

Closing a Road

Louis J. Simpson has been compelled to go into court to prevent being shut in at Shoreacres. Judge Oake gave him an injunction to prevent Ralph Barker from fencing up the road from Shoreacres to Coos Bay.

Last We Forget

"The following incident," says the Gold Beach Reporter in its series of articles on the recent Chesworth murder trial, "and which incident was later verified by the sworn testimony of comrades of the accused, is illustrative of the savage barbarity of the late war, and of the unspeakable tortures, both mental and physical, the soldiers were called upon to endure."

Dynamite Explosion

An explosion which jarred the ranch house of Anson O. Rogers, one-half mile away and which was heard plainly in Marshfield, occurred Sunday morning on the Coos River ranch of Mr. Rogers, when a stray shot, aimed at a rabbit, penetrated a cache containing six cases of dynamite, each holding about 25 pounds.

Big Pay Roll at Reedsport

About 200 men are now employed in the mills at Reedsport. They will average $5.50 a day, which makes the mill payroll about $1100 a day. When the box factory is completed it will add another hundred men, and when the Winchester Bay Lumber company plant is finished the force of that company will be much larger.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT in the County Court of the State of Oregon for Coos County in the Matter of the Estate of William Reeder, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned Administrator of the estate of said deceased, has filed in the above entitled court and cause, his final account and report as such administrator, and the said court has fixed and appointed Monday, the 20th day of October, 1919, and the court room of the above entitled court in Coquille, Oregon, as the time and place for hearing objections to said final account and for the settlement of said estate.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for the County of Coos. Jennie Edna Smith, Plaintiff, vs. James Smith, Defendant. Suit in Equity for Divorce.

In the Name of the State of Oregon. You are hereby required to appear and answer the Complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this Summons, to-wit: within six weeks from the 19th day of September, A. D., 1919, the same being the date of the first publication hereof; and if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will take judgment against you and will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in her said Complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows:

For a judgment and decree of the Court dissolving the marriage contract existing between plaintiff and defendant; that plaintiff may be restored to her maiden name; for a judgment against the defendant for her costs and disbursements in this suit; for such other and further relief in the premises as to the Court may seem meet and equitable.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Coos. Suit in Equity to Quiet Title.

Forges Check; Goes to Jail. The case of James Bellamy charged with passing a forged check for about $300 is being investigated by the grand jury. Monday Constable Goodman brought Bellamy to the county jail. He was arrested at the Bay Saturday night on a state charge sworn out by J. W. Griffus whose name was forged to the check passed by Bellamy. When the check was discovered to be a forgery Bellamy confessed to a bank that the check was worthless and agreed to settle the amount he had secured. Bellamy has a wife and child who were at Reedsport when the man was arrested, but they returned home Monday. Mrs. Leuthold Recovering.
