Death of Mrs. F. M. Miller
At noon today the funeral services for Mrs. F. M. Miller are being held at the Upper Fishtrap schoolhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have been residents of Coquille for nearly a year past and her death occurred here at 8:30 Wednesday morning. She was 64 years and two months old, and had been ill of kidney and heart trouble for the past five weeks.

Cerilda Miller was born in Douglas county, Oregon, and in 1876 was married in Jackson county to F. W. Miller. Of this union eight children were born, all of whom are living as follows:

Mrs. Minnie Clinton, Mrs. Mary Paul, W. F. Miller, Mrs. Sadie Smith, Mrs. Etta McAdams, Robert L. Miller,

Jessie M. Miller, Mrs. Grace Lane. The family have been residents of Coos county for about thirty years, most of the time having been spent in the Fishtrap section.

Misplaced Confidence
The Sentinel would advise any one who is proposing to invest any money in a scheme to show that Grove H. Miller is innocent of connection with the Myrtle Point Bank robbery of which he was convicted and is now doing time in the penitentiary, to have a talk with Deputy Sheriff Clyde A. Gage before parting with any of their cash. Mr. Gage's only regret in connection with Miller's conviction is that his two pals made their getaway.

The Honor Guard's Welcome
The girls of the Coquille Honor Guard hit upon a clever plan when they decided to send the following poem to each soldier boy and sailor lad returning from his patriotic mission. All the credit is due to its composer, Lans Leneve, who so capably and splendidly expresses the sentiment felt by everyone:

We're proud of the boys
From the Golden West,
The boys who have gone
And given their best.

We greet you again,
With heartfelt thanks;
The boy from home,
Who helped fill the ranks.

Welcome, Oh Welcome!
You brave soldier lad,
We greet you again
With heartbeats so glad.

We welcome you home
From camps here and there
Where our thoughts have followed
With right tender care.

You've done your bit,
So lay your gun down;
They need boys like you
In your own home town.
