

Talking About People and Events in the City and County.

E. A. Warrick went over to Marshfield Monday night.

Dance for the benefit of the Coquille Coos Guard tomorrow evening.

Marshfield is trying out a new $425 electric siren for its fire alarm.

Alva Lee, of Myrtle Point, was a caller at this office on Wednesday.

Mrs. L. A. Lashburn, of McKelvey, was a Sentinel visitor last Saturday.

Henry Strong, of the Myrtle Point section, was a Sentinel caller Wednesday.

A. T. Morrison went to Portland and Hillsboro yesterday on a business trip.

The Sentinel and the Oregon Farmer, both one year, for only $1.65 at this office.

Herbert Lukens came in from Eugene last evening but will return there tomorrow.

Rev. W. E. Couper went out by Tuesday morning's train for a trip to Mendocino.

A dozen women are now at work in the planing mill of the Bushner plant at North Bend.

Remember the Coos Guard dance at Anderson's Hall here tomorrow evening. Dance, 8c; war tax 1c.

Gardiner people had to put up a deficit of $140 on the Radcliffe Chautauque which was there a month ago.

Mrs. J. W. Lemore has been very ill the past week and no one is allowed to see her. Heart trouble is the cause.

John Stanley is another Coquille boy who entered the U. S. T. C. at Eugene this week. He left for there last Sunday.

This morning the case of George Witte vs. Peter B. Brunsrud, Brynjulf Brunsrud, Antone E. Brunsrud et al, was filed.

State Highway Engineer Herbert Nunn has bought a ranch in the Yaguine Bay section and will embark in the dairy business.

Mrs. E. A. Folsom and her brother, Roy Garrett, intend leaving today or tomorrow by auto for Oakland, Calif., to visit their mother.

There is a cheap lot on Front street right in the midst of the business section for sale. Call at the Sentinel office and learn about it.

Charles L. Starr, of Portland, attorney for the Boutin interests, is down here today, having business with the board of equalization.

Miss Beattie Maury has resigned her position with The Title Co., and about the 10th inst. will enter on her new duties in the First National Bank.

The 200 soldiers now at work on the Beaver Hill railroad extension are reported to be 100 per cent patriotic in buying a $100 Liberty Loan bond apiece.

Rev. C. L. Hamilton, father of Dr. V. L. Hamilton of this city, has been assigned to the pastorate of the Marshfield M. E. church for the coming year.

It is expected that the Sitka mill will shut down for a week in the near future to furnish an opportunity to compete the improvements now under way there.

Remember that we furnish the Oregon Farmer and the Sentinel both for $1.65 for a year in advance. This is a bargain counter offer, such as you can't get much longer.

The voters of the Marshfield school district will hold a meeting on the 26th of this month to decide whether to increase the school levy more than six per cent over last year's figures.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robertson, parents of Mrs. J. L. Smith, who have been visiting her for the past six weeks, left yesterday morning on the return trip home. Mr. Smith drove them out to Roseburg in his Ford.

Just received from Eugene, Ore., the following from the Portland office of the Oregon Farmer: "The paper has just paid for the Sentinel for a year in advance and only wants the difference."

Miss Beatrice DeWolfe returned from the Bay and on Tuesday resumed her old position in the county clerk's office here. Everybody who has occasion to do business at that office will be glad to see her there again.

W. A. Coster has received word from his son, Irvin, who is the Y. M. C. A. secretary at Portland, that he had to go to the hospital the first of the week to have an operation for appendicitis. He stood it well, however.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Burns have received word from their son, Raymond, who is in the Marine Corps and stationed in a camp in Virginia, that he is recovering from an attack of the Spanish influenza, but that he is still quite weak.

E. C. Barber, of Allegany, looked after business matters in Coquille today. Mrs. Clarence Gould, his sister-in-law, who left here two years ago for Arizona in hopes of benefiting her health, is now much improved, said Mr. Barber.—Record.

Over at Marshfield this week there has been a sort of a sugar famine, many of the grocers being entirely out of granulated sugar, although there was enough brown, leaf and powdered stock. War shortages are becoming more common every day.

These subscribers who fail to receive this issue of the Sentinel will need only to refer to their copies for the past two weeks to learn the reason why. Of course, we understand they will not see this item unless they are able to borrow a copy of this issue.

