

MINOR MENTION.

Telling About People and Events in the City and County.

S. M. Nosler returned Tuesday from a week's business trip to San Francisco.

Mrs. Iris Elrod and daughter came over yesterday from North Bend to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Kay, of Marshfield, were callers at the Sentinel office this afternoon.

Justice E. H. Joehnk, of Marshfield, was over here Wednesday and made the Sentinel a call.

Mrs. C. McC. Johnson and Alyce Dell came over from Marshfield yesterday for a short visit.

W. U. Douglas, the well known Marshfield attorney, was over here Monday on legal business.

That lot advertised on this page is going up every week, but at the present price it is some bargain.

Ed Meade and his sister, Mrs. Harvey have come over from the Bay to occupy their Rink creek ranch again.

The Oregon Farmer is furnished in connection with the Sentinel at $1.65 for the two papers for one year in advance.

V. R. Wilson, Optician and Optometrist, will be at his office on Taylor street, Coquille, every day in the week. Glasses fitted. 4229

Felix Hull & Son, dairymen near Riverton, are installing a combination feed grinder and roller which will be operated by the caterpillar.

J. M. Culley, of Catching Inlet, will have some fine young pure bred Poland Chinas to farm out to the Pig Club members on the shares this spring.

L. A. Pinkston, of Fishtrap, has just bought a fine dairy farm from Winsor and Falkenstein in the Lee district. He will have a sale and move there soon.

In the marriage notice of Leo B. McCool and Claribel Peart, the name of the bride's father was incorrectly stated. It should have been Jerry Peart instead of Joseph Peart.

J. D. Carl, of Arago, recently bought the Tyrrell ranch near there. Mr. Carl will operate it in connection with the place where he now lives and will milk about 85 cows this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barklow, of Myrtle Point, have returned home from an extended visit with relatives in Los Angeles, California. Mr. and Mrs. Barklow went south in November.

Theo Clinton and Lawrence Backleff on the Albert Schroeder ranch, 3 miles south of Coquille, are going to make things jump this year with their new caterpillar raising feed for their 70 cow herd.

A. J. Blum, representing an eastern milk condensary company, has been looking over the new Bandon condensary, which is expected to begin operation in March, with a view of purchasing it.

Last Monday Miss Myrtle Cooley became county clerk and Mrs. Oleta Walker treasurer of Curry county at Gold Beach. As time passes we shall see more and more women elected to county offices.

W. W. Smith, of Riverton, who died at Powers last week from the Spanish influenza, was buried here Sunday. He leaves a wife and eight children. This is said to be the first death at Powers resulting from the flu.

Rev. Coy Simms was in the city yesterday en route to Fishtrap. He has been appointed to serve the Methodist churches at Bandon, Fishtrap and Myrtle Point. He will preach at Fishtrap Sunday morning and Myrtle Point Sunday night.

After the ban had been lifted last week the pastors of the city churches announced services for Sunday, January 5, in these columns. Some new cases developed, however, and after the paper had gone to press it was decided to cancel these announcements.

It is requested that all those having books from the library return them so that every volume may be fumigated before the library is again open to the public. Mrs. Dimmick will be in the library room Saturday, January 11, from 2 till 5, to receive such books as are now out.

The Port Orford Tribune says that W. J. Sweet has leased that portion of his fine dairy farm lying west of the county road, to the Grasley Bros., of Langlois. Mr. Sweet is building a small dwelling near the river and just east of the road and will live upon and improve that portion of the farm.

Butter Wrappers and Trespass Signs at the Sentinel office.

B. H. Pillar, who is associated with A. L. Simpson in the purchase of the Coquille Laundry, is expected here from Dallas shortly to make his home in Coquille. Mrs. Pillar will accompany him. They are the parents of Mrs. Simpson. Mr. Pillar is the president of the Laundry company, while Mr. Simpson is secretary-manager.

J. M. Thomas got back Tuesday from a hunting and business stay with Carl Shoemaker, state game warden, and others at Krole. He says the party, which included also L. L. Thomas, shot away 2,900 shells and got over 125 ducks. Mr. Thomas left Thursday to be a witness in the Powers still case which comes up before the federal court in Portland today.

C. A. Machon was a good deal surprised at the publication of an article in a Bay paper about the trip to Europe he and his wife are intending to take. They do not expect to go, however, until some time next fall. Inquiring at the state department at Washington elicited the information that 42,000 people are already booked to go overseas in April and May.

