Leslie Schroeder and Edwin Lund came home last Friday evening from Eugene where they attended U. of O. the past year.

E. W. Sturtevant was brought home to Riverton last night from Colfax, California, where he had been staying for some time.

There will be religious services at Anderson's Hall Sunday evening, June 23, at 8 p. m., conducted by Rev. W. H. Church.

Tuesday morning was especially cool for the season here and frost was reported in some localities though not enough to hurt.

Another nice batch of 13 new subscriptions has just been added to the Sentinel's list. Everybody seems to want to read it.

Captain Cassius R. Peck, of Marshfield, now at Camp Lewis, has been promoted to the position of camp judge advocate there.

Mrs. R. H. Mast, who has been visiting her son and daughter at Vancouver the past two weeks, is expected home the last of this week.

Over at Roseburg so severe is the drought that it is said wheat is being cut for hay before it has headed out and while only a foot in height.

In the Sentinel's slow, but we believe sure, advance towards the cash-in-advance basis, we shall have to graduate the class of 1916 early in July.

Grant Cook and his sister, Miss Mabel, returned Sunday night from Prineville, near which place they spent the winter on the Ike Blevens' ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, and Philip Johnson, of Coquille, were in Eugene yesterday.—Eugene Register.

Lans Leneve's "Patriotic Poems" are enjoying a phenomenal sale. He has already disposed of 500 and reports that ninety per cent of those solicited take a copy.

Editor M. C. Maloney, of the Coos Bay Times, started east Sunday morning, having been summoned to Dubuque, Iowa, on account of the serious illness of his father.

The Sitka Club here will run an excursion to Bandon Sunday, June 30, leaving Coquille at 6:30 a. m. and Bandon at 6 p. m. This will give a good long day on the beach.

There will be an equity term of the Circuit Court here in a few days, probably next week. It has been deferred on account of the illness and death of Judge Coke's mother.

The M. W. A. ice cream social held in Lamb's grove last Friday evening was not extensively patronized. The receipts amounted to $19.75 of which the Red Cross received $6.00.

A letter from Miss Rena Anderson, formerly of our city schools, informs us that she is going to spend the summer at Eugene attending the summer school of the state university.

Bandon was without electric lights slab wood to run the light plant, being shut down. This again was due to lack of boats to ship out the lumber with which the mill was congested.

Earl Nosler, who is on the western front in France, writes home telling how much the Red Cross is doing for the soldiers. A safety razor to each man is the latest thoughtful present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman made an auto trip down to Port Orford Tuesday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Emma Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lawrence. They returned Wednesday evening.

Over at the Bay a couple of Englewood families about 2 o'clock yesterday morning heard a humming in the sky, which grew louder and then fainter, and which they felt sure was an airplane flying over.

Mrs. Hal Pierce returned Monday evening from Portland where she attended the grand lodge of the Eastern Star held there last week. Mrs. Bert Folsom, who was one of the grand officers last year, also attended the sessions.

Yesterday was the last day for returning flour under the call made the first of the month and unless another call is made the slackers along this line will be able to enjoy their wheat bread while our allies are suffering for flour.

The ladies of the Aasen's Camp Auxiliary of the American Red Cross ask us to announce that there will be no dance there in the near future as announced at the time of the last dance. These dances will be suspended until fall.

Dr. V. L. Hamilton and Chas. Harlocker and their families returned Sunday evening from an auto trip to Portland and Camp Lewis. Going out they made the run to Portland in eleven hours actual running time and in less on the return trip.

George Lee went to the Salmon mountain mining district to work on the new road being built to the holdings of the Coal and Metal trustees. There are now 10 men employed in the road work and development of the mine has started.—Record.

Lans Leneve was up at Powers Wednesday selling copies of his Patriotic Poems, half the net proceeds of which he donates to the Red Cross. Out of 74 people offered copies he made 70 sales. In a little over a week he has sold over 500 booklets.

