Found Her Bond at Last.

B. H. Burns, of the Farmers store, in moving out his household goods last Sunday morning took off his coat, he thinks, in his own back yard, and placed it in a clothes basket. The coat was found later with the money in the pocket as he had left it; but a Liberty Loan Bond, a Baby Bond and a check book and bank book belonging to Mrs. Burns, which were in the basket could not be found.

As their household goods had been taken out of the house when its destruction appeared inevitable, and then taken through the adjoining premises to the east and left on the walk north of the Sentinel office, the ground was searched thoroughly and every nook and drawer in the house looked over later without finding the missing papers. We are sure that, like us, most men will sympathize with Mr. Burns when it is stated that early in the game he had given the drawers in a commode the once over without finding the missing papers; but that Wednesday night Mrs. Burns went through them again with feminine thoroughness and dug them up.

Meantime the number of the missing bond had been furnished to the banks so that if some one picked up the bond and presented it, there should be no question about Mrs. Burns coming into her own.

The Way We Heard the Story.

This is the way the news of last Sunday morning's fire was broken to the editor of the Sentinel:

Came down to breakfast at the Gallier at Brandon at 5:30. Heard reports of a big fire away to the north-east.

Started for the Charm at six and waited for Charles Hall to talk to Marshfield. Learned that the Scenic and the Telephone office had burned and that Supt. Gates, of the Telephone company had started for Coquille on a special train.

About seven, County Agent Smith and others came on board at the Perkins' ranch and brought the news that Masonic Hall and the Wickham House had burned.

Half an hour later people came on board with the news that eight or ten buildings including several residences had been destroyed; that there was had been destroyed; that there was still no mention of the Sentinel was arriving here at 9 and walking up Willard street it was a scene of desolation that greeted us, though we were astonished to see that the fire had broken through on to Front street in the Martin building and that the Kronenburg houses in this block were safe, while the three residences beyond them were gone. Otherwise it was about as we had forecast it.

"Holy Week" Meetings.

Special community evangelistic services will begin in Coquille next Monday evening at 7:30, all pastors joining in the services. All Christian people are asked to cooperate in every way possible. The meetings will be held at the Methodist church to continue at least for one week. This will be Holy Week and in these times when there are so many other things to attract the attention of the people it is the desire of the pastors that at least for this week the matter of personal religion be brought to the attention of the town. No paid evangelist will be brought in. The pastors will do the preaching. Who will preach each evening will not be known till the hour of the service. Those who sing in the community will furnish the music. The churches are trying to do what they can for the towns, and this special effort is being put forth in the fervent hope that some good may be done. The public is invited to attend every meeting.

Montville Flowers is Coming.

H. O. Anderson is in receipt of a letter from the Ellison-White Lyceum Bureau, offering to replace the lost Evans' date of the Lyceum course with Montville Flowers. Needless to state the committee promptly accepted the offer. The date has not been set but it will be the latter part of April or the first of May. Neither has it been decided where Mr. Flowers will speak. Ordinarily the price of Mr. Flowers' appearance is $100 but under the circumstances the Lyceum company will send him here for the $50 that was to have been paid Mr. Evans. Mr. Flowers is international president of Lyceum and Chautauqua Associations, a speaker of national renown and has been heard by many Coquille citizens on the Chautauqua platform.

One Table Outfit Saved.

During the exciting moments last Sunday morning when the roomers at the Wickham House were making hurried exits, Mr. Moeller gathered up a table cloth with all the silver used on the table inside and took it out with him. That was about all of the hotel outfit that was saved.

City School Notes.

A set of slides from the state university were shown Tuesday morning at the regular assembly period. The title was, "Our National Forests," and dealt with the problem of conservation of forests. Many beautiful views of Oregon were shown.

A roster of the students of the Coquille schools who are members of the first Rainbow Regiment was received from the state superintendent Thursday. Only two schools in the state have more members than Coquille, and these lead by only a narrow margin, though the number of children in these schools is far greater than here. The two schools are Salem and Corvallis.

