Christian Church Church of Christ The bonfire social given by the C. E. S. Saturday night was a decided success with about 20 of the soldier boys present to help us make merry. All reported an excellent evening. After partaking of roast weinies and marshmallows every one joined in singing songs, then visiting until time of departure. Meetings like this draw us nearer in fellowship and good will. We hope to have many such during the winter. Watch the paper for our next social which is coming soon. A good one it will be. The regular monthly business meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyrie Monday evening with a goodly number present. After the business was transacted all partook of the Hoover refreshments, which Mrs. Boyrie knows so well how to serve. A social time followed and all departed feeling the better to know that our C. E. was growing in interest as well as in numbers.

Ramp Dunsmore, first vice-president of the Washington C. E. Union, who is stationed at Beaver Hill, gave us a short address Sunday morning which was enjoyed by all. And with eleven of the Sitka Spruce boys in our Sunday School and morning service the Sunday School is becoming quite military looking. We appreciate their attendance and help. Total number present was 97; we expect to go over the top next Lord's ay. Come and help us.

Subject next Sunday morning will be: "The Bible and How to Understand It." 7:30 p. m.: "Our Day of Opportunity." The stereopticon picture machine will be used in the opening service Sunday evening. All evening services one half hour earlier. Everybody welcome.—Eves Correspondent.
