Mrs. Burkholder has all new Spring garments for ladies. At the First National Bank Bldg.

Lew A. Cates, who was publishing the Sentinel five years ago, is now located at Pendleton, where he is selling automobile accessories and adding to his fortune.

Lewellen's auto stage between Myrtle Point and Coquille started running two round trips a day Wednesday and as the roads improve and the traffic demands it the number of trips will be increased.

J. N. Agee, representing the Pacific Paper company of Portland, was a caller yesterday morning. He was very successful in convincing us that the prices of paper are still steadily rising.

Red Cross dinner tomorrow in W. O. W. hall, from 11:30 to 1:30. Price 50 cents.

Don't miss the Home Guard carnival next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It will be a "Wide Open Town" run with a "Free Hand." Coquille, April 11, 12, 13.

Attorney Sinclair got up early Sunday morning to go north on the Limited and got down to the depot about 5:30 sun time to find that the train was a good deal ahead of him.

The Honor Guard Girls are going to give an old fashioned dance at Heazlet Hall this evening. Old time music, quadrilles, Virginia reel, etc., will be the program. No jazz stuff goes.

Coquille went on to the new time with very little friction last Sunday morning though there was some confusion caused by a couple of the churches concluding to wait until next week to get in line.

The Coos Bay Ice and Cold Storage company at Marshfield has become so seriously involved financially that it applied to the court for the appointment of a receiver and Judge Coke named W. J. Rust for the position.

His parents here have received word that Captain Earl Willey is already on the way to France. He has recently been transferred to the Quartermaster's department and will be stationed at a supply base on the French coast.

F. A. Keith, surveyor for the state highway commission, passed through here Tuesday on his way to Port Orford and will do survey work in Curry county for the proposed highway. The construction work there is the heaviest in the state.

The Sentinel this week donates a full page to Uncle Sam for the purposes of promoting the Third Liberty Loan campaign which opens tomorrow. Don't fail to read that page before deciding how much you can afford to loan the government.

Ray B. Dement, of Myrtle Point, one of the leading cattle men of the county, came back Tuesday from Reedsport where he purchased twenty-three young animals to be placed on his range. He has about 500 head on his ranch up the South Fork.

The Honor Guard are going to give a "500" party at the Ko-Keel Klub rooms next Wednesday evening to which the general public is invited. Score cards will be 35 cents and refreshments 15 cents, or four bits total for an evening's pleasure. It will be well worth the price.

Will Send West to Washington.

Governor Withycombe having failed to call that conference on the Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands as requested by Judge Watson, the latter went over to Roseburg last Friday and spent two days there conferring with the Douglas county officials about the situation.

It was agreed to make a settlement that would secure the taxes for the county and as much more as possible. It was hardly expected, though, that much more than 25 percent of the net proceeds could be secured, and whether that would go to the counties, the state or the reclamation fund would be a matter for the future to disclose.

A resolution was passed to employ former Governor Oswald West to represent the interests of Coos and Douglas counties before the Congressional committees which will pass on the pending bill to extinguish the title of the Southern Oregon company to these lands by a payment of $232,000. Gov. West said he was willing to leave it to the county judges of the two counties what his compensation should be.

It was agreed to advance him $500 for expenses. Of this amount Coos county will put up $400 and Douglas county $100. This is an unequal division but not so unequal as the interests of the two counties in the taxes due. Of these Coos stands to get $400,000 and Douglas $40,000, or only one-tenth as much.

Building That Liberty Temple.

Work on the Liberty Temple was started last Sunday morning but delays of various kinds make it doubtful that the building will be finished by tomorrow afternoon. Every evening a force of men has turned out and under the direction of Ed Ellingsen have raised a structure which will be a tribute of love from Coquille to the boys of this vicinity who have entered the service.

That there is imperative need of this temple just now was shown Wednesday evening when L. H. Hazard produced the great quantities of literature, posters and correspondence he has received in connection with the Third Liberty Loan.

When the building is finished, it will present a very fine appearance and silence the criticism which has been directed at it from some quarters.

Potatoes delivered anywhere in town on Saturdays for One Dollar a hundred. Ed Johnson. Phone 1131.

LIBERTY DAY PARADE

The ladies of the Red Cross will serve dinner in W. O. W. hall from 11:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. Price 50c.

An auction sale of a gentle saddle horse and two-year old colt, owned by Mr. Geo. Lester, will be conducted by Col. Nick Johnson. Half the proceeds of the sale will be donated to the local Red Cross by Mr. Lester.

Those Days of '49 Recalled.

For three evenings next week Coquille will enjoy the excitement and abandon of "The Days of '49." Under the auspices of the Home Guard a three days' carnival will be held in Heazlet Hall—Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 11, 12 and 13.

Home Guard "Currency" in denominations from one to one thousand bucks will be the medium of exchange on all games of chance such as faro, stud and draw poker, twenty-one, roulette wheel, "craps," etc.

A lively competition will develop between young ladies for the two fine prizes offered in the popularity contest. Saturday night this currency will be used for balloting, each buck representing one vote, and the first prize will be a $50 Liberty Bond. The second will be two Baby Bonds of $5 maturity value each.

