Shower for Inez Gibson.
Following the announcement of the engagement of Miss Inez Gibson, of this city, to Charles Schneider, of Los Angeles, a delightful surprise was given to the bride-to-be last Friday evening in the form of a hitchhiker shower. Called by a casual chance to the residence of Mrs. Harold Tuttle, she found the house full of her friends awaiting her. Directed by a real live cupid she was required to search out the gifts which had been hidden in every imaginable place, much to the amusement of her friends. The evening was spent in games and music.

Miss Gibson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Gibson, who have resided in Coquille for the past year. Mr. Schneider will be remembered by many as one of the members of the spruce division located here last fall. He is employed in the Home Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles. Like several other members of his company Mr. Schneider found the rather uncertain pleasures of assignment to the spruce division the gateway to his future happiness; and that to meet the young ladies of Coquille is worth taking a long trip.

Some From Arago.
Some heavy blasting has been done the past week on the new road on the north end of the island ranch, which is south of the old road to avoid the sharp turns around the hill. J. E. Walker was calling at Arago and vicinity the past week in interest of the Sunday School work at this place.

Rev. Mr. Anderson, of Myrtle Point Presbyterian church, accompanied by his two daughters and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walker, came to Arago school house Sunday at 2 p. m. Mr. Anderson gave a most excellent sermon, assisted by Mr. Walker, which was listened to with much interest. Mr. and Mrs. Walker sang accompanied by Mrs. Walker on her guitar, which was appreciated very much. They are all planning to come again next Sunday at 2 o'clock and bring Rev. Mr. Drake of the M. E. Church and others with them in interest of the work and a Sunday School. This is a rare treat for Arago. Come and let us greet them with a houseful.

Samuel Root, having crossed the sea at the time the armistice was signed has since been stationed at Brest, France, but arrived at his home in Shasta, California, last week after his honorable discharge from the infantry in the 8th division.

Miss Hazel Radabaugh has been engaged to teach the Arago school for the coming school year. Miss Radabaugh has been spending her summer vacation at Santa Cruz, California, and is expected home soon.

There was a large attendance at Fairview Sunday when Rev. Mr. Sims preached in the grove. There were seven cars well-filled, coming from a distance.

Last Thursday George Halber drove out to Coquille valley in his car to meet his sister, Mrs. Sarah Wetmer and Mrs. J. Wetmer, who are visiting his home.

Mrs. O. E. Ansen left for Albany last Tuesday to be with her brother, Arnold Haberly, who was very low with spinal meningitis as a result of the flu which he had last winter. O. E. Ansen received a telegram, saying he passed away Friday the 6th of August. He had graduated from the college last winter and was earning good wages in an express office. He will be greatly missed by his relatives and many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Caley Robison left Tuesday for St. Martin Springs, Washington, where they will remain a couple of weeks or more for restoration of their health. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stauff will attend to the store during their absence.

"THE FIRE FLINGERS"

Featuring
Rupert Julian

The dramatic tale of the impersonation of a wealthy printer by an ex-convict, who is the cause of the former's death. Hatton, the ex-convict, tries to go straight. He looks enough like the murdered man to be his double—especially without his beard. The story deals with the relations between the impostor and his "wife," really the widow of the dead man. A dual-role picture that shows two distinct characterizations—the acting is so realistic and the types so diverse that many persons cannot be persuaded that Julian portrays both. A story that has suspense from the opening scene to the last. There is forward action all the way through, building to a big climax. A smashing, living drama of the screen. 6 reels.

"JAZZ MONKEY"

Featuring
Joe Martin

The real, live, genuine animal Ape

You will remember the fun and excitement this monkey caused in his former film. His stunts are almost human. It may be that he is the missing link between "man and monkey." See him. 2 reels.

A gentle little lass with a sea captain grandfather who spins wild yarns of buccaneer days. But say, before it's over, she's become a regular old-fashioned pirate, hunting hidden treasure at the head of a gang who would freeze the tongue-in-your-mouth! Talk about excitement—this picture is some dynamo! This is a regular old-style pirate yarn, but with a very modern damsel right in the nub of it. There's a villain called Bad-Eye who tries to steal the map showing where the treasure is—but seeing that the map is tattooed on a human shoulder!—well that's the plot, come and see it unravelled. 5 reels.

"THE TIGER MAN"

Featuring
William S. Hart

This is a remarkable story of the West. Hawk Parsons, a bandit chief, widely known as "The Tiger Man," because of his ferocity and cruelty, lurks on the borders of a desert in search of prey. A wagon train is halted owing to the lack of water, and the emigrants suffer great privations. Among these is Ruth Ingram, wife of a minister of the gospel, who volunteers to go in search of aid. She encounters "The Tiger Man" who after hearing her story goes to the relief of the imperilled emigrants. The party is attacked by Indians and they are driven away under the leadership of Hawk Parsons. Hawk conceives an infatuation for Ruth and he carries her away with him to his cabin in a secret recess in the desert. She attempts to slay herself, then swoons. This is the beginning of the "Tiger Man's" regeneration. He subsequently escorts her to her husband, and then gives himself up to the officers of the law on condition that they be permitted to hold their religious services unmolested. The picture is one of intense thrills, strong situations, and the highest dramatic interest. A typical "Bill Hart picture." 5 reels.

Sheriff Gage in Portland
Monday's Oregonian has the following about Coos county's sheriff:
W. W. Gage, who has lived at Coquille about as long as the Hotel Baxter has existed, or longer, is an arrival at the Perkins. Coquille is interested in the concrete highway being laid between that place and Marshfield. Two concrete mixing plants are laying the stuff at the rate of about a quarter of a mile a day, and unless something goes wrong, the job will practically be completed this season.

To Improve Your Digestion
"For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them did I find the right treatment. Since taking them my digestion is fine."—Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa.
