

ABOUT SCHOOL MATTERS

Furnished By the Faculty and Students of the Coquille City Schools

Teachers' Institute at Bandon.
Fine weather, an excellent program, and the hospitality of Bandon citizens made the regular county institute held last week an enjoyable affair. About two hundred teachers were present, and of the entire number in the county only two were not in attendance; one on account of sickness, and the other excused to attend institute in California. The instructors were Dr. DeBunk, of the University of Oregon; Prof. Essler, of the State College; Dr. Matthews, of Willamette; Mrs. Brennan, a former teacher in Portland; and Mr. Hockensberry, of the Oregon-Washington teachers' agency, a man who has had forty nine years' experience in teaching. The last two days of institute were also attended by Mr. Ackerman, of the State Normal, and Superintendent Churchill.

On the first evening a reception was given by the Bandon teachers. Refreshments were served, and later a lecture was delivered by Dr. DeBunk on physical preparedness. The second evening Dr. Matthews gave an illustrated lecture on Westminster Abbey. Mr. Almack, Mr. Tiedgen, Mr. Gamball, and Miss Belloni were appointed to draw up resolutions for the institute. Among those adopted was one strongly endorsing the government war policy and pledging the support of the teachers to use their utmost efforts to bring the conflict to a speedy and successful conclusion.

The Coos County Round Table, composed of all the men teaching in the county, was called to order by its president, J. W. Noblet. In the election of officers which followed Prof. Gamball, of Powers, was chosen president, and Mr. Almack secretary. Mr. Noblet was chosen to represent the organization in the teachers' council at the meeting of the State Association in Portland Christmas week. The Round Table decided to hold their next meeting in Coquille some time in December, the program to be announced later.

On the first day of institute, Mr. Baker and Mr. Turnbull were elected delegates from the institute to attend the state meeting in Portland with Mr. Irving and Mr. Gamball as alternates. Thursday evening the teachers from the state normal school banqueted together in the Red Cross rooms in the Knights of Pythias hall. An address was made by President Ackerman, who told about the progress being made at the school and the construction of the new chapel which he said will be the finest in the state.

Mr. Gary, of Myrtle Point, represented the Oregon Teachers' Monthly and the State Teachers' Association and announced that about two thirds of the teachers had joined the association and subscribed for the magazine. Altogether the institute was pronounced as one of the most successful ever held in the county.

Darkness was coming upon the teachers' institute at Bandon as Mr. Ackerman expounded his theory of correct pedagogy. Supt. Baker, to relieve the twilight, quickly arose and pressed a button near the door, a bell rang violently but no light; he pressed again, then he realized the error. Mr. Ackerman said, "I should think you would know better"—he endeavored to explain but the chorus of laughter from the assembly drove him from the room. Variety is the spice of life!

Hist Don't Mention It.

Miss Bay while at the seashore fell off a rock into the ocean when a wave washed over her feet. (She was posing for a picture.) A queer marine happening!

Basket Ball Begins.

Only eight candidates for the basketball team reported to Mr. Almack for practice Monday night, but others appeared on the floor the night following, and at present a squad of twelve men are out for practice. Five of the men were members of last year's team, and the prospects are favorable for a winning team. The coach pronounces the men to offer some of the most promising material he has known at so early in the season. As soon as Mr. Douglas recovers from the attack of the grip which has kept him from work this week, he will take charge of the team. Mr. Noblet expects to begin coaching the girls in the afternoon and will begin soon. Games for the boys will be scheduled soon in order to furnish practice for the county games which begin immediately after the Christmas vacation.

Music Recital.

On Thursday morning during the assembly period the pupils of Mrs. Hawkins music class gave a recital before high school. The program was as follows:

"Sonnet from Lucia"—Engelman and "Ala Non Amie"—Schutt by Marvel Shoda; "Evening Star" from "Tannhauser"—Wagner and "Lille"—Lack by Genevieve Chase; "Serenade"—Schubert and "Masurka"—Gedard by Camilla Lorenz; "Polish Dance Trio"—Schonwenka.