Word comes from V. M. Arrington, formerly of the Sentinel office, that he has received a medal as a sharpshooter at the Virginia camp where he is now stationed. This is considered remarkable in view of the fact that Vin always did his shooting left-handed.

Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist and daughters came over from Marshfield Monday. Ingrid will stay with Grandpa Sherwood, while Cynthia accompanies her mother to Eugene and Portland for visits with Mrs. L.'s sisters, Mrs. F. G. Jennings and Mrs. Ralph's Cate.

There will be a special train from Myrtle Point tomorrow night for those who want to go to Powers to attend the installation of the new Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges there. Passengers from Coquille will take the regular train at 7:40 for Myrtle Point. There will be no special rate; the fare is $1.19 each way.

Lans Lemore says that a grouse recently appeared in their yard that was so tame it was possible to catch it with a hook on the end of a pole and finally even by hand. It was put in the coop among the chickens and appeared perfectly contented and at home but finally got out by way of an opening that held the chickens and flew away.

P. E. Drane says the roof on his store building and rooming house a block east of the Sentinel office, which Mr. Hooton is now repainting, was put on about 40 years ago. It was made of old growth red cedar shingles hand shaved and Mr. Hooton says that he will guarantee it to outlast any new roof of sawed shingles put on today.

F. G. Leslie received word from his son, Julian, who is a sergeant-instructor at the U. O. Students Army Training Corps, that his application for enlistment in the navy had been accepted, with the additional information that he would be given an opportunity in the naval aviation corps as soon as possible. Julian will remain at Eugene for three weeks before entering the navy.

She Was a Sugar Hog.

Miss R. Harris, of Portland, has been fined $50 in Judge Wolverson's court for being a sugar hog. She eluded the policy of duplicating her two pounds a month by buying in a number of stores. When arrested she had 28 pounds of sugar in her possession.

Judge John V. Coker, of Marshfield, has been appointed the candidate for Justice of the Peace Court of Oregon, subject to the decision of the voters at the November election.

This candidacy is for the place made vacant by the death of Justice Frank A. Moore.

Justice Coker has been on the bench of the State Circuit Court in the second district for ten years, to which he was originally appointed by Governor Chamberlain and twice elected since. In the last election to that position he carried every county in the district, with five candidates in the race.

In the May primary Judge Coker was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court in the contest in which Charles A. Johns, of Multnomah County, was the victor by a plurality of about 1200 votes. Outside of Multnomah County the lead of Judge Coker was about 7000 over his highest competitor. It was a triangular battle in the primary election, with Judge Percy R. Kelley, of Albany, the third candidate.—Oregonian.

Churches Federate Sunday

Rev. James E. Conder, pastor of the Federated Church of Coquille, returned last Saturday evening from Portland, where he had been attending the annual conference of the M. E. Church, and where the other members of the committee to agree upon a minister for the church here approved his selection.—Dr. Moore, of the M. E. church and Dr. Montgomery, of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Conder filed the pulpits here Sunday morning and evening, and on Monday morning started for his former home at Chico, Cal., to attend to some business matters and bid farewell to his adopted son, Joseph Weaver, who has enlisted in the U. S. service. As it happened, on Monday evening a telegram for him arrived from the son stating that he was just starting for Salem, Ore., so it was left uncertain whether they would not pass in the night, as one was going south and the other north. Mr. Conder is expected to return to Coquille tonight and get into the harness as pastor of the three churches in one.

To Go Into the Navy

H. N. Lorenz went out to Eugene Saturday with his son, Fred, who is now enrolled as a student at the State University. Attending college is now part of the military training of young men of draft age. Fred has selected the navy for his career, however, but was sixtieth in order of application, while the university can only send fifty now. Still as about a third of the applicants fail to pass the very rigid physical examination his chance of going to sea are much better than would appear at first view. Naval volunteers only remain three months at the university and are then sent to one of the naval training schools.