Martha Heisig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heisig, a 13-year-old girl at the Bay, was before Judge Watson Monday charged with running around recklessly at night. She was paroled in care of her parents who should have looked after her more closely before.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson and daughter, Mary Esther, and Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hawkins and daughter, Marvin, returned Monday evening from a trip to Portland in the former's car. Philip Johnson and Stanley Emery also made the trip in Philip's bug.

Remember the public "500" party at the W. O. W. hall this evening. The net proceeds of this affair will be given to the local Red Cross and the participants will have a very enjoyable evening for their money. Score cards will be 35 cents, and refreshments 15 cents.

J. B. Shelton was a caller the first of the week and showed us some beautiful handkerchiefs and other souvenirs sent him from the French front by his son, Alva. The elder Shelton was a confederate soldier during the closing years of the civil war and knows what war is.

D. C. Krantz informs us that his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clara Krantz, has a three-year-old Jersey that is giving 24 pounds of milk a day that tests 6.9. That means about a pound and three-quarters of butter fat a day—over 90 cents worth. Who among our readers has a cow that can beat this record?

Last Monday a good many people inspected with much interest the German gas mask C. L. Willey had just received from his son, Captain Earl Willey. It is an ugly looking affair and was probably taken from a German prisoner or a dead soldier. The Huns who wear those things must look as Satanic as most of them act.

A letter received from Stewart Norton at Mare Island Wednesday evening stated that he and Chas. Willey had just passed their final examination for entrance into the Marine Corps and had signed the muster roll, although they had not been assigned yet. Ivan Laird, who had passed about a week before their arrival, is also at Mare Island.

J. M. Nye Critically Ill.

Last Monday Fred Belloni received a telegram from San Francisco apprising him of the very serious illness of his brother-in-law, J. M. Nye, who was long a resident of Coquille. Mr. Nye had been in the hospital for some time previous suffering with an abscess on the brain. Since Mrs. Nye's death both of Mr. Nye's children, Joey and Sarah Margaret, have been living with Mr. and Mrs. Belloni. Mrs. Belloni and Joey were up in the Portland neighborhood at the time, where they and her mother had gone to bid good-bye to their son and brother, William Cope, on the eve of his departure for France. On being informed by telegraph of her brother-in-law's condition, Mrs. Belloni decided at once to take both the Nye children down to their father. Joey was with her and Geneva Robinson took little Sarah Margaret out to Eugene to go south from there with Mrs. Belloni. Wednesday Miss Robinson and Mrs. Cope returned to Coquille. No further news as to Mr. Nye's condition had been received here up to noon today.

Big Celebration at Bandon.

The Bandon Home Guard are planning for a big celebration at that place July 4th. One of the principal events of the day will be a review of all the Coos county guard companies which can be induced to go to Bandon—probably four—by Col. John B. Hubbard, of the Multnomah Guard, who is also general chairman of the state home guard organization. At their meeting Monday evening the local company voted to participate and it is hoped that every member will forego any previous arrangements and plan to go with the company to Bandon. The Dispatch and the Relief will both be used for the excursion that day.

Another feature of the celebration will be a ball game between the Bandon and Coquille Home Guard teams. Besides these, Capt. W. S. Wells, of the Bandon Guards, informs us there will be other new and interesting features in the celebration which they plan to make unique in Coos county Fourth of July affairs.

Judge Watson Denies Charge.

Editor Sentinel:—In your paper of the issue of the 14th of June, appears an article signed by C. R. Barrow in which I am accused of doing injury to Mr. Barrow in business and politically, and attacking his integrity and ability, and also of John C. Kendall. I absolutely deny that I ever attacked the integrity or ability of either C. R. Barrow, or John C. Kendall, or in any way meddled with their business or private affairs.

I admit that I cast my vote for A. K. Peck in the recent primary election, but deny that I took an active part in his campaign against Mr. Barrow, and I also admit that I supported Mr. Peck against John C. Kendall at the primary election two years ago.

James Watson.

Saturday Evening's Dance.