It is probable that a track team will be organized this spring in the high school to compete in the county meet at Myrtle Point. We have some good material that ought to enable us to make quite a showing.

Through the courtesy of Marshfield the team has been using the high school gymnasium at the bay city the last part of this week. A late train rather inconvenienced the men in returning Wednesday night, but apart from that slight discomfort due to staying out until twelve o'clock everything has gone well. On Tuesday night the team practiced in Heazlet hall.

Carol Rahskopf and Susie Abell are both absent from school this week on account of sickness.

A program will be given by the Liberty Thrift society during the high school assembly period next Friday morning. It will consist of the giving of thrift maxims by the members, songs by the girls' trio, a four-minute speech by Katie Price, and a reading by Miss Newell. Visitors are welcome.

Mr. Noblet addressed the high school on the subject of "Attitudes" Thursday morning.

Those of the children who attend the Academy and those in the fourth, fifth and seventh grades in the main building had their pictures taken by Mr. McNeil, of Portland, Tuesday. This was the second time Mr. McNeil has taken pictures of the Coquille school children, the other time being three years ago.

Mr. Noblet, Charles Oeding, Elmer Neely and Fred Lorenz made a trip over to Myrtle Point Monday afternoon to confer with the management of Athletics there in regard to the championship game. It was decided to play off the tie at Marshfield Saturday night. Marshfield has permitted the use of the school gymnasium for $7.50 for three nights, and the lights, heat, and janitor service are furnished.

The annual try-out for the oratorical and the declamation contests will be held at the high school next Friday morning. About seven students expect to participate.

Mr. M. S. Pitman, of the State Normal School at Monmouth, has been engaged to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class on the evening of May 23.

On account of the loss of the Masonic Hall it will be impossible for the seniors to give the play originally selected. At present the class is considering the advisability of giving a play outdoors, and should the members decide for it, the play selected will probably be Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream.

Mr. Almack acted as judge of the high school debate between Marshfield and Eugene at the former place Friday night.

Pictures for the annual have been sent to the engravers at Portland, and the management expects to issue the Laurel on time.

The sixth grade has made about twenty-five blocks for baby quilts for the Belgians.

Miss Newell, Miss Spencer and Miss Treadgold have received their certificates for first aid work in the Honor Guard. Dr. and Mrs. Richmond have faithfully devoted their time every Tuesday evening in helping them obtain their certificates, all appreciate the Doctor's efforts.

Several of the children of the eighth grade have started on their school gardens. The area of the garden has been reduced to 1x2 rods so that more children are able to obtain that amount of ground.

All the children who have taken up the project work met in Miss Treadgold's room and briefly went over what the children were doing and what they intended to do.

The grade rooms have been having examinations Thursday and Friday. Archie Pearce is a new pupil in Miss Griffin's room.

Seventh grade girls are busy knitting squares for baby quilts for the Belgians.

Carl Livingston has been absent from school on account of sickness. Laura Kidd a pupil in Mrs. Mulkey's room has moved out of town.

The following are the members of the second Rainbow Regiment of the Fifth grade: Evelyn Oeding, Mary Esther Johnson and Maxine Paulson.

IT'S TOASTED

The Burley tobacco is toasted; makes the taste delicious. You know how toasting improves the flavor of bread. And it's the same with tobacco exactly.

Myrtle Point, Ore. Mar. 21, 1918.
Mr. J. W. Noblet:—I am writing to notify you that we claim the basketball championship for Coos County, without playing your team Saturday evening, for the following reasons:

1. Both teams agreed to play upon a neutral court, said court was to be Marshfield Gymnasium court. Your team, by practicing upon this court without our consent, has destroyed the element of neutrality and has consequently disqualified itself to meet our team on this court in a championship game.

