COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS

grading as well as half of the graveling.

The State will enter into an agreement with Coos county under which the state is to pay half the cost of the maintenance and repairs of the highways it is building in the county and the county the other half. If this arrangement should prove burdensome for the county it will be revised. It may very likely prove the case that most of the travel on these roads will be by cars from outside the county. The contract proposed is for fifteen years.

South Slough election precinct No. 23 was granted permission to hold an election on June 3, the date of the state election, to decide whether stock shall be permitted to run at large in that precinct.

The residents of Precinct, No. 7, known as Myrtle Grove, and consisting mostly of Cooston, petitioned for the abolition of that precinct and that it be made a part of No. 15 known as Eastside North. The consideration of this petition was postponed until the December term of court, an action of this kind can only be taken then.

Mrs. Mary Phillips, of Marshfield, was allowed a monthly pension of $17.50.

Mrs. John S. Dawson, of Powers, whose husband died recently, was given $100 to pay her expenditures back to her friends in Oklahoma as otherwise she might become a public charge. She had just petitioned for a widow's pension, but as the necessary certificates did not accompany the petition it was not granted.

Petitions of Mrs. Daisy J. Fredricks, of Randolph, and Mrs. Sarah E. Utterback, of Marshfield, were laid over for similar reasons.

There is a vacancy in the office of constable in the Bridge district, which the court has not yet been able to fill, as no one seems to be willing to accept an appointment.

For the Marshfield Road

There has been a good deal of talk in the newspapers about what materials would be best to make concrete for the paving of the Marshfield-Coquille road. E. W. Lazwell, consulting engineer for the State Highway Commission, has made abrasion tests of the different materials which have been under consideration. These tests are made by placing the gravel or rock to be examined in a revolving cylinder to see how fast they will wear away. After 30,000 or more revolutions the material is taken out and weighed to see how much it has lost in the process. The result for the five samples examined was as follows:

Powers gravel	10.1 per cent
Reedsport gravel	5.0 per cent
Dean & Brown quarry:
Sample No. 1	3.9 per cent
Sample No. 2	4.9 per cent
Sample Nos. 3 and 4	6.02 per cent

This test appears to eliminate the Powers gravel, which lost a tenth and indicates that either the Reedsport gravel or the crushed rock from the Dean & Brown samples one and two would be satisfactory.

Flour to Come Down

Julius Barnes the government's wheat boss, intimates that lower prices for flour are in sight, and says that if they are warranted and the government has to make up a discrepancy to the wheat grower, he is going to see that the consumer shall get the benefit and that it shall not be absorbed by middlemen and speculators.

Do You Enjoy Life?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

The Junior Class Play

As it is always the case, the play put on by the Junior class of the high school at the Liberty Theatre last Friday evening drew a large house and an audience which thoroughly appreciated the young folks' efforts to entertain them. That occasionally a line was forgotten did not mar the fine presentation of the comedy "Phyllis' Inheritance," and was to be expected of students who were making their first stage appearance and who have their studies to keep up while preparing for the play.

To pick out a few members of the cast for special mention would not be treating the rest fairly for they all did well and each one is deserving of credit for doing his or her part in making the show a success. The most difficult part was that of Phyllis, taken by Pauline Chase, and through the whole chapter of difficult and embarrassing situations she carried the plot along to the final happy ending when she secured the inheritance from her uncle without losing her husband.

- The members of the cast were:
- Philip Morningside . . . Lowell Simpson
 - Phyllis Morningside . . . Pauline Chase
 - Major Philander Mumford . . . Fred Wimer
 - Penelope Mumford . . . Ida Oerding
 - Patrice Mumford . . . Jeffe Beckham
 - Pierre Marquette . . . Otis Beckham
 - Patrick Mooney, M. P. . . Wm. Oerding
 - Peter Martin . . . Samuel Arnold
 - Paul Marvel . . . Fred Harlocker
 - Phoebe Martingale . . . Marjorie Hazard
 - A Trio of Vassar "Bright Lights"
Angela . . . Chrystal Lafferty
 - Alice . . . Effie Floten
 - Amy . . . Helen Sherwood
 - Pansy . . . Londy Church

The two readings by Mrs. F. G. Leslie were highly entertaining and warmly applauded, while the piano solos by Genevieve Chase, during the second interlude were beautifully rendered and likewise appreciated by the audience.

The receipts of the evening were $188.35 out of which the class netted $102.

Card of Thanks

The Junior class of the High School wish to thank the many friends who so kindly assisted them last week with their class play, in providing bowers, and gardeners, and in other ways.

Divorces Here Monday

Three divorces were granted by Judge Coke in the Circuit Court here Monday.

The first was that of Caroline Livingstone, of Powers, against John Livingstone, who did not appear to contest it. The plaintiff lost her first husband by asphyxiation and alleged that she had received cruel and inhuman treatment from the second.

Further testimony was taken in the case of Geo. A. Donovan vs. Clara Donovan, of Coquille, in which the husband claimed serious misconduct on the part of his wife. Her testimony was taken and Judge Coke awarded her $15 per month to be paid by the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the one child who remains with the mother.

Mable L. Leep was granted a divorce from Harold Leep on the grounds of desertion. There is one child who remains with the mother. She is now making her home at Powers.

Last Kinney Case Decided

L. A. Liljeqvist, attorney for Coos county in the Kinney tax litigation, has received a copy of the decision of Judge Wolverton of the federal court at Portland, in which Judge Wolverton dismisses all the objections of the receiver for the Title Guarantee & Trust company against Coos county's claim on the lands, holding with attorney Liljeqvist's contentions. This establishes the prior right of Coos county's claims on the Kinney lands and finishes the round which the case has been through in the Portland court.

Six months is now allowed in which to appeal to the U. S. circuit court of appeals at San Francisco. This cannot be done, thinks Mr. Liljeqvist, unless a supersedeas bond is put up.

$50 Prize for Essay

A $50 Liberty bond will be awarded by the Joint Centenary committee of the Methodist Episcopal church to the best essay written by any grade, high school or Sunday school pupil in the northwest on "The Methodist Centenary—What It Is and What It Will Do." Age will be taken into consideration.

The contest ends June 1 and all essays should be mailed prior to that date to the Joint Centenary Committee, 409 Platt Building, Portland, Ore.

A Civic Improvement club stands for the beautifying and betterment of the community. Is not such an organization a worthy one. If you thing so, ladies of Coquille, make it known next Tuesday evening.