"Clausen Bros., who have a fine cow dairy farm on the lower Coquille River, always raise lots of good cow feed. A little sample of their beef crop is at the County Agent's office, one of the beets weighs 41 lb, two of the others 36 lb each and the smallest one 34 lb. This variety of beets is known as the Gate Post or Giant Intermediate. It takes good soil to grow such beets."

Beulah Chapter Installs

Beulah Chapter No. 6, O. E. S., held their annual election and installation at Odd Fellows' Hall last evening. Not all of the appointive offices were filled, however, the following being the official roster as completed:

- Marshal—Virginia Lamb.
- Organist—Gertrude Norton.
- Chaplain—Annie Lawrence.
- Sentinel—August Peterson.
- Warder—Ora X. Maury.
- Eaith—Alice Evland.
- Electa—Genie Lorenz.

New Woodmen Officers

The Modern Woodmen of America will hold their annual installation, this evening, the following being the camp officers for the coming year:

- P. C.—Geo. N. Batty.
- V. C.—M. C. Tozier.
- W. A.—C. W. Upton.
- Banker—A. G. Miller.
- Clerk—H. A. Young.
- Escort—Jerry Peart.
- Watchman—G. C. McQuigg.

- Trustees—W. J. Ferbrache, N. C. Kelley and H. A. Isensee.

George Batty Is Noble Guard

The Odd Fellows intend to hold their installation of officers for the year 1919 this evening. The appointive offices have not yet been filled, but those elected are:

- N. G.—Geo. Batty.
- V. G.—Lee Goodman.
- Treasurer—L. H. Hazard.
- Secretary—J. S. Lawrence.

Rebeka's Also Elect

The following are the officers installed by the Rebekah lodge of this city at their last meeting, the appointive offices not having yet been filled:

- N. G.—Mrs. Beatrice Getz.
- V. G.—Mrs. Corrie Harnden.
- Sec.—Mrs. Elde Anderson.
- Treas.—Mrs. Amy Assen.

Train Makes Room for Quick

Robert Train has begun excavating for the addition he is going to make to his building at the corner of Front and Hall streets. The addition will be 30x40 and J. E. Quick will use the first floor of it for a workshop. The upper floor will be divided into rooms for apartments making about ten additional rooms. The floor of the rear end of the present building has been lowered to the street level and Mr. Quick is now using the entire ground floor of the double building. When the additions and improvements in progress are completed the latter will have very commodious and well-lighted quarters for his second hand business.

From the Bryan Family

Writing from Tekos, Washington, to renew for the Sentinel, Mrs. C. H. Bryan, wife of a former M. E. pastor, says: We are all well again after a tug with the "flu." Louise and I had it, but Mr. Bryan proved a very efficient nurse and we came through fine. There were about 200 cases at one time in this place, seventeen deaths, most all were grown people.

Send the Sentinel to eastern friends.

Death of Ex-President Roosevelt

Last Monday morning the nation was shocked by the news that Theodore Roosevelt had passed away. There had been no serious illness, and no thought of danger even of his speedy passing, although he had been in failing health for some time, so that the country was in no wise expecting the event.

There has been no more picturesque character in American history than Theodore Roosevelt; nor any other president whose activities were so many sided. Although always standing for the best things in public life and the first to enunciate in striking phrase the doctrine that "we must shackle cunning as we have slacked force," and although entirely exemplary in his family relations, he had enough of human weakness and was so thoroughly one of the people that there probably has never been another president that got as close to the American heart as Theodore Roosevelt. Subject to fiery outbursts of temper and ready to denounce almost anyone who disputed his word in the good old vernacular with the short and ugly word "liar" every man could feel that Roosevelt was a "man of like passions with themselves." So he bound his friends with him as with bonds of steel; and when he deserted the republican party in 1912 and headed a bolt, he took with him more than half its membership and polled over four millions of votes as the candidate of a third party—a record altogether unprecedented. Politically they followed him unwaveringly "Into the jaws of death, into the mouth of hell," and it is, of course, evident that while the Colonel did not attain the coveted third term as president, he certainly changed the whole current of American history from that time forth when he opened the way for Woodrow Wilson's entry into the White House.

The writer's personal recollection of the ex-president are confined to the two hours spent in listening to his speech on "The New Nationalism," at Osawatimie, Kansas, some nine years ago, and shortly after his return from Africa. Its sentiments were in line with the whole course of his public life, in advocating measures for the betterment of the conditions of the masses of the people and curbing the greed of those who were running things in this country. One word of that address will always linger in our memory, the little word "finally." We had not long before heard from Wm. Allen White the inside story of the way in which President Taft's soft measure of railroad control had been doctored by the progressives in the United States senate until it had emerged armed with teeth and full of menace to the plutocracy.