A "1918 Bone Dry Bar" and a jazz dance each evening will add to the enjoyment of the carnival.

Tomorrow's Parade.

For the Liberty Parade at 2 p. m. tomorrow Mayor Johnson has declared a legal holiday from 1:30 to 4 p. m. and every place of business in town is supposed to be closed. The mills, which have run an extra hour this week, will shut down at noon so that all employes may participate.

The general committee requests that all business houses and residences be decorated. The city will also hang out all available streamers and flags and nothing will be left undone to make this the most patriotic demonstration ever held in Coos county. The program of the afternoon's events will be found on the last page of this issue.

The Honor Guard Girls will give an exhibition drill after the parade tomorrow afternoon.

Death of Pat Rackleff.

Mrs. Alma Rackleff, who has for some weeks past been acting as secretary of the Third Liberty Loan campaign committee at Marshfield, left Tuesday morning for Florence, having received news of the serious illness of her husband, A. R. Rackleff. Mr. R. has resided in Coquille for some years and formerly had a position in Lorenz's dry goods store.

Word was received from Florence yesterday morning that Mr. Rackleff died a few minutes before Mrs. Rackleff reached his bedside Wednesday afternoon. The cause of his death was due to leakage of the heart from which he had suffered for several years.

"Pat" Rackleff was a man whom everyone liked and his passing will be mourned by a large circle of friends all over Coos county.

A fire broke out at 6 o'clock Wednesday night in the North Bend condenser, which destroyed several hundred cans of condensed milk and greatly damaged the plant. A similar fire occurred a year ago and both are attributed to an unscrubbed chimney.

A Certain Rich Man.

If it was advertised that the richest man in the world was to come to Coquille on a certain date we imagine something of a crowd would gather at the depot to see him alight from the train. Well, John P. Weyerhaeuser, the present head of the family which is said to be the richest in the world, came in here Monday without any fuss or feathers, accompanied by Geo. W. Marshall, their tax agent from Tacoma, and went to the court house here and paid $9,000 as the first half of the Weyerhaeuser taxes for 1917.

The visitors were the guests of A. J. Sherwood at dinner on that day.

Mr. Weyerhaeuser is one of the plainest and most unassuming of men, despite his financial standing, and the most remarkable thing anyone who meets him will learn about him is his intense religious convictions. He is the president of all the Weyerhaeuser corporations, which own millions and billions of feet of standing timber in western Oregon and Washington and control more lumber land than any other aggregation in the world. Their holdings in Coos county are in the most inaccessible section of the county and will not probably be logged off until practically all the rest of the timber on the coast is gone.

Further than that probably no man in Coos county would be willing to take their lands here as a gift, if he knew he had to pay taxes at the rate of $18,000 a year for 20 years before he could realize anything from them.

Moose Officers Installed.

The Loyal Order of Moose held their annual installation last evening. The affair was public and the Ladies of Mooseheart were there in force. A very enjoyable time was spent after the ceremonies. Past Dictator W. B. Clark made a talk on "Mooseheart," a mock initiation and a Hooxerized banquet closing the evening's events. Mr. Clark, who has served as Dictator the past year, was presented with a diamond-studded gold Past Dictator's emblem and for once in his life "Happy" was speechless. The officers installed were:

- Past Dictator—W. B. Clark.
 Dictator—E. N. Moon.
 Vice-Dictator—W. J. Ferbrache.
 Prelate—Fred McClellan.
 Secretary—A. B. Collier.
 Treasurer—A. R. Kay.
 Sergeant-at-Arms—Wm. Jensen.
 Inner Guard—G. C. McQuigg.
 Outer Guard—R. L. Abell.
 Trustees—Aaron Wilson and Jerry Peart.

Moose Attention!

All Loyal Moose will appear at the hall at 10 a. m. tomorrow, April 6, in full uniform to participate in the Liberty parade.

E. N. Moon, Dictator.

Some Draft Figures.

Miss Eva Schroeder, clerk for the military board here, furnishes the Sentinel the following figures:

Total in Class 1	475
Total in Class 2	296
Total in Class 3	117
Total in Class 4	388
Grand Total	1270

The number examined and rejected in Class 1 was 125. In that class 83 failed to appear for examination, 365 were found qualified for general military service; 26 were found qualified for limited service only and one examination was delayed. The only colored men in the total above were two in Class 4.

Cary the First Victim.

Leo J. Cary is walking heavily on a cane this week and receiving such appellations from his friends as "Rip Van Winkle" and "Pot Roast No. 2." Sunday while lifting a heavy sill timber at the Liberty Temple, the other end was dropped a couple of inches before he let go and his back was given a severe wrench. He is also accused of seeking to associate with the crippled and pro-Huns who alone can escape participating in the parade tomorrow.

To My Laundry Patrons.

Having sold the laundry part of my business, I wish to thank each one of my customers for their patronage during the eleven and a half years that I have been in business. I wish to ask you to continue your patronage with Mr. D. Hurley who succeeds me in the Laundry business. I have reason to believe that he will be able to give more attention to the laundry and will be able to give you better service than I have as soon as he gets acquainted with the people and local requirements. I will continue in the ice business at the old stand, and plan some improvements in that line. Very truly, A. T. Morrison.