2. On Saturday, March 15, while returning from Marshfield Mr. J. C. Almack and myself agreed upon private Frank L. Long, of the U. S. Marines, as referee, for the championship game, and then later according to your statement, saw fit to retract the agreement.

3. Our total of scores for the eight games with our opponents shows that we have a better claim for the championship than you do.

According to the 1917-18 basketball rules, you cannot ask us to forfeit this game, and thereby the championship; since by your disagreement there has been no official referee chosen.

For the above reasons, Mr. Noblet, we are of the opinion that we are justified in taking the position herein stated. Sincerely—John L. Gary, Athletic Coach.

Myrtle Point is unfortunate in having as coach for her basketball team a youth so utterly lacking in the first principles of sportsmanship as the above indicates. No true sportsman would have uttered a protest against the Coquille team keeping in practice this week by going over to Marshfield after their local hall had been burned; and there was no place in town where practice could be continued.

Myrtle Point has not the slightest claim to the championship, and can never make such a claim stick.

Ray Dean Fought in Vain.

Ray Dean, whose loss on household goods amounted to about $450, says that he had all fire out on the roof of his home until the Tuttle house just south caught fire and then nothing could save it. If more assistance had been available for the Tuttle house, all three residences in this block could have been saved. Before going to protect his home Mr. Dean had been in the thick of the fight between the Hersey building and the Baxter.

J. D. Graham has moved into the house on the corner this side of the Sherwood residence.

East Fork Items.

Tuesday Ivan Laird shipped from Coquille one car of potatoes, 22 1/4 tons, to Wood & Curtis, Sacramento, Cal. Wednesday he hauled his last load to Coquille and has in the warehouse there 10 or 11 tons. There are probably 75 tons in Brewster valley yet.

Mrs. Weatherby, the teacher of Dora school, made a trip to Coquille Saturday.

We read of and hear people talk about doing their "bit" and the expression is often used in a flippant way concerning the doing of things that do not cost denial or service. In England "doing one's bit" means going to the limit for all that is in you. Enlisting for the war, no time limit or watching the clock, that is the kind of service, the "doing one's bit" that you can't card index. You can't judge a person's patriotism by the thrift stamps or Liberty bonds he buys, or his gifts to the Y. M. C. A. or the Red Cross. For a long time there were folks who thought they had made a big hit by having their gifts card indexed, but the widow "who cast in all her living" set the pace that the card indexers could not follow. Yet it is the pace that widow set we must follow, for doing our bit means casting in our living, our lives into the service of our country and our allies in this fight against the German barbarian and for the freedom of man.

There are some folks who think that Christianity has broken down. Christianity is proving itself a real worth while thing. It is Christianity that is making the fight against the thug, the thief, the liar, the rapist, the murderer. It was not for Christianity there would be no fight against the German barbarian.

The board of Dora school district voted to loan thirty dollars to buy thrift stamps to be resold and the money returned to the school fund.

Ben W. Olcott will get the votes for governor for the reason he has been proven and not found wanting. The socialists who run the socialist party carry the Bolshevik brand, the brand of the traitor.

Caught 30-Inch Steelhead.

Lans Leneve was showing a 30-inch steelhead salmon, weighing six pounds last evening, which he caught in the North Fork yesterday. He had great difficulty in landing him and just as he reached for his gills the line broke. Before the fish could get away he had plugged it with his gun and even then had to jump into three feet of water to grab it. The fish is a beauty.

The Stories in the Bay Papers.

The Bay dailies both covered the fire here Sunday morning in good shape, Dan Maloney, the city editor representing the Times, and Mrs. Gertrude Smith the Record. The latter's statement that "the city today lies practically in ruins" reads as if it might have been written in subsequently lest the Record should lose its reputation for reckless over-statement.

Team Work in Coos.

"Over in Coos county," says the Roseburg News, "the county court is fitting out their home guards with uniforms that cost something like $10 each—some style to those guys—but the people of that section of the state seem to have a faculty of pulling together, which is a wonderful asset and makes a real live community."
