Red Cross Notes.

That the women of Coquille are becoming more and more interested in the Red Cross work was attested by the fact that the past week broke the previous records in attendance. This is highly gratifying to those who have labored so ardently getting the organization under way...

The invitation is still open to everybody to help in this work. The various committees in charge will be glad to have you call any day in the week. It now seems probable that more and more of our boys and men will be drafted into service...

The Riverton ladies have organized an auxiliary under the Coquille Branch, with a membership of eighteen enthusiastic workers. Good!

Don't fail to notice the Hospital supplies at Loren's store made by the ladies of the Coquille Red Cross.

The number of pajama suits completed by our ladies is nearing the half-hundred mark. A splendid showing!

During the past week the following new names have been added to the Coquille Branch of the Red Cross: Mrs. Lulu Nosler, Miss Gladys Treal-gold, Mrs. May Pointer, Mrs. Alma Rackleff.

Women Can Still Register.

The registration of women is being continued indefinitely in Portland and elsewhere over the land, and all Coquille women, who have not yet registered, can do so by applying to Mrs. S. V. Epperson.

Through a Veil. Jack—Were you nervous when you kissed Miss Rustin? Tom—I should say so! Black spots came before my eyes. Jack—You don't mean it? Tom—Yes; I kissed her through a veil.—Exchange.

Letter From Roy Folsom.

Here are some extracts from a letter just received by Bert Folsom from his brother, Roy, who is in camp at American Lake:

The army isn't as bad as I thought it would be; have quite a lot of amusements such as wrestling, boxing, baseball, foot ball, in fact almost all kinds of athletics. The cats are not bad; have plenty of meat, spuds, bread, coffee, some fruit. Will have grapes tomorrow noon as our fruit. We have had chicken dinner the last three Sundays. I get quite a few letters and it keeps me going to answer them all. Some of the boys that came with us have gone to W. D. C. and some of the last bunch will go to New York today or tomorrow. We have reveille or the call to get up at 5:45; have breakfast, 6:20; march to the field at 7. Have marching for about half an hour, physical drill half an hour and after that we have regular infantry drill and practicing the operating of wooden cannon, finding ranges, etc. Just before we go in for dinner we have signal drill in newspapers and wigwag, going in for dinner at 11:30, out at 1:00, back in the evening at 4:30. I will go home Saturday if I can get a pass which I'm sure to get if I'm not on kitchen police or some thing else. Am on guard duty tomorrow.

Two of the Rackleff boys were here a few days ago.

Another Soldier's Letter.

The Sentinel is in receipt of the following from Jas. N. Miller, one of our Coos county soldier boys, dated at Camp Greene, N. C.:

There seems to be some misunderstanding in regard to the Coos county boys in the army, and their not getting treated square. Well I am one of your Coos county boys now in the One Hundred and Sixty-Second Infantry, formerly the Third Oregon National Guard. Well we are having a time of our lives down here, plenty of good hard drill and work and plenty to eat. Here is a sample of our menu for the day: Breakfast at seven, coffee, corn flakes, potatoes, bacon, hot biscuits or hot cakes, butter and syrup. Dinner, coffee, stew, potatoes, rice pudding, bread and sugar. Supper, tea, boiled beef, corn and tomatoes, fruit, bread.

And every Sunday for dinner, chicken, ice cream, cake or pie. Now what else does a fellow want? Every one of us is eager to cross the waters and see some active service.

WAR LETTER DELIVERED.

Instructed by Prisoner to Comrade Fifty Years Ago.

Atlanta, Ga.—After a lapse of more than fifty years Comptroller General William A. Wright has received a letter which was written to him when he was a prisoner of war in 1864. General Wright, then a lieutenant, was in prison at Johnson's Island, O., with Colonel Clairburn Sneed of the Third Georgia. General Wright was transferred from Johnson's Island to Point Lookout, Md., from where he was to be exchanged back into the Confederacy. The boat on which he was to have left Point Lookout, however, was crowded, and he was left at Point Lookout. From there he wrote a letter to his comrade, Colonel Sneed.

In answering this letter Colonel Sneed instructed the letter to Captain Seal, who is now eighty-two years old and living in Putnam, Ga., who was at that time being transferred from Johnson's Island to Point Lookout. Before Captain Seal arrived at the latter place, however, General Wright had not exchanged and Captain Seal did not see him to deliver the letter.