So when Tddy remarked that this law as "finally" enacted was one of the steps in the new nationalism, he put more emphasis into that word "finally" than into any other in his entire speech. It came out with an intensity and a withering contempt that indexed his scorn for William Howard and all his works—in spite of the fact that it was Roosevelt alone who had made Taft his successor in the presidential chair.

It would be easy to go on and talk about the man who became president of the United States when he was only forty-two years of age through column after column, but time is short. The good he accomplished so far overbalanced the things that we cannot approve in his career that the place he won in American history as one of our great presidents is secure for all coming time.

Cow Testing Association to Meet

A meeting of the Coquille-Myrtle Point Cow Testing Association will be held in the city hall at Myrtle Point Saturday, January 18, at 1 p. m. All members and dairymen interested are requested to attend.

Cultivate Self-Confidence.

Dress and self-confidence go hand in hand. Self-confidence is the motive power that turns the wheels of success. Self-confidence is the knowledge that you can and will do whatever you happen to undertake. If you are deficient in self-confidence, you cannot expect to inspire it in others.

Forget It.

Regretting the mistakes of yesterday is a poor substitute for preventing the mistakes of the morrow. Even though the heart be sore for what is over and done, it is folly to sit down and bewail it. The future is before us, and needs clear vision, not eyes teardimmed.

Invention Constantly Improved.

The storage battery or electric accumulator of Faure was first exhibited in London 37 years ago. Since then the invention has been greatly improved by Edison and others, and is now successfully applied to the operation of street cars and other uses.

Remember that in subscribing for the Sentinel for $1.50 a year you can get the Oregon Farmer in addition by paying only 15 cents more.

Need Fear No Longer

One of our new subscribers from up the forks of the Coquille asked when giving his name if it would be necessary to commit assault and battery to get the paper stopped when the time was out. We reassured him on that head, for since the War Industries Board made us get to a cash-in-advance basis we like it too well to ever think of going back to the old method of unlimited credits. And from what we hear we believe our subscribers feel very much the same way about it, for on all our list we have only heard from one who wants to go back to the old method of letting it run. And at the rate new subscribers are enrolling it won't be long before our paid-in-advance list will be bigger than it ever was under the old system.

Thrift Starts for Salem

Hon. T. J. Thrift started Wednesday morning for Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Thrift. They will first visit their daughter, Mrs. D. Brooks Hogan, residing near that city, and Mrs. Thrift will remain with her while Mr. Thrift is attending the legislative session at Salem—if there is one. Mr. Thrift says the influenza epidemic is still so serious at Salem that the Board of Health may forbid the meeting of the senate and legislative assembly at this time. If so it would probably result in adjournment to a later date, though there may be no legal obstacle to holding the legislative session in some other place.

Reported Killed but Still Alive

Relatives of Herman Gardner, of North Bend, who was reported killed in action, have received a letter from him dated December 11, saying he is in Belgium and will be home by Christmas. This is the second case in the experience of Coos Bay in which a man still living was reported killed. Dr. Keizer having been so listed.—Coos Bay Times.

New Secretary at the Sitka

O. B. Hughes came down here Saturday from Portland to take Mr. Nicolai's place in the Sitka Spruce company during the latter's illness and will now remain here. Mrs. Hughes is expected to join him here tomorrow. As Mr. Hughes hails originally from Long Branch, New Jersey, he seems almost like a neighbor to the writer, whose old home on Long Island is next door to that New Jersey summer resort.

Bargain Price for Telegram

The Portland Telegram is making bargain day rates from Jan. 10 to February 10. Its bargain price is $3.75 for the daily for a year. We will furnish it with the Sentinel, both papers for one year in advance, for $5.00 during this period. Your home paper and a Portland daily are certainly a bargain at that figure.

Masonic Election and Installation

Members of the Chadwick Lodge, No. 68, A. F. & A. M. are hereby notified that the annual election and installation of officers will be held in Odd Fellows' Hall, Saturday evening, Jan. 11.

The Ladies Bazaar Will Stock Up Again

Being unable to close out we will, unless we sell the store as a whole within the next few days, fill in with new and reasonable merchandise. We have already received shipments of American Lady corsets and other goods will be here Monday morning, when we will open again at eight o'clock for regular business.

Notice to Water Consumers

All water rents must be paid between the first and 12th of each month. The city officials cannot take the time to go over the city and collect these rents. Water will be shut off in every case where the rent is not paid by the 12th, and will not be turned on again until a fee of $1 has been paid for that service.