No Room in the Inn

Sam Armstrong, a son of Commissioner Armstrong, of Bandon, went out to enter O. A. C. last week Thursday, but found things so crowded he could find no place to stay. He says the girls have been crowded out of all the dormitories and are living four in rooms in the fraternity houses that have been turned over to them. For the boys 15 pounds of straw and a pair of blankets are being furnished for a bed. Sam will try it again next week by which time there is a prospect of additional accommodations.

Columbus Day at the Schools

Columbus Day will be observed at the High School next Friday at 10:15 a. m. The principal feature will be a contest among the students for the best four-minute speeches on the Fourth Liberty Loan. Prizes of thrift stamps and a baby bond will be awarded. Parents and friends are invited to attend and help encourage the school in its expression of patriotism.

Dance Tomorrow Night

Those who delight to trip the light fantastic will not forget the dance tomorrow evening in Anderson's Hall, to be given by the Coquille Coos Guard. The floor is in good shape and the entire guard will act as floor managers to see that every one has an opportunity to enjoy himself to the limit. Everyone is invited.

Notice to Red Cross Subscribers

The final payment on Red Cross pledges was due Oct. 1, 1918, and should be paid at once to O. C. Sanford, collector. A number of subscribers have failed to make any payments on their pledges and some are delinquent with their payments. It is your patriotic duty to take care of these pledges promptly.

Remember that in subscribing for the Sentinel for $1.50 a year you can get the Oregon Farmer in addition by paying only 15 cents more.

A Specific Closing Order

There is the order made by the State Council of Defense to go into effect Oct. 2, but the time for which has since been postponed until next Monday. Meanwhile there has been made a general order made against the provisions that it may be considerably modified.

Resolved, That on and after October 1, 1918, all sales of merchandise at any point within the state of Oregon, on the first day of the week, commonly known as Sunday, at any time after 9 p. m. on Saturday, and at any time after 6 p. m. on any other day of the week should be discontinued during the continuance of the war; provided, that such sales may be made at any drug store until 8 p. m. of any day of the week except Sunday, and that the foregoing prohibition shall not apply in the case of drug stores in the filling of prescriptions, sale of medicines or sick room necessities, any or all of which may be sold on any day at any hour; provided, further, that the selling of meals or articles of food in restaurants, hotels, lunch counters and eating rooms shall not be deemed the sale of merchandise under the terms of this resolution; and, provided further, that the sale of gasoline, distillate and lubricating oil at garages and public filling stations, except in the supplying of motor trucks actually engaged directly or indirectly in war industries, shall be deemed the sale of merchandise and subject to the terms and conditions of this resolution.

There has been no excitement in Coquille over this order with which it will be seen, by an advertisement elsewhere published, the Standard Oil company will strictly comply. This order would make general the early closing movement already adopted by so many of our business houses.

Kansas Ladies Leave for Home

Mrs. C. C. Kincaid and Mrs. F. J. Straub, of Cherryvale, Kansas, who for the past six weeks have been visiting their sister, Mrs. C. E. Barrow, of Coquille, and their brother, J. B. Marshall, of Bandon, left on the Saturday morning train for San Francisco and Long Beach, California, where they have other relatives. After visiting there some two or three weeks they will return to their home in Kansas. They enjoyed very much their trip to Oregon, never having been on this part of the Pacific coast before. And what they especially enjoyed was our Coos county climate, which they think beats California. They were also very favorably impressed with our Coos county fruit and vegetables which they denominated par-excellence.

Packed Like Sardines

Arthur Hooton, who has just gone out to Corvallis to resume his studies at O. A. C. says three thousand men are in attendance there now and that it is difficult to get rooms for them all. They are packed five men to a room in Waldo Hall, which used to be the girls' dormitory, Cauthorn and one other hall are full and half the residences in Corvallis are furnishing rooms for students. The recent registration of all the young men has much to do with this tremendous influx, as those entering such schools now stand a fair chance of getting commissions as officers in Uncle Sam's new army.

To Cruise Remote Timber

James Cowan, cruiser, left for Remote, Tuesday morning, in the country 14 miles south of Myrtle Point, to cruise timber in a half section of land owned by the Fyfe-Wilson Co., in which grows a fine quality of white cedar. Already one camp has been established there with a force of 12 men and others will be opened, it is planned. The company is now on an entire out of white cedar.—Record.

