Mayor E. E. Johnson returned from a week's trip to Portland last Friday.

Miss Myrtle Neely returned home last Saturday having completed an eight months term of school at New Lake.

C. C. McCormick, of Marshfield, was over here yesterday to make arrangements for a dance here Friday, Feb. 28.

North Bend has put dances under the ban for another month for fear they might cause another outbreak of the "flu."

Editor Edgar McDaniel, of the North Bend Harbor, was over here Tuesday evening as a witness before the grand jury.

Tuesday was one of the two fine days in February, but the rains have kept it up almost without intermission since then.

Lloyd Irvine is another Coquille soldier who is home after spending several months in various training camps in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell will leave tomorrow afternoon for Marshfield where they will spend his two weeks' annual vacation.

Henry Ellis got down town for the first time yesterday after a three weeks' siege of the flu. All but one member of the family had it.

H. M. Shaw, M. D., Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat specialist, will be at Baxter Hotel Tuesday, Feb. 25th, 1919. "Glasses Fitted." 512

Ladies—Let Mrs. Neita Oddy, on Spurgeon Hill, do that Hemstitching and Pleating for you. You are sure to be pleased with the work that she does. Orders can be left at the Ladies Bazaar. 514

Ed Gillespie was in from Fat Elk Tuesday with only part of his voice left. He is just recovering from a 10-days' siege of the "flu" and not yet himself. Eight of the family have been down with it.

A. G. Clark, of Portland, manager of the Home Industries League of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, and Geo. Royer, of the Coast Culvert & Flume company, another booster, were Sentinel callers this morning.

We don't know just how much the Coos Bay Times exaggerates; but it is much or little the Record went it 50 per cent better in its fire story last Tuesday. The Times put the losses at $100,000; the Record said $150,000.

Real Jazz music by McCormick's Jazz Band next Friday, Feb. 28, at Anderson's Hall.

Sam Leneve, of this city, who has been in jail here for a couple of weeks, and Elmer Ingeman, who made an assault on a North Bend girl, have both been pronounced insane and ordered committed to the Salem hospital.

Geo. T. Moulton writes from San Diego that he and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Noeler are having a fine time seeing the country and enjoying the views. He says the sunshine is nice but one has to have money to buy beefsteak. In other words one can't live on climate alone.

Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Jennings arrived here Monday from Eugene for a week's visit with the old folks. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist came over last night, adding to the family party. Mr. Jennings will return to Eugene tomorrow, but Mrs. Jennings will remain several days longer.

Miss Eva Schroeder returned Monday from Portland after having spent the day Saturday in the adjutant general's office checking up the delinquent registrants for Coos county and separating the wilful from the non-wilful ones—that is, the sheep from the goats.

Dance by McCormick's Jazz Band Friday, Feb. 28—Anderson's Hall. Be there.

Powers Denies Waste

A. H. Powers was a Sentinel caller Tuesday. He doesn't take any stock in the story we published last week about "Wanton Waste" and recklessness in the operation of the logging camps being the real reason why the Smith companies have gone into the hands of receivers.

Indeed, Mr. Powers says Receivers Denman and Boles, after a thorough inspecting of conditions at the Smith-Powers logging camps, assured him that it was no fault of the Smith-Powers management that a receivership became necessary. More than that, these receivers say in a letter that Mr. Powers showed us that they were glad they had been able to persuade him to act as their representative in this county and to take charge of the properties and care for them in every way possible.

While Mr. Powers says they sometimes have bad men and inefficient men of the kind described in our last week's item in their camps, they never keep them very long.

To clinch the matter, he says that if the "well known citizen" we quoted last week as expressing the opinion that it was recklessness and waste in the logging camps that necessitated the receivership, will take charge of those camps and save one cent on each thousand feet of timber handled by the Smith-Powers company he can have a salary of $10,000 a year.

The prominent citizen referred to says that he can bring men, who have been employed in the Smith-Powers logging camps for years, who will substantiate his statements many times over. He also says Mr. Powers can save more than the $10,000 salary mentioned by posting a notice on every donkey engine in big letters, reading, "No Reefing," and enforcing the order.

A Few Words Omitted

In the Watson-Oddy statement which we published last week, a few words were inadvertently omitted which were quite material to Mr. Oddy's case, and showed an approval of his claim by Judge Watson. The paragraph related to a witness claim for mileage to and from Seattle, Washington, where the amount overpaid by Mr. Oddy was $88. What was said about this should have read as follows, the words in heavy type showing what was omitted last week:

"The Clerk presented a claim to the County Court, at the request of the County Judge, for the balance. Judge Watson as one member of the County Court told the Clerk that from the circumstances connected with the matter, that it appeared to him that the fault was not Mr. Oddy's and as it was a considerable amount for Mr. Oddy to lose, that he was of the opinion that the Court would allow the claim, if it could lawfully."

Passing of Mrs. Berna Kiper

R. H. Irvine received the sad news last Sunday that his daughter, Mrs. Berna Kiper, had died the day before at Kanorado, Kans. Mr. and Mrs. Kiper left Portland for Kanorado last November, intending to take charge of the ranch belonging to Mr. Kiper's father. Mrs. Kiper had suffered a severe sick spell last summer in Portland, but she recovered and it was only recently that the family had word of her serious illness. Mrs. Irvine was to have started east Monday morning but after receiving the message gave up the trip.

Entertainment Saturday Night

D. Lloyd Morgan, the Reader and Impersonator, will give a program of his famous readings and impersonations at the Christian church Saturday evening, February 22, at 8 o'clock. This will be an evening of genuine enjoyment and you will not regret the time or money spent to hear Mr. Morgan. He delighted a large crowd at Marshfield a few weeks ago. Admission 25 and 50 cents.