A very successful dance was that given in Anderson's Hall by the Home Guard last Saturday evening, a large crowd being present—many of them from Bandon, Myrtle Point, Powers and river points. The concert by the Venetian Troubadours, preceding the dance, although not so largely attended, was enjoyed by a fair house. The total receipts were about $138, of which the company netted $63.

War Work Calls.

The war department has ruled that all men of the draft age must go to the farms, mills, camps and shipyards to aid in war work unless actually enlisted in the military service. This makes it necessary for stores to readjust their affairs to conform to the best interest of the nation. Two of our experienced men will answer this call and one has volunteered for service and has been accepted in the U. S. Marine Corps. To continue the service we have been giving would necessitate our entering the labor market and competing with the above industries for active men above the draft age. This we feel would be unpatriotic and we have decided to make the following changes. Commencing July 1st we will adopt the one delivery a day system recommended by the government, and will discontinue our solicitor, and will employ women as clerks for the duration of the war. We earnestly urge our customers to come to the store and make their purchases, see what they are getting and ask the price. If not convenient to do this we have three main line phones in the store and all telephone orders will be given careful attention. Delivery hours will be published next week. We ask your kind consideration in the effort to conform to the demand for greater efficiency in war work. The Busy Corner.

Killed By a Live Wire.

Chas. L. McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. McCormick, until two years ago residents of Riverton but now living at Bunker Hill, was instantly killed Sunday morning when he came in contact with a live wire at the Smith mill on Coos Bay. Mr. McCormick, who had recently gone to work for the Smith Co. as electric crane man, was working on the crane, when in some unknown way his hand touched the wire carrying about 490 volts. The body could not be removed until the power had been shut off.

The funeral was held at the Ellingsen Undertaking parlors in Coquille at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. W. B. Couper. The interment was in the Odd Fellow's cemetery. Charles Lincoln McCormick was born at Libby in this county December 15, 1897, and was 20 years, 6 months and 1 day of age at the time of his death. He lived at Riverton most of his life until two years ago when he entered the employ of the Smith mill. After a short stay there he drove a stage between Bunker Hill and Marshfield and later was interested in the Marshfield-Bandon stage line. It is only a short time since he re-entered the Smith Co. employ.

April 24, this year, he was married to Miss Virginia Elizabeth Lyster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lyster, of Gardiner, who for a year and a half prior to her marriage had been cashier at the North Bend News Co.

Besides his wife and parents, Mr. McCormick leaves to mourn his passing a brother, Grant; a half-brother, Ellis, who is chief engineer and first lieutenant on the U. S. S. Santiago; and a half sister, Mrs. Reta Johnson, of Oakland, Calif.

It was only a few days prior to his death that Mr. McCormick took out a $2,000 policy in the Oregon Life Co., which amount his wife will receive, as well as the benefits of the state's workmen's compensation act.

The casket laden with flowers arrived on the 9 a. m. train Wednesday. The relatives and friends who came over here from that city for the funeral were: M. W. McCormick, the father, and Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Chas. McCormick, the widow, Mrs. Eva Gamil, the grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Lyster and Miss Hazel Lyster, of Smith River, relatives of the widow, Mrs. B. Smith, of Riverton, Mrs. Jess Key of North Bend, Miss Mabel Billings, Mrs. Mary Heuckendorff, of Prosper, Pull bearers were: Logan Kay, Ezra Smith, Walter Smith, Wm. Harris, Leo L. Chappelle and Chas. Magary. Rev. Couper, of the Episcopal church of Coquille, officiated at the service.

Getting the Submarines.

A telegram came to M. W. McCormack Tuesday night, says the Record, from his son, First Lieut. Ellis McCormack on the U. S. S. San Diego, just returned from the first trip to France with troops and now stationed at Newport News, that on the homeward trip the Coos Bay boy had operated the gun which sunk a pursuing submarine. The name of the youth was not included in the telegram but has been wired for.

The battleship on which Lieut. McCormack is stationed is undergoing repairs preparatory to another overseas trip.