Times Wrong About Boutin

The article we copied from the Coos Bay Times last week, stating that Frank Boutin got his interest in the timber tract in this county, which bears his name, as a promoter's fee proves to have been entirely unfounded, so far as that statement goes. Frank Boutin bought the tract and paid for it himself. He still owns over two-thirds of it, though he has sold some stock in the property.

Building Beaver Hill Railroad

Work on the second trestle of the railroad at the U. S. camp at Beaver Hill was completed Wednesday night and the track is being laid on the first trestle which was completed about a week ago.

Thursday morning the construction of a spur line to the place where the first of the ten logging sides is to be located will begin. The spur will be about a mile long.

It is expected that the road connecting with the spur leading to the old Klondike mine, which is being re-opened for government use, will be completed within the next five days. This will mean that over two miles of the road is all ready for operation.

Approximately 20 men are working in putting the mine into running order and coal will be ready for fuel when the logging operations are primed to begin.

A cook house has been erected and barracks for the 300 men who are camped there are nearing completion. Small detachments of men come in from Vancouver almost every day.—Coos Bay Times.

Figures Mean Years Not Days

About those subscription dates some of our subscribers do not seem to be exactly clear. "Oct. 18" after a subscriber's name for instance does not mean October 18th, but October, 1918. As nearly as possible we have all dates run from the first of each month, so as to limit the number of expiration dates in the year to 12 instead of having 365 of them. We find it better to give two or three extra papers, if necessary, to start a subscription at the beginning of the month rather than to have a confusing multiplicity of dates. So remember the figures in the date are always for the year, never for the day of the month.

Slackers to Be Shown Up

Speaking of the re-soliciting for the Fourth Liberty Loan drive which will begin there next Monday, the Coos Bay Times says:

The list of bond buyers is now being checked up and the list of slackers compiled. People who have tried to "get by" with $50 or $100 purchases when they should have taken several times that much will find themselves in a very embarrassing position.

No Questionnaires For Them

In answer to many registrants over thirty-six and under sixteen, who are anxious to learn why they have not received their questionnaires, Mr. Beyers requests us to say that the government has directed that no questionnaires be sent them; so they will receive none until further orders from Washington.

North Bend Leads in County

At last reports North Bend had gone away over the top in her Liberty Loan quota, but Marshfield was still $60,000 behind. Outside of Portland, though, there have been enough over-subscriptions to put the state somewhat ahead, but the big city is still over a million in arrears.

Call on us for Stationery.

Coos People at State Fair

From Coos County Bulletin
The following is a list of Coos County people at the State Fair last week. There may have been some others also from here, whom we did not see:

Marshfield: John Hayden, F. A. Seckel, Geo. Goodrum, Levi Holmes.

Myrtle Point: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Backlund, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Garris and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith and son, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Carter and two daughters, Mrs. J. L. Mason, Miss Emma O'Connor, Rev. Dennis, Harold Dennis, Miss Drake, Vivian Annis, Mrs. Chewy, Lyle Nollen, Lee Weekly, J. D. Burlew, Ben Gant, Geo. Garris, Max Demant.

Brondbent: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hermann and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Neal.

Lee: J. C. Hervey
Riverton: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Latra.
Norway: A. J. Radabaugh
Coquille: Ellis Barber, W. E. Lyons, John Younkman, H. S. Cadman, Chas. Skene, Fred Slagle, A. J. Sherwood, J. L. Smith.

The largest attendance for one day at the Fair was 24,000

Twelve Cows Condemned

From Coos County Bulletin
Last month this office assisted Dr. E. B. Derflinger, Deputy State Veterinarian in testing for tuberculosis 630 head of dairy cows in this county. Of this number tested 12 cows reacted to the test, which shows that about 2% of the total were tubercular animals.

In the 40 herds tested: one herd had 4 reactors; one herd had 3 reactors; one herd had 2 reactors; three herds had 1 reactor; each and the balance of the herds were free from the disease.

There were about one hundred more applications for test which could not be attended to for the reason that Dr. Derflinger expected to be called into the army and could not stay here in the county any longer.

If you want your herd tested for T. B. the only advice we can give you is to put in your application to the State Veterinarian's office at Salem, but there is no assurance of how soon you may receive the service.