Last Friday, November 18, the Coquille high school football team beat North Bend with a score of 6 to 0 after a hard fought game. The teams were evenly matched, neither side scoring in the first quarter. In the second quarter Clinton, of Coquille, made a spectacular run of ninety yards, having caught a punt made by North Bend and broken through with no interference. No scores were made during the remainder of the game. The Coquille line up was as follows: Hanson, Center; Forbes, Right Guard; P. Johnson, Right Tackle; Varney, Right End; Johnson, Left Guard; Neely, Left Tackle; Lukens, Left End; Clinton, Left Half; Elwood, Right; Davis, Quarter; Stanley, Full Back. The above team is scheduled to play Marshfield here Friday, November 23, and have been practicing constantly during the past week. Local critics advise that the team is a much stronger one than that which played Marshfield several weeks ago.

While Coquille has been seriously handicapped this year on account of being unable to secure a coach, a persistent effort is being made to secure games with the idea of keeping football as a regular sport in the county. It is hoped that sufficient interest in the game may be awakened to make this possible.

Latin Club Meets.

The Latin Club met for their second monthly meeting on Monday, November 12 at the home of Irene Kime. A lantern and a flashlight lighted their way along the track. They arrived about seven-thirty. After the usual preliminaries they were seated at a three course chicken dinner. The table and rooms were artistically decorated with chrysanthemums. The next thing was the usual spelling contest. Genevieve Chase and Carol Nakagoff tied in the contest. Carol drew the prize given for the best speller. It was suggested that they adjourn, so after bidding the hostess goodbye and thanking her for their most enjoyable evening, they left for their respective homes.

On account of sickness the attendance was somewhat decreased.

Hot lunches for Primary Pupils.

Arrangements are nearly completed for serving something hot with the noon lunch, from Thanksgiving to Christmas, to all who are obliged to remain all day at the school building. Mothers will contribute soup on certain days, and at other times a hot drink will be made at the school building from milk, sugar and cocoa or chocolate, also contributed by the mothers. Pupils must furnish their own cups and spoons, taking them home each night.

City School Notes.

Ruth Sprangler is absent this week on account of whooping cough.

$200 for the Y. M. C. A. has been collected from the high school. This amount is just four times that proportioned by the directors of the work.

Mr. Douglas, on account of sickness, has been unable to attend school this week. Mr. Noblet and Mr. Almack have been conducting his classes during his absence.

The library of the school is being catalogued this week. Books from all over the building are being collected and put into a general library for the use of the whole school.

On Thursday noon of this week the Sophomore class went up to the dam for dinner. Wenies, sandwiches, and fruit were served. After lunch the rest of the noon hour was spent in taking pictures for the Laurel.

Mrs. A. Wilson was a visitor in the 7th grade last week.

The following are the Seventh grade children that gave to the Y. M. C. A. drive, a total of $12.50 from the class: Harriet Gould, Irving Lamb, Paul Woodruff, Levi Wilson, Lawrence Moon, Adrienne Hazard, Della Sherwood, Irma Wilson, Albert Oeding, Raymond Irving, Faye Brenner, Pauline Lorenz, Audrey Frederick, Addie Dow, Maymie McGuffin, Opal Pendleton, Adrienne Gardner.

Visitors at the Primary school this week were, Mrs. Margreiter, Mrs. Boyrie, Mrs. Lorenz and Supt. Baker. Gladys Jones dropped out of school on Monday because of whooping cough.

Mrs. Dungey and Miss Kennedy are preparing a joint Thanksgiving program to be given next Wednesday afternoon.

Aeroplane Seen Monday Night.

A great many people saw a bright light in the south last Monday evening which was travelling east at a rapid rate and which they thought was an aeroplane, especially when it made a sudden dive downward. About eleven o'clock that night what was presumably the same bright light appeared a little south of east and from the length of time required for it to cross a window it was apparently a good many miles distant. It was moving southwest at that time.