Yesterday's Times has the following additional in relation to that story:

By recent letters to Mrs. Freeman Stewart, of Empire, it has been concluded that the man referred to was Wesley Dean, who enlisted from Eureka, a cousin of the Freeman Stewart's, of the George Stewart's, of Riverton, and a brother of Mrs. I. R. Stenvensson residing in one of the Morarity houses on South Eleventh street. He was in a gun crew on the San Diego and in his letter tells of receiving a medal as member of a crew which sank a submarine. He is the son of Mrs. Hattie Immie, of Eureka, and was never on Coos Bay.

John Abram Tenbrook, nephew of Mrs. Ida Paterson and John F. Hall, may have been the fortunate young man since he has been on the San Diego for five trips across. He is now an entrant at Annapolis.

A letter after his last trip stated that the ship met three submarines two of which will never be seen again.

"Germany" Starts Them.

Wednesday Joseph Carron, an old gentleman from Norway, brought a couple of gallons of strawberries, in to the Creamery to donate to the Norway Auxiliary of the Red Cross.

The berries filled about ten small boxes and were put up at auction. "Here, Germany, you start them at fifty cents," said Mrs. McCloskey to one of the hands at the Creamery, who goes by that name.

"I'll give a dollar for a box and here are your berries back to sell again."

One after another did the same thing, though not all; and when the berries were all gone the Auxiliary had received $21 for the ten boxes.

McCarthy Quits the Board.

Dennis McCarthy has resigned as a member of the Coos county re-valuation board, his private interests necessitating the giving up of the special work. Mr. McCarthy said that he had tendered his resignation about a week ago to Judge Watson. When he accepted the appointment, it was with the understanding that he might have to give it up but the work is taking longer than was anticipated.

The board is now completing the revaluation work at Bandon. Mr. McCarthy said that in many instances Bandon assessments were higher than in some other towns in the county but a number of errors were found. For instance, the Ellingsen block, was going along under an old valuation. The lot was assessed for about $700 and the building about $500. A new concrete block had been erected and the value was changed to $5,000 on the lot and $16,000 on the building.

When Bandon is completed, the checking up of farm and ranch values will begin.

Mr. McCarthy's retirement leaves Messrs. Collier, Selander and Kimball as members of the board. Mr. Kimball acted on the Bay side work and Mr. Collier on the Coquille side, but now Mr. Kimball will probably take Mr. McCarthy's place on the board for rural appraisements.—Times.

Drouth Cuts Wheat Short.

Hark Dunham, who was out in the Willamette valley the first of the week says he saw only one field of wheat there he would consider worth cutting. They were talking about a third of a crop but the grain was less than a foot in height with only here and there a head. The drouth is far more severe there than with us. J. A. Hatcher, who was in from Fairview this morning, says he has a 2 1/2 acre patch of wheat that stands 4 or 5 feet in height and looks fine. It is in bloom now. Zena Strang has a similar patch close to his.

Dr. E. E. Straw, now captain in the Medical Reserve Corps, former mayor and physician in Marshfield, was wedded last week at Rockford, Ill., where he has been stationed at Camp Grant since January 25th. The news comes from Miss Mabel Billings, formerly a nurse in the Doctor's office. A previous letter stated that the bride-to-be was an Oregon, Ill., girl, which gave a suggestion as to how the romance may have started, but no name was forthcoming.

Mrs. M. P. Jacobsen entertained the children of Roy District Saturday afternoon, June 8th at a Red Cross Party in honor of her daughter, Marjorie's, birthday. The children were requested to bring a small donation to the Red Cross instead of the customary present.

Ice cream and Hoover cakes were enjoyed by the little ones, and a sum of $3.10 netted for the Red Cross.

It won't be long after the war until Coquille will have to reach out and get her water supply from the Brewster canyon of the East Fork. The little creeks from which we are drawing now do not furnish an adequate supply, though bigger dams at the head of the pipe lines on Rink and Walker creeks would help some.
