A local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was organized at Marshfield yesterday by the state regent of that organization, Mrs. Isaac Lee Paterson, of Salem.

James Kibbe, of Eastside, whose crime is elsewhere recorded, was brought over here Wednesday and placed in jail. For a young man of 21 he must be looking forward to a long time behind the bars.

William Wilkie, the detective whose investigations of the booze situation at the Bay and at Bandon caused so much uneasiness promises to be back here to tell the grand jury what he knows in about ten days.

A. T. Morrison is enjoying a visit from his father, M. H. Morrison, of San Bernardino, Cal. The elder Mr. Morrison's health had not been the best of late, but he is feeling much better since coming here.

Rev. H. M. Law, who is now located at Corvallis, was named as delegate at the recent conference, to represent this conference at the General Conference of the M. E. South to be held at Atlanta, Ga., next May.

F. F. Schram, of Bunker Hill, was here Monday and Tuesday to appear before the county draft board. He formerly lived in Coquille but was residing in Denmark, Curry county, at the time of the registration.

Some road reports are expected when the county court meets next week, the viewers having recently been over a portion of the Coos Bay North highway and also the Kussell Creek road west from the south Coquille up to the Curry county line.

Harold H. Tyrrell, of Fresno, Ca., who is visiting friends on Fishtrap, will return to his home in a few days, and immediately upon his arrival there will enter the services of Uncle Sam and proceed to a training camp, having been drafted in the first call.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark, of Heppner, Ore., came in Wednesday evening to visit his sister, Mrs. V. L. Hamilton, and yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Hamilton and Paul Rynning, they went down into Curry county for a camping trip.

Word received from M. McDonald in Portland is that he is working in the Murphy Bros. barber shop in the Morgan Building, on Washington street, between Broadway and Park, where he will be glad to see Coos county friends, who may be in Portland.

The Knights of Pythias lodge had a very enjoyable session Tuesday evening when Prof. John L. Gary was given the first degree. The K. P.'s of the United States are raising a war relief fund of half a million dollars and W. C. Chase says that Coquille is doing her share.

Those who have promised canned fruit for the Louise Home and Albertina Kerr Nursery Home and deferred bringing it in, will please do so at an early date, as it is planned to send the barrel soon. The fruit is to be left with Mrs. S. V. Epperson or Mrs. H. L. Johnson.

Last Sunday Ed Ellingsen finished driving the piling for the new Myrtle Point bridge and Monday started in to finish the work for the Standard Oil Co.'s new station here. After that he has a contract for driving several hundred new piles for the Sitka Spruce Co.'s new dock here.

With three additions at the jail here this week there has only been one discharge, thus making a net gain of two and filling every bunk in the men's ward. Wm. Wilson, of Marshfield, was discharged on Tuesday, after serving a 30 days' sentence for selling liquor.

Julian Leslie left this morning for Portland and after a short stay will return to Eugene where he will enter the University of Oregon. Keith Leslie expects to start Sunday for Eugene and Leslie Schroeder either tomorrow or Sunday for the same place to begin their year's work in the university.

A long expected social event of the first magnitude is to take place on Spurgeon Hill tomorrow afternoon when Miss Beulah Luella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Price, will be united in marriage to Mr. Harry Stewart Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norton, at 2:30 at the residence of the groom's parents.

Mrs. E. A. Folsom and her mother, Mrs. M. C. Garrett, Roy Garrett, Ernest Davenport and Watt Guerin left Tuesday morning for Modesto, Cal., where Mrs. Garrett will reside this winter for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Folsom and Mr. Garrett will return soon but the rest of the party will remain indefinitely.

C. McC. Johnson says it is almost impossible to get longshoremen at Bandon with the salmon running now. Fishermen are getting five cents a pound for Silversides and 7 cents for Chinook and some of the fishermen are making $300 to $400 a month. He also says the Prosper mill and the Geo. W. Moore mills are short of men and are paying $3.25 a day for green boys.

Roy Watson and John Stanley returned Monday evening from the Bitter Root Mountain country on the boundary line between Montana and Idaho, where they have been on the fire patrol for the past six weeks. They stopped to see the Pendleton round-up on the way home. John enters our city high school as a senior this week and Roy goes to Portland to enter the Behnke-Walker Commercial college.

Miss Edith Thomas, who used to live in Coquille, and her father, Deputy Game Warden J. M. Thomas, left North Bend Tuesday morning in Miss Thomas' car, bound for Roseburg. Mr. Thomas expected to accompany his daughter over the worst part of the road, returning to the Bay. Miss Thomas drove on to Portland and will return south by way of the Pacific Highway to San Francisco. She plans to be absent about three weeks on her vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hastings, whose ranch is about two miles out on the Fairview road, returned Sunday evening from Granger, Wyoming, where they went the first of June on account of Mrs. Hastings' health and to visit her mother. Mrs. H. was greatly benefited by the trip. On the way home they stopped off for the Pendleton round-up where more than 30,000 people were in attendance. They enjoyed the show immensely, notwithstanding the rain which could not drive the spectators away.

