay.

Fred Normand is here from Astoria looking for a location to engage in farming. He has heard much of Coos county in the past and is now gratifying a long cherished desire to see it with his own eyes.

It is certainly remarkable how well the incipient forest fires were kept under by the rangers during the long dry season just ended, and how little damage has been done to standing timber in the northwest.

Petitions are being circulated at Powers to have Geo. Stewart, the moving picture man there, appointed justice of the peace to fill out the unexpired term of Dr. T. T. Manser, who has gone east for six months.

J. T. Brand, the city attorney of Marshfield, has been appointed deputy district attorney to serve during Judge Hall's absence. The judge is now at Louisville, attending the National Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F.

Send the Sentinel to eastern friends

The former Sheriff's office in the southeast corner of the first floor of the court house is being prepared for the county court, which used to occupy it in the early days. The big four-ton safe there was moved over into the treasurer's office Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew A. Cates went up to Myrtle Point fair this morning, accompanied by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Martin, of Marshfield, who came over from the Bay to accompany them. Mr. and Mrs. Cates expect to go out to Roseburg tomorrow.

Last Saturday evening there came to the Sentinel family the sad news of the death of Frank W. Crans, of Independence, Kansas, one of their nearest friends, which occurred there that evening. Mr. and Mrs. Crans were visitors at Coquille a year ago.

Roy Morgan, an insurance man, formerly of Coquille, Portland and Salem, but now located at Powers, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy. He owes $1200 and has no assets. He is the first bankrupt in this section in about two months.—Coos Bay Times.

F. H. Woodruff has opened a candy store and confectionery adjoining his barber shop on Front street and will install a soda fountain as soon as it arrives. Cigars, tobacco and ice cream will also be included in his stock of merchandise. Mrs. Woodruff will conduct the new place.

J. F. Schroeder and daughter, Miss Eva, intend leaving tomorrow morning for a month or six weeks' visit with Capt. Levi Snyder's family in Portland. On their return they expect to be accompanied by Capt. Snyder's daughters who will remain until the first of the year.

Alva Warren is offering his small dairy ranch for sale at Cedar Point at an attractive price. This place is especially well located on the river, near town with best river bottom soil, with high ground for the building sites; also plenty of spring water year round. See or write him at once.

Mrs. Mary Howard, mother of Superintendent Chas. A. Howard and her daughter, Mrs. Erickson, started Monday morning for the former's home at Wichita, Kansas, intending to go straight through. Mrs. Howard has been quite ill recently and had only just become able to travel.

Harry A. Miller, who has been conducting an auto paint shop on Front street, has quit that business and is now in Portland purchasing the equipment for an up-to-date billiard parlor which he expects to open soon in the Golden building recently vacated by E. A. Folsom's confectionery.

Looking out at Reservoir Hill southwest of the city Tuesday morning we were surprised to see that in only four days of showers its tint had changed from the dusty brown of the summer and was growing green again. Now quickly plant life responds to the rain that "falleth alike on the just and the unjust."

A. N. Gould left last Sunday morning for Vancouver, B. C., where he went to build a logging railroad for the Robert Dollar Co. He expects to be gone a month or six weeks and possibly longer. Two other former Coquille men, Cal Slagle and T. H. Mehl, are also with the Dollar company there.

There is still three weeks in which to pay the last half of the 1916 taxes in Oregon. So far very few have been paid, and the force in the sheriff's office expects a big rush the last few days. Any having the money at hand will find it much easier and less annoying both for themselves and the clerks to pay as soon as possible.

Miss Lydia McCall, postal clerk at Ashland, and Dr. Bertha E. Sawyer, an osteopath of the same place, are enjoying a month's vacation and spent several days this week in Coquille before going down to Bandon. They expect to return home by way of boat to Portland, visiting the soldier boys from their home who are now at Fort Stevens.

Dr. Jas. Richmond performed an operation for Aleen McLeod Tuesday morning by removing a loose piece of bone from under his knee cap. The bone was flat and about an inch and a half in diameter. What caused such a growth is a mystery to the doctor. For a day or two the growth caused Mr. McLeod much pain and its removal was a great relief.

There was a small sized riot at the Club Cafe about 2 o'clock last Sunday morning and the police reserves were called out, but by the time Epperson and Hudson got there the crowd had completely disappeared. A car seen just outside the city limits probably brought the bunch and too much bootleggers' whiskey was responsible for the disturbance.

H. M. Shaw, M. D., Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat specialist, will be at the Baxter Hotel on Wednesday, Sep. 20th. Glasses fitted.

