"We Should Worry."

The Gardiner Index this week tells a story about the effects of celebrating the armistice that is certainly unique. It was breakfast time Monday morning when the bells began to ring, and everybody thought it was a fire. One citizen, who had prepared the morning meal for himself and his two children, when he got home found that the coffee had boiled over in the rolled oats and the cakes on the griddle were about the consistency of tarred roofing paper. He mixed up another batch of pancakes batter and proceeded to make up for lost time. In a little while, however, the boy looked at his sister and whispered, "What is the matter with these cakes?" "Oh nothing," replied the lass, "only papa's forgotten the baking powder and the salt. But the Kaiser's licked and we should worry."

"Eight years ago when we first moved to Mattoon, I was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation," writes Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill. "I had frequent headaches and dizzy spells, and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on my chest all the time. I felt miserable. Every morsel of food distressed me. I could not rest at night and felt tired and worn out all the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets cured me and I have since felt like a different person."

GERMANY'S BETTER FILL.

reimbursement to be paid off and completely dismantled and placed under the supervision of the allied powers and the United States of America.

23. The following German surface warships which shall be designated by the allies and the United States of America shall forthwith be dismantled and thereafter interned in neutral ports, or, for the want of them, in allied ports, to be designated by the allies and the United States of America and placed under the surveillance of the allies and the United States of America, only careenars be left on board, namely: Six battle cruisers, 10 battleships, 8 light cruisers, including two mine layers, 50 destroyers of the most modern type. All other surface warships (including river craft) are to be concentrated in German naval bases to be designated by the allies and the United States of America, and are to be paid off and completely dismantled and placed under the supervision of the allies and the United States of America. All vessels of the auxiliary fleet (trawlers, motor vessels, etc.) are to be dismantled.

24. The allies and the United States of America shall have the right to sweep up all mine fields and obstructions laid by Germany outside German territorial waters, and the positions of these are to be indicated.

25. Freedom of access to and from the Baltic to be given to the naval and mercantile marines of the allied and associated powers. To secure this, the allies and the United States of America shall be empowered to occupy all German forts, fortifications, batteries and defense works of all kinds in all the entrances from the Cattagat into the Baltic and to sweep up all the mines and obstructions within and without German territorial waters without any question of neutrality being raised, and the positions of all such mines and obstructions are to be indicated.

26. The existing blockade conditions set up by the allies and associated powers are to remain unchanged and all German merchant ships found at sea are to remain liable to capture.

27. All naval aircraft are to be concentrated and immobilized in German bases to be specified by the allies and the United States of America.

28. In evacuating the Belgian coasts and ports, Germany shall abandon all merchant ships, tugs, lighters, cranes and all other harbor materials, all materials for inland navigation, all aircraft and all materials and stores, all arms and armaments, and all stores and apparatus of all kinds.

29. All Black Sea ports are to be evacuated by Germany; all Russian war vessels of all descriptions seized by Germany in the Black Sea are to be handed over to the allies and the United States of America; all neutral vessels seized are to be released; all warlike and other materials of all kinds seized in those ports are to be returned and German materials as specified in clause 28 to be abandoned.

30. All merchant vessels in German hands belonging to the allied and associated powers are to be restored in ports to be specified by the allies and the United States of America without reciprocity.

31. No destruction of ships or of materials to be permitted before evacuation, surrender or restoration.

32. The German government will notify the neutral governments of the world, and particularly the governments of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland, that all restrictions placed on the trading of their vessels with the allied and associated countries, whether by the German government or by private German interest and whether in return for specific concessions such as the export of shipbuilding materials or not, are immediately cancelled.

33. No transfers of German merchant shipping of any description to any neutral flag are to take place after signature of the armistice.

34. The duration of the armistice is to be 30 days, with option to extend. During this period, on failure of execution of any of the above clauses, the armistice may be denounced by one of the contracting parties in 48 hours' notice.

35. This armistice to be accepted or refused by Germany within 72 hours of notification.

HOW YOUR MONEY WILL HELP "BOYS"

Official Statement of Seven Great Welfare Organizations.

Citizens of Oregon, in the week of November 11-12 will respond to the call of the United War Work Campaign for funds to make happy and effective the fighting men of the Nation. That the citizens will uphold the commonwealth's noble record in doing its share to win the war is taken for granted, once the needs are understood.

Oregon's quota in the joint drive of the seven great organizations doing war service work is $770,000. President Wilson authorized this united drive and named the participating bodies. The purposes for which the funds are needed and to which they are dedicated are vital to the war's success.

The Y. M. C. A. has more than 1000 huts in the great battle zone and is ministering to the boys overseas, in trench and camp, leaving undone nothing it can do to help them. In America "the Y" is in every camp and cantonment. It is with the boys "crossing over" and, at request of the War Department, has recently joined in the task of instructing selectives even before they are called.

War work of the Y. W. C. A. is thus outlined by Mrs. William MacMaster, state chairman:

"Already we have in this country 2,000,000 women doing actual war work, while another 2,600,000 have released men for service by undertaking their work. To the Y. W. C. A., the best big sister in the world, has been committed by the government and military authorities the serious responsibility of directing the thought, creating the environment and furnishing the material needs of this army of girls. Already 105 hostess houses have been opened, War Service Clubs organized, the Patriotic League created, nurses sent where needed and now we are asked to furnish emergency housing for thousands of girl war workers."