Successful Drive in Coquille.

Mrs. S. H. Upton, superintendent of the Louise Home for delinquent mothers and foundlings at Portland, also representing the Albertina Kerr Nursery Home there, and Mrs. Pearl Edwards, of the same city, made a very successful "drive" here in Coquille yesterday to secure funds for those institutions. They request the Sentinel to express for them their hearty thanks on behalf of those charities for the liberal and generous response they received in Coquille, where, wonderful to say, they report meeting only two "grouches." The $90.90 that was donated, we understand, was the largest amount they ever collected in the same length of time, they having to leave by the 4 p. m. train.

Claims He Can Prove Alibi.

Wednesday morning Sheriff Gage brought Elmer Comstock down from Powers and placed him in jail here to answer a complaint made in Justice Stanley's court here charging him with having been guilty or arson at Wallace, Idaho, by burning a hotel there. Extradition papers have been sent to Governor Withycombe from Idaho in his case, but he waived both examination in Justice Stanley's court and the service of the extradition papers, and went back to jail to await the arrival of an Idaho officer from Shoshone county to take him back. Indeed he is confident he can prove an alibi and says he would go back voluntarily if his expenses were paid.

Hereafter all automobile and repair work must be settled for before it leaves the garage. A. A. Paul.

Big Wisconsin Cheese Man.

Fred Heibel, of Mondovi, Wisconsin, one of the big cheese men of the Badger state came in Wednesday afternoon with F. E. Conway. The term "big" may have been taken in more senses than one as Mr. Heibel owns three cheese factories in his home state and is interesting himself in the Coquille Valley Creamery here,—at the same time tipping the beam at 260 pounds. Mr. Heibel expects to go back east in a short time to place his business interests there in shape, as he is planning to make his headquarters here and help make the local factory go for all there is in it. He is a thoroughly competent cheese man and capable of making all varieties of that product—Cream Brick, Edam, or any other of the fancy brands. It will be worth a good deal to the dairy interests of the Coquille Valley to have such a man as Mr. Heibel associate himself with the manufacturing end of the business here and take hold of it. He makes a very favorable impression upon everyone with whom he comes in contact.

Settling Minor's Claim.

Fred Belloni, as guardian of Florence Alice Cope, a minor, filed a petition in the county court for an order of the court authorizing him to consent to the partition of the real estate of his ward. The real estate consists of the residence property in Coquille at the south end of Coulter street, owned by the late W. V. Cope, and a farm near Langlois in Curry county. Her grandmother, Sarah E. Cope, owns six-sevenths of the property. J. J. Stanley appeared as attorney for the guardian, and the matter was heard in probate before County Judge Watson Thursday afternoon. The matter was an amicable adjustment and the testimony showed that the grandmother offered to give the minor property appraised at $2100 for her one-seventh interest in the whole property though that one-seventh was appraised at less than $1800. The guardian and the court both approved the order and a decree was rendered accordingly.

Growth of Myrtle Wood Factory.

The business of J. H. Oarding & Sons' Myrtle Wood factory is growing by leaps and bounds and it looks now as if instead of the problem being how to dispose of their novelty goods, the question would be how to keep up with the demand. Walter Oarding has resigned his position in the Sheriff's office to make another hand at the factory. The probability now is that all holiday goods will be gone by Dec. 1. Those who know it as we do here in Coquille, do not wonder that whenever this magnificent wood is introduced the demand for it grows fast. It looks as if our Myrtle Wood factory might eventually become the most expensive manufacturing institution in the Coquille Valley.

Uncertain About Treasury.

Whether Treasurer Dimmick will find quarters in the new Hall of Records is still undecided, the matter having been put up to the county court which will meet next week. The southwest room on the first floor was planned for an abstractors' room. This work was done in the basement room under the county clerk's office in the old building, but so far it has been impossible to settle on any place for it in the new building if the room originally planned for it is given to the treasurer.

Fred Gross Is Caught.

