

The Shadow of the Sword

Advertisement by
Duke Advertising Agency, Inc.
San Francisco

Over the homes of those who died it will hang forever. For the most of us it has been dispelled.

Two million gallant American boys crossed the water to break that sword and dispel the shadow. They did it.

But remember the cost.
The job has not been paid for.

THE VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN WILL PAY

BOYS FROM THE COQUILLE DISTRICT WHO HAVE GIVEN THEIR ALL---FOREVER

Carl A. Beck Robert E. Carter William Jensen Rufus Sell

of the Coquille district, while in the service, gave their all---forever. Imagine the sorrow and anguish existing in the homes of those brave boys. Then ask yourself the question, "Have I done my full share toward ending the world's greatest conflict?" remembering the war is not ended until the job has been paid for.

BOYS FROM THE COQUILLE DISTRICT WHO HAVE RETURNED FROM OVERSEAS

Grant Cook	Willard W. Lane	Oscar Norman
Ray Cook	Carl Larson	Frank Norris
Theo. Easton	Kennett Lawrence	Lloyd Noel
James Harp	Perry Lawrence	Harry Oerding
C. D. Hudson	P. J. Michels	Ray Rickman
H. H. Holverstott	David Norman	Rock Robison Jr.
Owen Knowlton	Earl Nosler	Alva Shelton

BOYS FROM THE COQUILLE DISTRICT WHO ARE STILL OFFERING THEIR LIVES IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY

Delno Aber	Lars Gisholt	Dr. G. E. Low
Will Barrow	Alton Grimes	James R. Leeth
Stanley Bartlett	Arthur Hodge	Chas. Myers
Ray Burns	Hugh Harlocker	Louis F. Medley
Ray Benham	Earl Isensee	Lester O. Norton
Tom Benham	Clay Knowlton	Jack Ocheltree
Tom Belloni	Matt Kerrigan	Earl Willey
Claude Gilham	Edward Levine	Chas. Whetstone

Remember those boys are all watching with benign interest the outcome of the Victory Liberty Loan, believing they will get an expression of the appreciation the ones who stayed at home have for the work, efforts, and sacrifices which they so cheerfully gave. We are not asked to give anything. The government asks us to loan a small amount for just a little while.

This space is contributed by Leo J. Cary, chairman of the Fifth Victory Liberty Loan campaign for the Coquille district.