Tell your friends that if they want to take the Sentinel they can get it at a bargain rate by subscribing now. The price will soon go up to $2 per year.

Ben F. Lawrence came in from Indianapolis, Ind., last Tuesday for a two weeks' visit at home. Today he and Mrs. Lawrence went down to Bandon for a few days on the beach.

R. E. Shine and family, who spent the summer over at Empire, started Wednesday morning for their home at Los Angeles, Calif. Tuesday they spent the day in Coquille visiting old friends.

Fred Von Pagert returned Wednesday afternoon from San Francisco. He left Mrs. Von Pagert in the hospital, slowly improving, but it will be a month yet before she is able to leave there.

The Bandon City Treasurer has been authorized to pay not to exceed $150 from the city's current expense fund towards defraying the expenses in connection with the investigation of the Leuthold murder.

C. C. Williams has purchased the house of the Belloni place near Riverston from John Belloni and has taken possession. The latter has moved to Coquille while he is looking around for another location.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Jennings came down from Eugene Saturday to visit her folks here, expecting to remain the rest of this month in Coquille. Mrs. Jennings was formerly Miss Claire Sherwood.

We are indebted to our old friend, S. H. Warren for a copy of the San Diego Sun which carries an illustrated story of the arrival of the new Pacific fleet in the harbor there, and the accompanying festivities.

There will be a dance in the Machon Hall Saturday evening, with music by the Liberty orchestra. The net proceeds from the dance will be donated to the Corn Show committee for this year's carnival.

Talk about blackberries spreading, some years ago a couple of farmers up the East Fork set out a single slip each of the evergreen blackberry and now they are said to have about 400 acres apiece of this luscious fruit.

Judge R. W. Marsters, of Roseburg, has resigned his job to accept a position with the Coast Culvert and Flume company. For present incumbents the position of county judge will hardly pay living expenses for a single man.

Mrs. J. A. Lamb went out to Medford last Sunday for a visit with her father, A. M. Woodford. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Butler, of Bandon, who were on their way to attend the Elks' meeting at Klamath Falls.

Saturday of next week, Aug. 23, has been set as the date for the examination of candidates for Postmaster at Grand Ford. The examination will be held at Marshfield, but candidates must be residents of the district supplied by the Grand Ford office.

After September 30, the subscription price of the Sentinel will be $2 a year in advance. Until that time you can pay as far in advance as you please at the old rate of $1.50 per year. If you want to learn the reasons for this rise read article on first page.

J. L. Smith is still performing the duties of county agent and will continue to do so until his successor arrives. In his new position his duties will be so much the same as in his present one that he will hardly notice the transition when he changes paymasters—except that his salary will be larger.

H. W. Coats was a caller yesterday. He is buying evergreen blackberries for the Myrtle Point cannery and paying six cents a box for them. The boxes are about the size that were used for berries four or five years ago. He says a man and his wife can easily make $20 a day picking them at this rate.

R. S. Knowlton returned Monday afternoon from a two months' visit in Berkeley and San Francisco. He remained a couple of weeks longer than he had intended to see his son, Clay, who has just returned from France and been discharged from the army. He landed over there the day the armistice was signed.

Miss Kalbus believes that the women of Arago, who have recently organized the Arago Progressive Club, are going to set a few examples in attempting to beautify the home grounds. Far be it from us to restrain anyone from such high ambitions. Such a need in Coos County is the one thing we have long prayed for.

C. O. Dryden and family drove in Monday from Oregon City to visit his mother, Mrs. D. P. Dean. On Tuesday they went over to Johnson's Beach, north of Bandon, accompanied by Miss Gohlman and Ray Dean and family for a two weeks' outing. Mrs. J. F. Juss passed through Bandon last Friday en route to her home at Gilmer, Wash., after being at the bedside of her son, John F. Juss, editor of the Gold Beach Reporter. She reports her son much improved but still confined to his bed and it will be a month or so before he can be removed to a Portland hospital for treatment.—World.

Judge J. F. Boyd, of Neligh, Nebr., who had been visiting here for several days started Sunday morning for Springfield, where he had business to attend to. Tuesday morning Mrs. Boyd, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. W. Young, started for southern California, where they expect to visit the Yosemite. Mr. Boyd met them at Eugene. Mrs. Young will visit at Campbell and San Francisco before coming home.

After September 30, the subscription price of the Sentinel will be $2 a year in advance. Until that time you can pay as far in advance as you please at the old rate of $1.50 per year. If you want to learn the reasons for this rise read article on first page.

Beaten in Foot Race

Hark Dunham finds that he is not so fleet of foot as he used to be and he bows to the superiority of the younger generation. Last Sunday his family and R. E. Nosler's family motored halfway to Powers where they met Harve Dunham and family and they spent the day picnicking. Mrs. Milo Dunham has frequently challenged her father-in-law to a foot race, so that afternoon he accepted. He quickly found he had more than met his match, but to add to his mortification he stepped on a loose stone which threw him in a heap. He gracefully acknowledged, however, that she would have beaten him even if he had finished the course. To make sure her claims to being some runner she then handily beat Job Dunham in a short dash.

Geo. S. Davis Home Again

Geo. S. Davis, who left a couple of weeks ago for a month's visit at his old home in Ferndale, Calif., came back Tuesday night. On arriving at Ferndale he found his brother-in-law, Wm. Trigg, and son, Gilbert, and Harry Sweet just ready to start this way, so he came along. After three or four days here, the party will go up into Washington on a three weeks' trip. Mr. Davis does not expect to return to Coquille before the last of September.

Dear Eugene Opens Sept. 1st

The deer season throughout Oregon will open September 1st this year and will continue until October 31st, according to an announcement just made by Carl D. Shoumaker, State Game Warden. The only exception is in Union and Wallowa counties where the season will open on September 10th and close November 10th. Heretofore the season has opened on August 15th in District No. 1, which consists of all counties west of the summit of the Cascade Mountains. The season this year is uniform in both districts except in the two counties heretofore mentioned. The bag limit is two deer with horns which is the same as last year.

A Great Film Story

"The Unpardonable Sin" has been secured by the Liberty Theatre as an attraction for September 1st and 2nd. This is the big photoplay in ten reels produced by Harry Garson, starring Blanche Sweet under the personal direction of Marshall Neilan, which has been creating such a furore in the larger cities for the past few months. It is based upon Major Rupert Hughes' novel by the same name, which appeared first in serial form in the Red Book magazine and was later published in book form by Harper Bros. A soul stirring picturization of the most tremendous story ever written.

Goes into Merchant Marine

Fountain C. Terres, who has been visiting his parents for a week or more since the end of his naval enlistment, has decided to enlist in the merchant marine and started for Seattle Wednesday morning. With the big demand for crews for our new fleet of peace he thinks better opportunities for advancement are now open than there ever will be again. After taking one trip he will attend a school for marine engineers, after which, if he makes good, he will get an appointment as assistant engineer on one of our steam carriers.