To the Women of Coquille

As chairman of the Coquille Branch of the American Red Cross, I wish to assure the women of this community my sincere appreciation for their great aid and sacrifice during the past year. By your constant attendance and co-operation you have earned the merited praise and gratitude of our American Red Cross Association and of our soldiers abroad, whose highest praise is for the stupendous work in which you have taken no small part.

Space does not permit me to recount to you all the greatness of our past united efforts, but to assure you every sacrifice you have made has saved the lives, not only of our soldiers, but of the many sufferers depending upon us. Your membership in this, the greatest association of the world, has made you a part of our government. You heard the cry of pity, as did our brave soldiers, and buckling on the armour of a giant went forth to carry life, liberty and protection to the oppressed.

This is the emblem of our grand and glorious flag—but friends, our duty does not end with this benign peace. Thousands of our soldiers are across the waters waiting and patiently longing for "Home, Sweet Home," and the final benediction of a grateful nation.

Again, we hear the appeal of the world's greatest mother; a call to arms, as it were, that by our co-operation her outstretched hands of mercy may give life and aid to the thousands of helpless and homeless we have sponsored while the pure blood of our hero dead christened them our nation's care. They now look to the women of America for food and clothing. Thousands we are told will perish unless we get aid to them, and many Red Cross chapters are idle due to the scourge of influenza.

Are we going to turn a deaf ear to their cry of pity after our heroes have given so much to save? No. Our duty is not yet finished and again I urge every woman in Coquille to lend her aid one afternoon from 2 until 4:30 at the Liberty Temple any day of each week except Saturday. This means you—and you—and me. Virginia Lamb, Chairman Coquille Branch A. R. C.

Four artists furnish the music for dance at Anderson's Hall, Friday, Feb. 28. McCormick's Jazz Band will be there.

NEW FELT HATS FOR SUMMER

Sole Trimming Consisting of Tinsel Cord Worn by Army Officers Adds Glitter of War.

There is no doubt that we are going to glitter and glisten this year as did the fighters of the tenth and eleventh centuries, advises a style expert. The milliners have blazed the way for this, for, as the student of dress well knows, one can build up a rather good program of new fashions for gowns and wraps by what the milliners exploit in head coverings.

And when you see new felt hats exploited on all sides, with their sole trimming consisting of the tinsel cord worn by American officers, you will realize that the glitter of war is to be put into the autumn costumery.

Felt hats, by the way, are very smart for summer. They may keep away the incoming velvet hat which leaves us in February, when it is needed and comes back the first of July, when it is undesirable.

The felt hat of the hour is white, oyster, beige, black and yellow and is trimmed with masses of flowers arranged in a wreath around the crown.

When the hat is for sports, for country or for traveling, it has the tinsel cord of the American captain.

Dyeing Silk Yellow.

For dyeing a crepe de chine or any silk yellow, take a thimbleful of saffron tea, steep as you would an ordinary tea, remove from stove and strain through a piece of cheesecloth; add enough boiling water to get the shade of yellow desired; then put in the article to be colored and let stand for a few minutes. Do not boil. This colors the article a soft, pretty yellow and no matter how deep a yellow you desire, it will not be bright or vivid. Ten cents' worth of this tea is sufficient to color about three waists—a can be obtained at any drug store.

Death of Mrs. Mansell

Last Friday night Mrs. W. H. Mansell departed this life at the age of 55 years, at her home in First street. She had been ill for more than a year with an incurable complaint and had been a great sufferer. The funeral services were held at the residence at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. E. Couper. The interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Mamie Albina Wright was born at Providence, Rhode Island, in January, 1864, and went to Oakland, California, with her parents when four years of age. Her father was Captain Albert Hadwin Wright of the U. S. army and was stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco.

She was united in marriage to W. H. Mansell June 27, 1882; and the young people resided two years in Coos county in the later eighties, returning here to make their home in Coquille in 1898, and resided here since that time.

The children were three, all living: Charles H. Mansell, Albert H. Mansell and Mrs. Flossie Foote.

Mrs. Mansell's only other living relative, so far as known, is her sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Zerr, of Portland.

Card of Thanks

For the many acts of thoughtful kindness extended to us during the illness and after the death of our wife, mother and sister, and also for the gifts of lovely flowers, we take this means of returning our sincere thanks.

WOMEN OF WEST AGAIN CALLED TO THE COLORS

By MRS. A. S. BALDWIN, Chairman Woman's Liberty Loan Committee of the Twelfth Reserve District.

We have at the present time about two million men in Europe who must be provided with all that is necessary to keep them in good spirits and condition; and when their work shall have been finished, they must be brought home and demobilized. The Government must make good the contracts it has entered into for the construction of all war munitions, and for food supplies already bought.

Having responded to the Government's calls in the past, and having loaned our money ungrudgingly to hurry forward the men and supplies, and victory having come to us because of this, shall we hesitate for a moment to respond to the last call—the Victory Liberty Loan—when we can do so by pledging our credit, perhaps with some little personal inconvenience, sacrifice or small discomfort?

The blood of the young manhood of America is not now required. That was generously given before the armistice was signed, and now we may give thanks that no more will be taken.

The credit and good faith of our country is at stake. We have won the war, and the cost is small compared with what has been won. The men of the West with red blood in their veins will not need to be appealed to, because they will subscribe to this last call of the Government as ungrudgingly as they did in the past. There are others, however, who may not be so keenly and conscientiously alive to the duty of responding to the Nation's call, and it is to those that the women must direct their most untiring efforts.

This last call is truly a Victory Loan. What greater pride can men and women experience than in contributing to it? A Victory Bond will be worth more than its price expressed in dollars. Every one will be a badge testifying that the holder has helped his country to fulfill its pledge to those who have been spared as well as those who have made the supreme sacrifice.