Farwell for Mrs. Howard. Mrs. G. A. Howard and Miss Flora Shaw were given a farewell dinner by Mrs. J. A. Lamb last Tuesday evening. Later in the evening the members of the J. G. W. club appeared and spent a very jolly last evening with the departing ladies. Mrs. Howard has been a very popular member of the club and her absence will be felt as a distinct loss by all the ladies.

Another Honey Report. Referring to the honey story we published last week J. H. Berry, of Lampe, says he keeps from 80 to 100 stands of bees and that 55 pounds of honey to the stand is their average production for a season.

The honey made in the late summer is gathered from the freewood, so named because it is most common on burned over land. Mr. Berry is exhibiting at the Myrtle Point fair this week.

Will Wait Until Spring. Rev. F. G. Jennings says he had a delightful time during his recent California trip, especially in the wonderful ride down the coast from San Francisco to Los Angeles. He was disappointed in not being able to secure a commission as chaplain in the American army at this time—only citizens being eligible for such a position. His five years probation will expire in February, however, and then he expects to go to the front.

Fruit For the Foundlings. The W. C. T. U. reports that the collection of canned fruit which the members and some of their friends are preparing to send the Louise Home and the Albertina Kerr Nursery Home, grows apace, but that there is room in the barrel for more. These unfortunate young mothers and their unfathered little ones must be fed, and Madame Housewife, you will not miss one jar of the tempting fruit on your shelves. Contributions may be left with Mrs. S. V. Epperson or Mrs. H. L. Johnson.

Time For Christmas Pictures. The Stadden Studio here, which has been closed during August and September on account of a rush of work at the Marshfield office, will be reopened on Saturday, October 6. If you want to get your Christmas pictures in time this year, better attend to it early as supplies of all kinds are short and the photo supply houses are back ordering on the materials used in making pictures. Come and see us.

To Herald Subscribers. Those indebted to the Herald and who have made payment on subscription during the past year or two are requested to come to the Sentinel office and show us how far they have paid. The accounts we have do not seem to indicate this clearly and there is a possibility that we may not get the accounts correct when we go to work to collect them.

Chicken Pie Dinner. A chicken pie dinner will be served by a committee of the ladies of the M. E. church in their church parlors on Friday evening, Sept. 14th. They will begin to serve at 5 p. m. and continue until all are served. The price is 35 cents a plate. All are cordially invited.—Committee.

OUT OF BABYLON.
As I stole out of Babylon beyond the stolid warders
(My soul that dwelt in Babylon long, long ago)
The sound of cymbals and of lutes, of viols and recorders
Came up from kham and caravans, loud and low.

As I crept out of Babylon the clangor and the babel,
The strife of life, the haggling in the square and mart,
Of the men who went in saffron and the men who went in sable,
It tore me, and it wore me, yes, it wore my heart.

As I fled out of Babylon, the cubits of the towers
They seemed in very mockery to bar my way!
The incense of the altars and the hanging garden flowers,
They lured me with their glances, but I would not stay.

We still flee out of Babylon, the vanding and the vying,
Its crying out to Mammon, its bowing to Deaf.

We still flee out of Babylon, its sobbing and its sighing,
Where the strong grow over strong and the weary fall.

We still flee out of Babylon, the feverish, the fretful,
That saps the sweetness of the soul and leaves but a rind.

We still flee out of Babylon, and faint would be forgetful
Of all within that thrall of wall threatening behind.

O, Babylon! O, Babylon, your telling and your teasing,
Your canons and your wonder wealth—not for such as we!

We who have fled from Babylon contented are with dreaming—
Dreaming of earth's loveliness, happy to be free.

—Clifton Scott.

EVEREADY SAFETY LIGHTS

The light that says "There it is!"

Your "bump of location" is often out of order in the dark, rooms take on strange shapes, the stairs add or subtract a couple of steps, electric light switches play hide-and-seek with your hands. Eliminate all these petty troubles—get the light that says "There It Is!"—an EVEREADY. See our complete stock. Prices range from 75c up.

KNOWLTON'S DRUG STORE

The "Daily Grind"

Belt a G-E Motor to it

Let the G-E Motor take the grind out of your chores.

Motor-driven machines will milk, separate cream, churn, grind tools, pump water, cut feed and ensilage, grind and shell corn, split and saw kindling, thresh grain and perform practically all ordinary tasks requiring steady application of power. A G-E motor will soon pay for itself in labor and time saved.

Ask our power man to show you just where a motor will help on your farm.

ADVICE.
When mingling with the daily throng Be careful of your pennies; Your dollars will not last you long Unless you have some sense. —Milwaukee Sentinel.

WISDOM.
When I have ceased to break my wings Against the faultiness of things, And learned that compromise wait Behind each hardly opened gate, When I can look life in the eyes Crowned calm and very coldly wise, Life will have given me the truth And taken in exchange—my youth. —Sara Teasdale.
