

LET YOUR THOUGHTS OF CHRISTMAS DWELL UPON GOOD FURNITURE

CHRISTMAS—with its joys and sacred memories—approaches. The spirit of love and good will demands gifts bringing comfort and true pleasure in a new-old earnestness.

Turn your thoughts to the beauties of good furniture and select those things for your dear ones and your friends which have a life-long purpose. Long after the thoughts and words of today are forgotten, your gifts of furniture will give cheer and comfort which cannot be lost in change of fashion or shifting grant of fortune.

Truly this the "Store of the Christmas Spirit." Whether your wishes urge a splendid gift or a tender remembrance more freighted with love than cost, it is here on the floor for you to choose.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS:

For the Home	For Ladies	For Children
Pictures	Sewing Baskets	Writing Desk and Chair to match
Solid Oak Rockers	Sewing Rockers	Drop-leaf Tables and Chairs to match
Chairs	Tea Wagons	Oak Rockers
Tapestry Upholstered Reed Rockers and Chairs	Mahogany and Walnut Trays	Reed Rockers
Overstuffed Tapestry Sets	Writing Desks	Doll Carts
	Japanese Baskets	Hobby Horses
	Oxford Leather Bags
Upholstered Leather Chairs & Rockers
Morris Chairs—New Style
Foot Stools
China Closets and Buffets
Big stock of Rugs—all kinds
Library Tables—Reed and Oak

The COQUILLE FRUNITURE COMPANY has a store filled to overflowing with appropriate Christmas Gifts in Furniture and the people of Coquille and vicinity are fortunate in having so large and well selected a stock at hand from which to choose.

COQUILLE FURNITURE CO.

This store will be open evenings.

M. J. HARTSON, Prop.

MINOR MENTION.

Telling About People and Events in the City and County.

R. A. Warnich went over to the Bay Monday evening.

Judge James Watson went over to the Bay this morning.

W. L. Ames added his name to the Sentinel list this morning.

C. R. Barrow went down to Bandon Wednesday on legal business.

Services as usual at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

W. A. Ackerman was over from the Bay Monday on legal business.

Dr. V. L. Hamilton and J. S. Barton were over at the Bay yesterday.

C. McC. Johnson went out to Portland Tuesday morning on a business trip.

See V. R. Wilson for fine watches and jewelry. Every article guaranteed as represented. 4813

C. F. McKnight, assistant U. S. District Attorney, came over from Marshfield Tuesday.

Tomorrow, Dec. 15, is the date on which local boards will begin to mail out Questionnaires.

J. E. Norton went to Bandon yesterday to attend a meeting of the Port of Bandon commission.

Some of those beach and sea scenes from the Neptune studio at Bandon are being greatly admired.

Neva Harry was in town from Brewster valley this week visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Boyers.

C. W. Hill has secured the contract for handling the mill wood from the Sitka Spruce company's plant.

Miss Inez Bunch, of the County Clerk's office, was an over Sunday visitor to friends at Marshfield.

Silverware—the good kind—the wear over kind—the best kind—at V. R. Wilson's Jewelry Store. 4813

E. W. Gates, superintendent of the Coo-Curry Telephone company, came over here Tuesday to inspect the company's line between here and Marshfield.

R. W. Haughton, of Norway, called this morning and insured the weekly visits of the Sentinel through the year 1918.

E. E. Hampton came in from his Arago ranch yesterday afternoon. He says the roadway is a little slippery for pedestrians.

Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp left for Eugene on Tuesday morning. While in Coquille she was the guest of Mrs. S. V. Epperson.

The barber shops of Coquille will be closed all day Christmas, as long as required Christmas Eve.

Mrs. E. A. Brenner, who has been at Mercy Hospital for treatment was so far recovered as to be able to leave there last Sunday.

Charles Marshall, of North Bend, a civil war veteran, is going to Bremerton, Wash., to take a position in the government service.

Frank T. Berry, a deputy from the office of the U. S. Marshal at Portland, was a Coquille visitor last Saturday and Monday.

Word was received from Rock Robinson Jr., last week that he was successful in enlisting in one of the Coast Artillery companies.

H. M. Shaw, M. D., Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Specialist, will be at the Baxter Hotel, Coquille, on Saturday, Dec. 22nd. "Glasses Fitted."

Mrs. L. H. Hazard and her father, I. Hacker, went south Monday for his home at Pasadena, Cal., where she plans to make an extended visit.

Clarence E. Hatcher, of Fairview, enlisted yesterday for service in the U. S. Signal Corps—the wireless section—and went out this morning.

Judge Watson went over to the Bay Sunday night to see Commissioner Armstrong prior to the latter's departure for the Portland convention.

Just the thing to furnish power for a milking machine—that 2 1/2 horse power Baker & Hamilton gasoline engine the Sentinel is offering for sale.

T. T. Land, of Chaney, Washington, came in last Friday to look after his real estate interests here, and will probably remain for a couple of weeks longer.

Christmas Jewelry, — Watches, Rings, etc. Good assortment at V. R. Wilson's Jewelry Store and Prices right. 4814

Lans Leneve says he has been trying hard to lay on that additional 5 pounds weight, for lack of which he was not permitted to enlist in the U. S. service.

Mrs. Jennie Kemp, vice-chairman of the Woman's Council of National Defense, was a caller at this office Monday morning in company with Mrs. S. V. Epperson.

People are getting out of debt. Last Saturday the First National Bank of Coos Bay filed in the office of the County Clerk here releases of nine chattel mortgages.

Jason D. Machado, one of the old residents and a prominent business man of Myrtle Point, died at the Coquille Hospital last Friday, after an operation the previous week.

