Pig Club Leader to Be Here

E. E. Peterson, county club leader, informs us that Mr. Allen, state livestock club agent, will be in Coos county July 21, 22, 23 and 24. He hopes during that time to have him meet every pig club member and leader in the county, and to have each leader and member go with him to visit some of the other clubs and places where different types of hogs, sheep and cattle may be seen and studied. The purpose is to prepare the boys for the stock judging contests that are to be held later.

It is hoped that each club will find a way to accompany them on a part of the trip—at least during one day.

It will be necessary for each club to provide its own means of transportation and to take care of its own expenses. Perhaps it would be a good plan to take along a lunch and turn the noon hour into a kind of picnic. Make your own plans and act as you see fit in this matter.

The schedule will be somewhat as follows:

Tuesday, July 22—Start from Marshfield or Sumner, go to Fairview, McKinley and Coquille.

Wednesday, July 23—Norway, Gravel Ford, Lea.

Thursday, July 24—Myrtle Point, Bridge, Broadbent.

Others besides club leaders and members are cordially invited to join the procession. All who are interested in better-farm-prepared boys as well as in better livestock should take part.

Six Months' Warrant Served

At the train here Saturday, Roy West of Bridge, walked right into the arms of Constable Goodman of Marshfield, when he alighted. Goodman had a warrant against him for stealing a team of horses, which he had been trying for six months to serve.

About six months ago West sold a team of two horses to Louis Bancho of Libby for $350.00. A few weeks later Benjamin Collins, of Eugene, informed Bancho that West still owed him a hundred dollars on the team, and Bancho paid the money. Bancho had a warrant out for the arrest of West, but West was reported to have gone to California.

West says that he and a relative were working for Collins, and that Collins did not pay them. West was buying the team at the time, from Collins, and owed $100 on it. He states that Collins owed him ninety dollars for working for him, and owed his relative forty-five dollars, so he paid his relative that amount, and took the team instead of the amount due from Collins. He says that when he sold the horses he believed them to belong to him. He has not been to California but claims to have been looking for work while his family staid at Bridge.

Ray West, the Bridge man arrested here last week for selling a team of horses he had partly paid for, will not stay in jail pending the arrival of the principal witness in the case. Chas. Stauff, of Marshfield, furnished a $1,000 bond for him.

Marriage Licenses

July 12—Rudolph Mattson and Martha Donaldson, both of Marshfield. They were married on the 15th by Rev. Andrew G. Anderson at the Lutheran parsonage.

July 14—Lawrence Rackleff, of Norway, and Grace C. Sumnerlin, of Lea.

July 16—H. C. Church and Bertha Davis, both of Marshfield.

Honor Guard's War Record

The first meeting of the Coquille Honor Guard Girls was held in the Council Chamber April 24, 1917. Thursday, July 3, 1919, at the Liberty Temple was disbanded.

The object of our organization was to do our bit in the World War, by giving little pleasures and comforts to the soldiers, to care for the needy, and help in the Patriotic Drive.

We responded to calls for patriotic service by giving $250 to the Red Cross, taking $400 in Liberty Bonds, and giving $25 to the Salvation Army. We also furnished 320 pounds of fruit pits for gas masks and 250 pounds of digitals for medical uses.

We worked many weeks making our ten layettes for the little Belgian babies, under the supervision of Mrs. Branstetter and Mrs. Harnden. Then we helped the Red Cross with their sewing and knitted a quilt for the Belgian relief.

The Sixth Spruce boys we provided with 51 comfort kits and 46 pillows. In August, 1918, we gave the Sixth Spruce and the Leneve soldiers an excursion to Bandon. And when they left we distributed luncheon, cigarettes and candy among them.

Christmas, 1917, we remembered our own soldiers boys with 63 Christmas boxes containing knitted sweaters, candy, gum, housewives, and stationery. The next year we gave 75 boxes of Christmas candy to the Sixth Spruce boys and sent kits to the Coquille boys who were still in America.

In October, 1918, we presented a service flag to the City.

While we were doing all this we kept up our Military drill Thursday nights and Sewing Tuesday nights, beside the corps work, First Aid corps, medical corps and mechanical corps.

The various sources from which our funds were obtained were as follows:

Six Dances . . . . . $502.50
Two Candy Sales . . . . . 30.20
Japanese Tea . . . . . 31.95
Salvage Shop . . . . . 134.18
Two Movie Shows . . . . . 49.53
Round Robin Teas . . . . . 36.20
Excursion . . . . . 60.75
Punch, at Dances . . . . . 75.00
Two Basket Socials . . . . . 35.85
From the Home Guard . . . . . 30.31
From other sources . . . . . 12.90
Total . . . . . $999.10

At the time of disbanding we had $400 in Liberty Bonds and $101.67 in cash. We turned this over to the Women's Civic Club for the "finishing up" of the Liberty Temple as a memorial for the soldiers and the people of Coquille.

We Girls wish to express to the people of Coquille our appreciation for their generosity in aiding us. Coquille Honor Guard Girls.

The Girls certainly have a right to feel proud of the work they have done for the soldier boys and the needy in Europe during the past two years; and also of the splendid contribution for a Woman's Rest Room they have just made. They have collected and distributed during these two years almost exactly one thousand dollars, and the way in which every dollar of it has been expended reflects credit on them both for their spirit of generosity and helpfulness and the good judgment they have manifested in placing the money given where it would do the most good.

Praises Bandon Beach

Here is what Dean Straub told the Bandon World:

"Bandon has one of the prettiest beaches on the Oregon coast. Its numerous rocks and sandy stretches are ever interesting, and effectually make the one who sees them a confirmed booster. Another thing that appeals is the fact one can always find cozy spots protected from the winds where he may enjoy a campfire or spend hours watching the surf. The local beach is a big asset to our city."

He told the Sentinel the same thing only a little more bluntly, when he said it "was awful chilly at Bandon and he was glad to get back to Coquille and be comfortable." That's practically the same thing as the "enjoying a campfire" remark.

Except For That, All Right

Speaking of the shape in which he emerged from that automobile shake-up, Editor Felsheim of the Bandon World says that he "came out looking like Jess Willard after Dempsey got through with him." He found he was all right though, except for "a few cuts and bruises, a dangerously bruised eyeball and a broken nose."

CAPITAL'S OLD MAID CLUB IS NO MORE

The "Old Maids Club" of Washington, D. C. is no more. The last member—of more than twenty young women who some years ago agreed "never to marry"—has closed the door of the club—turned the key and has followed Dan Cupid to the altar. She is Miss Lucy B. Norton, age 31 years. She married Frank M. Elliot—just at the hour the nation was going dry July 1.