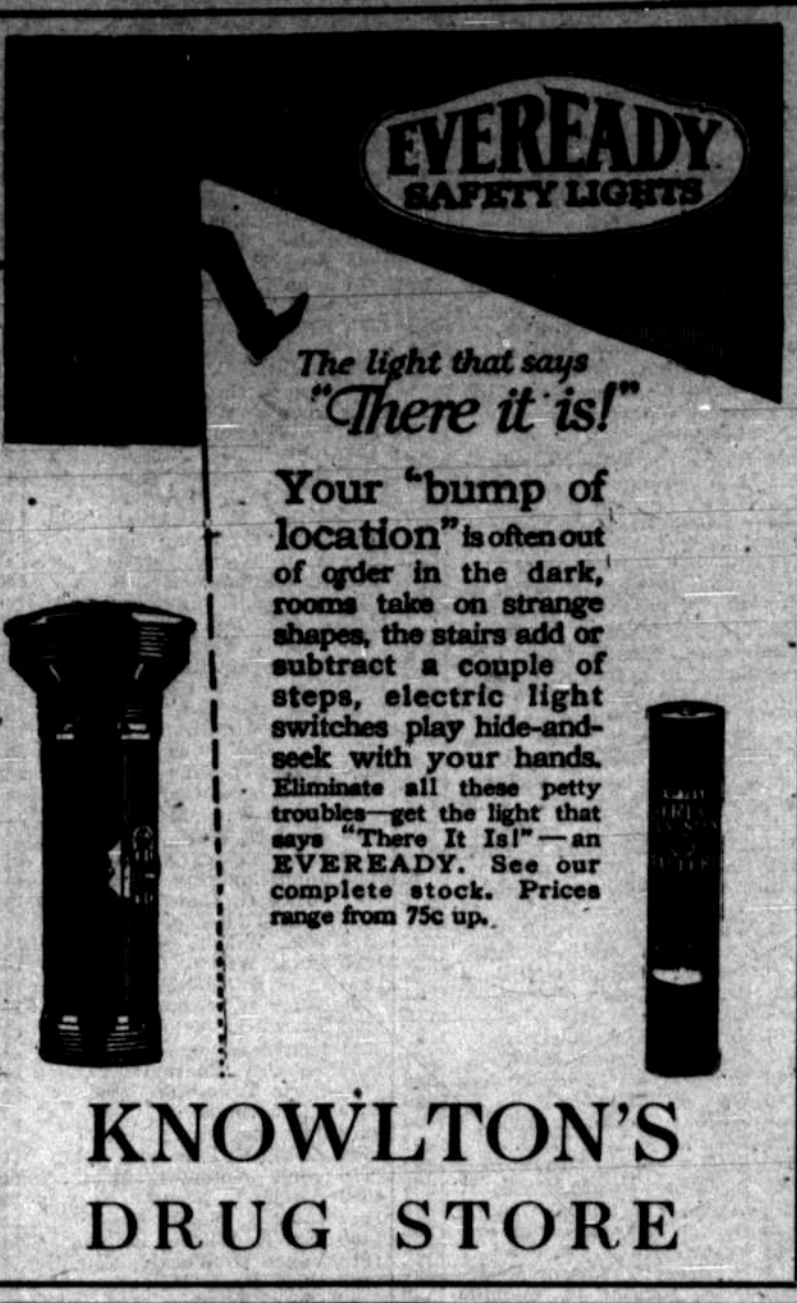

Fred Gross, of Bandon, who was convicted for being in possession of liquor in North Bend, and was sentenced by Justice of the Peace Shuster to four and a half months' imprisonment in the county jail and to pay a fine of $200 was brought over here Wednesday evening by Constable W. Anderson and placed in jail to serve his sentence. He was accompanied by Mrs. Gross, who may stay here while her husband is incarcerated.

The Name Is U-Lik-Em.

After many trials, troubles and tribulations in trying to select a name for a brand that could be registered, the company has at last succeeded in selecting "U-LIK-EM," which was submitted by E. V. Edwards, of Mt. Vernon, Washington. The old creamery name of Coquille Valley Creamery will be retained for the present, under which to conduct business. F. E. Conway Mortgage Co.

The Hairbrush.

The best way to clean hairbrushes is with spirits of ammonia. No rubbing is required, and cold water can be used just as successfully as warm. Take a teaspoonful of ammonia to a quart of water and dip in the hair part of the brush without wetting the wood; then rinse in cold water, shake the brush well and dry in the air, but not in the sun. Soda and soap soften the bristles.

EVEREADY SAFETY LIGHTS

The light that says "There it is!"

Your "bump of location" is often out of order in the dark, rooms take on strange shapes, the stairs add or subtract a couple of steps, electric light switches play hide-and-seek with your hands. Eliminate all these petty troubles—get the light that says "There It Is!"—an EVEREADY. See our complete stock. Prices range from 75c up.

THE MARSEILLAISE HYMN.

OMME, children of our native land,
The day of glory now is nigh!
Gaiest up oppression's minions stand,
Their blood stained banners
flaunting high!

Oh, hear ye not in our fair lands
The accents of their murderous horde
They come to our awaiting swords
To smite your sons with ruthless hands!

To arms, my countrymen!
Your battalions array!
March on! March on! Let helots' blood
Drench our triumphant way!

Ourselves are entering the way
Now when our elders are no more.
There we shall find their sacred clay
And trophies of the worth they bore.
Less envious them to survive
Than share their hollow'd sepulchurs.
A sublime pride our courage spurs
To yong their fate or with them lie.
To arms! etc.

Oh, holy love of fatherland,
Guide and sustain our venging arm!
Oh, freedom, cherished liberty!
Be with thy sons through war's alarm!
Beneath our flag may victory
Respond to thy inspiring strains;
And may thy foes, in mortal pains,
View thy triumph and our glory!