Ray Hyde, who left McKinley for the east early this year, now writes from Florida that he is turning his back Oregon-ward and expects to be back at McKinley in a few days.

Treasurer Dimmick informs us that he will probably make another call for warrants before the close of the year. The next call will be for warrants issued in July, August and September 1914.

Some of the nice men's presents, silk and linen handkerchiefs, silk socks, silk ties, suspenders in Christmas boxes, fancy garters, handsome tie pins, slippers, etc., at the Ladies Bazaar.

Assessor Boyers is all ready to begin mailing out those "Questionnaires" to registered men tomorrow. In fact he has those for the first 8 days of the mailing in shape to send out now.

A letter received from Guy M. Kelley, who is in the Electrical Division of the Navy, on the Connecticut, tells his father that he has just received his fourth promotion since his enlistment last May.

Frank Burkholder returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Pendleton, where he attended the convention of the Oregon and Southern Idaho Farmers Union. He also stopped in Portland on the way.

R. H. Allen, wife and son, came in Tuesday night from Parlier, Cal., to make their home here again. Mr. Allen will take the position in the Knowlton drug store which Owen Knowlton has vacated to join the colors.

Raymond A. Jenb, who is now a member of Battery D, 387, Federal Artillery, is now at Camp Dodge, Iowa, and sends us a copy of the "Trench and Camp" edition of the Des Moines Register.

S. M. Gurney, of Myrtle Point, who has been operating donkey engines in logging camps in this county, has enlisted in the U. S. Engineering Corps for forestry service in France, and went out for Portland this week.

The Sentinel has been gratified to receive so many subscriptions from so many of those to whom we have sent sample copies. Send us the names of your neighbors who are not taking the paper and we will "sample" them.

Lynn K. Snow, of McKinley, has enlisted in the Navy and is at present at Goat Island, Cal., awaiting orders to sail. He expects to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snow, who live near San Jose, Cal., before sailing.

Joseph Hansen, who has been serving time at the county jail for bootlegging for several months past, was released Saturday and returned to his home at the Bay. Of late he has been making a very efficient hand in county road work.

If any of the Sentinel's readers would like to secure the Outlook for the coming year at a very attractive clubbing rate we should be glad to hear from them. We can give special rates on the Century, too. Come and see us if interested.

M. J. Hartson has been enjoying a visit from his mother, Mrs. Louise Chase, of Oakosh, Wis. She left Sunday morning for a month's visit with another son at Merced, Calif., after which she will return here for another visit before returning home.

County Commissioners G. J. Armstrong and Archie Phillip went to Portland by Monday morning's train to attend the state meeting of the county commissioners and county judges which has been in session there since Tuesday and will adjourn today.

The West Oregon Corn Show has been in progress at Eugene this week, and County Agent J. L. Smith went out Wednesday morning to attend it. He had previously sent out for exhibition there twelve of the best exhibits made at the Corn Show here last month.

A laugh is good for the soul. You'll laugh at "Just for Fun," Masonic Hall, Thursday night, Dec. 20.

VARIETY! QUALITY! VALUE!

THE SCHROEDER idea of Service it embraced in three words—Variety, Quality, Value.

A Variety so liberal as to insure finding what you want—a Quality so dependable as to make you satisfied with what you buy—and a Value so substantial as to justify what you spend.

This triple service is especially appealing at this Christmas season. May we not render you this service and assist you to solve the Holiday problems?

W. H. SCHROEDER
JEWELER
Coquille Oregon

After today no more recruits can be enlisted at the postoffice here from men of the draft age. To get in by volunteering anyone would have to take the early train for Portland tomorrow morning.

At the recent Bazaar of the Methodist ladies here was a bureau scarf with knit insertion and edging, all of it the handwork of Grandma Leneve, who will be 92 years old the 12th of next March. She is remarkably alert and active for one of her years.

Some of the very pretty but useful presents for ladies, house slippers, dress shoes, silk hose, knit, kid and silk gloves, purses and handbags, knitting bags, wool and silk scarfs and cap sets, beautiful silk waists, collars, handkerchiefs, boudoir caps, stamped goods, fancy towels, stationery, toilet sets, etc., at the Ladies Bazaar.

The Biggest little jewelry store in Oregon. The right place for watch and jewelry repairing. Repairs while you wait, and done skillfully and up-to-date. V. R. Wilson 4813

William McLain was brought up the river yesterday by Sheriff Gage and placed in jail here, charged with contempt of court. We understand that this is due to McLain's failure to obey the court in paying alimony to his divorced wife. He was arrested at Bruahy Ball in Curry county by the officers of that county.

Home Guard to Give Dance.

The Coquille Home Guard will give a dance at Heazlet Hall tomorrow (Saturday) evening, with the Coquille Orchestra furnishing the music. The proceeds from this dance are to be used for sending toilet necessities and tobacco to the men who have enlisted from Coquille. These are things which the government does not furnish the men and often times between pay days the soldiers find themselves short of these necessary articles and without the wherewithal to purchase them.

Competent floor managers will be in attendance and a royal good time is assured the participants, besides which they will have the satisfaction of knowing that they are doing something for the comfort of our soldier boys. The tickets are $1.00.

A 1917 Ford at a bargain. F. C. Pursey.

The Johnson mill has been shut down this week until today owing to an iron bolt in one of the logs operated upon putting a saw out of commission last Saturday. Mr. Johnson does not think there was any foul play in the bolt getting into that log but it played the mischief all the same.

See Jane in "Just for Fun," the High School Play, Thursday night, Masonic Hall.