John W. Kelley, associate director of Columbus:

"Knights of Columbus halls are in operation in all cantonments, training camps and naval stations in the United States and the halls are also established with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, Italy, Russia and England. The motto is 'Everybody Welcomes,' service being given irrespective of race, creed, or rank. Millions of cigarettes, pipe, bouillon cubes, gum packages and tins of chocolates have been given free to the soldiers overseas. One of the specialties in the promotion of athletics and a considerable item in the budget is for baseball equipment, boxing gloves, etc. In the war zone the troops are followed with motor trucks which are virtually traveling huts, fully stocked with athletic goods, stationery, cigarettes, and the like."

Needs and activities of the Jewish Welfare Board, explained by Ben Selig, are:

"In one year the number of our field representatives has grown from 18 to 211. Now we are faced with the demand for 400 additional workers in this country and 100 overseas. The money going into our fund pays necessary expenses and salaries, furnishes Bibles and prayerbooks by the thousands and letterheads and envelopes by the millions, and provides camp, educational and recreational activities for the fighters, both here and abroad."

"War Camp Community Service," explains Emory Olmsted, state chairman, "developed from the commission created by the War and Navy Departments, first known as the Feadick Commission. The community is its particular field and thousands of workers are assisting the towns in caring for visiting soldiers and sailors, providing wholesome amusement and clean recreation and surrounding the camps with hospitality."

Functions of the American Library Association, says William L. Brewster, state chairman, are "to provide books and reading matter to the soldiers and sailors through co-operating agencies and directly." Thirty library buildings have been provided at cantonments; 3,750,000 donated books distributed; 1,000,000 books and tons of magazines sent abroad, and 600,000 needed military technical books bought and given the men.

These are some things the Salvation Army does, according to O. C. Bortz-meyer, state chairman:

"On lines of communication our huts are open day and night. Then, following their methods, our men and women go right to the trenches and distribute chocolate, coffee, doughnut, and pie. Sixty per cent of the 1600 workers are women. We have now 763 huts and 60 ambulances in service. In the past few months aid has been given the Red Cross in sending abroad 100,000 parcels."

Here's your chance—give to the Y. M. Y. W. K. of C., Salvation Army, Jewish Welfare Board, Library Association and the War Community Service and you help make a soldier, sailor or marine happier and better.

Do you want to get a good book to a soldier, sailor or marine? GIVE to the American Library Association.

GIVE to the war welfare agencies and keep up the morale of our fighting forces.

Death of Mrs. S. K. Hatcher

Mrs. S. K. Hatcher died at her home in Fairview on Friday, Nov. 8, following repeated strokes of paralysis the first of which occurred four days previous and the third of which proved fatal. The funeral was held on Sunday, conducted by Rev. Thomas Barklaw and the interment was in Fairview cemetery.

Ida J. Stillwell was born in Hampton Road, Benton county, Iowa; April 23, 1867. When quite young she moved with her parents to Kansas. After living there a few years they moved to Oregon, arriving at Fairview, Coos county, April 19, 1894, where she lived until her death.

She was united in marriage to Simon K. Hatcher, of Fairview, Aug. 21, 1884. To this union were born six children: Bertha Jane, now Mrs. Jesse S. Hilderbrand, of Mayville, Ore.; Lucinda Clementine, now Mrs. L. E. Alexander, of Coquille, Ore.; Archie Vernon, of Fairview; Sylvia Marie, deceased; Clarence B., who is now at Camp Lewis, Wash.; and Ernest Oliver, of Fairview.

Besides her husband and children to mourn her death, she leaves an aged mother, Mrs. Olive A. Stillwell, of Fairview; a sister, Mrs. Leona M. Morehead, of Walls, Wash.; three brothers, Wm. C. Stillwell, of Tygh valley, Ore.; Russell H. Stillwell, of Portland, Ore.; Sidney E. Stillwell, of Mayville, Ore.; and one grandchild, Lawrence Felmore Hatcher.

She united with the Baptist church when ten years of age and has ever been a faithful worker.

She was a loving wife and mother, a kind friend and neighbor.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends who so kindly assisted us during the illness, death and burial of our beloved wife and mother.

HOSIERY AND SHOE SHADES

Mahogany and Chocolats Among Popular Colors—Matching Requires Careful Attention.

If you have a new pair of mahogany or chocolate oxford or walking pumps, be sure to take them—or one of the pair at least—with you when you select stockings to accompany your new footwear.

It is positively bewildering to note how many shades of mahogany and chocolate the stocking manufacturers seem to have achieved this season. And so color—save perhaps blue—is so hard to "carry in one's eye" as a shade of brown.

There are reddish brown stockings and purplish brown ones, and yellowish brown ones, and without the leather footgear an guide it is extremely difficult to pick out the exact shade required.

In matching the shoes to stockings also remember to slip your hand—bare, not gloved—inside the stocking to get the effect of the sheer weave over the skin. So delicate are some of the new shades that the mere addition of the flesh tone beneath will prevent a good match in stocking and shoe.

It is usually well to buy tan or brown silk stockings a little darker than one needs, for some of the color is apt to come out in the first washing. Such stockings should be carefully washed and should not be rubbed on a board, and they should be hung in the shade to dry.

Without Sleeves.

However much our thoughts last winter may have run to the practicality of high-necked night clothes, we have forgotten zero weather now to the extent of wearing the thinnest and coolest nightgowns imaginable. Many of them are quite sleeveless, with bands of colored muslin, in pink or blue, around the deep armholes, matched by similar bands about the long tapered ends.