Several days ago Captain Seal was going through some papers and found the letter, which has now been duly delivered.

All weights and measurements concerning yields in this contest must be certified to by witnesses, not related to the grower, who assisted in the weighing of the yield and in the measuring of the land. Each grower may make one entry of each variety of corn and potatoes which he may have. Name of variety and grower's name should be marked plainly on each entry. All exhibits for the Corn and Potato Show at Coquille, Nov. 16 and 17, will be assembled not later than Nov. 14 at the following places: Exhibits from Coos Bay District make entry at Marshfield Chamber of Commerce. Those from Myrtle Point District make entry at the Pacific Drug Store, and those from Coquille District entered at County Agent's office.

Baking Fish in Paper.

Baking fish in paper goes away with fishy dishes, disagreeable odors, etc. Clean and wash the fish thoroughly, salt, pepper and flour it inside and out, then roll in at least three thicknesses of mossier paper. Finch the ends of the paper together, then fold back and pin securely to prevent the escape of the juices. Bake in a moderate oven and allow fifteen minutes more than when baking the same fish in a pan. When ready to serve, remove the paper, to which the skin will adhere, and place the fish upon a platter.—Exchange.

Hardship.

The beginning of hardship is like the first taste of bitter food—it seems for a moment unbearable, yet if there is nothing else to satisfy our hunger we take another bite and find it possible to go on.—George Eliot.

BABIES CARED FOR Children of Soldiers Are Looked After at Creche.

FOUR NATIONS REPRESENTED.

Home for Convalescent Babies Under Two Years Old Open All the Year Around—Founded by First General Secretary of Charity Organization Society of New York.

New York.—If your daddy had gone away to war to fight for his country, and you were something under two years old, and mother wasn't sure where the next mug of bread and milk was coming from, and like as not mother wasn't even there to worry about it at all, wouldn't you think it was pretty hard lines for a young soldier just starting out in the battle of life?

You would. And, while you might not frame it up in just those words, you would open your mouth and your lungs and let the whole crowded, hot, small filled tenement which constituted your world know about how miserable you were, even if you were a soldier's baby and supposed to be brave. That is just why, out over the Hudson and away beyond the beautiful, broad sweep of the Englewood Country club golf links on the western slope of the Palisades, the Memorial Home of the Edgewater Creche is today endeavoring to open its hospitable doors to take in and care for the little children and babies of soldiers, sailors and of women who could thus be released for war work, in addition to the usual groups of poor mothers and little ones sent there by social workers.

Any one who passed along Edgewater, N. J., the town that nestles under the Palisades opposite One Hundred and Thirtieth street, four or five years back remembers that creche, because it stood on the river road there for many years after its foundation by Charles D. Kellogg, first general secretary of the Charity Organization Society of New York city, who first established it beside the site of the statue of Liberty and called it Bartholdi Creche. There it had averaged 6,000 to 10,000 visits of mothers with children in a summer. In the fifteen years or more it stood at Edgewater the creche averaged 12,000 visits a summer from mothers and children from the crowded tenement districts of New York.

Removed now to a beautifully rolling and well wooded site of six and a quarter acres, at Bronx and Van Nostrand avenues, on the outskirts of Englewood, the creche occupies the unique position of being the only home for convalescent babies under two years old in and about New York city that is open in the year round.

And in its effort to do its bit by giving preference to the babies of soldiers the creche does not stop at American babies, but cares for the babies of allied fighters as well, at least four nations being represented among the twenty babies now there—America, France, Russia and Italy.

Adopt a Baby Wolf.

Rochester, N. Y.—The Proper brothers, who live on a farm six miles west of Naples, in Ontario county, found a baby gray wolf in a hollow log in a place of woods on their farm. They took the little creature, whose eyes were not yet open, to the house and are making an effort to raise it on a bottle. A search is being made for the rest of the wolf family.

An Old Man's Stomach.

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually eaten the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain poison, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

More than ever your rainy days must be productive. Wet work requires TOWERS FISH BRAND REFLEX SLICKER. Cut full in shoulder, chest and arms—comfortable, strong long wearing. Water proof absolutely. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. A. J. TOWER CO. BOSTON
