

Fifth Annual Coos County KORN KARNIVAL

under the auspices of the Coquille Commercial Club

Coquille, Oregon

NOVEMBER 14 & 15, 1919

TWO BIG DAYS---FRIDAY AND SATURDAY of Entertainment and Educational Features

The Exhibition Hall for the Korn Karnival will be the new Graham brick building just completed on Front Street.

Industrial display by local business houses on a larger scale than heretofore is assured

Everything Free

except the football game

FREE COFFEE will be served in a suitable room secured for the accommodation of those bringing their lunches.

Educational

An O. A. C. representative will be present to judge the agricultural exhibits, award the prizes and deliver an address on both Friday and Saturday on subjects of timely interest to farmers and dairymen.

Sports

In addition to an attractive list of street sports, a football game between the Marshfield and Coquille High School teams will be played Saturday afternoon to which an admission will be charged.

The old-fashioned Barn Dance and Huskin' Bee will be, as usual, the main attraction Saturday evening

Grover Gouthier challenges Jim Jenkins to straightaway 100-yd. dash without handicap of corn fodder or pumpkin

Everybody come and have a good time

At Work on R

The Roseburg Re say about the begin the Myrtle Point R under the state cont

While traffic is re ter level, being pra donment of the roo route for all excep exceptional business Camas valley unit highway will this section and the estab dent Engineer C. F. cinity today marks ment of probably on commercial develop county in many yea John Hampshire, of will have the contru 14-mile link, has abo out his camp sites, local highway engi Mr. Lewis was tod supplies at Sheeppan the engineering head project.

The contract is i. for winter work, accal men, and while t interference is expec though none of the n on entirely new rig will be in rock for t that wet weather w back. Several campe lished and a large fo be employed throug is expected that clea preliminaries will be once and that the pr readiness for the gr soon as the contractor chine and equipment on the way. Several in received and consign headquarters here th

The new section wil large cuts and fills an eliminate the steep grades now on the r will be placed as a fou macadam as soon as made. Whether or not be paved next summe determined, although th sible, and in either cas gorous part of the Co will be put into exc for all practical purp paving will eventually present link is but o several that will be ad to year until the entire this city to Myrtle Pe with a roadway uneq the Pacific highway th

Growing More D

Coyotes throughout continue to steadily in the large bounty on the some means is found their spread it will be until all sheep men w to fence or herd their f

The coyote first app ten years ago in the Rogue river country. ally worked their way and then commenced to of the rivr. And it is o past two weeks that the up on the big range of grove, south of Pistol Colegrove has started them, but in other pl not proved effective.

Goats are becoming with the rancher becau they take care of the than sheep and are also ral at night.

So far this year the paid a bounty upon 8 pa otes and 73 wildcats. Tribune.

Smoothing the R

That piece of coast h construction from Port which is being prosecu Co. will when complete of the most beautif along the Pacific coast. Axtell, machinery expert tractors, tells the Bando road will eliminate the tain between Bandon and The present road over t reaches an elevation o while the highest point route, which circles the its base and follows edge, is only 500 feet. T will not be shorter but w grades.

Importance of the E

Indicating the import Pacific International Li position, opening on Nov Portland, Oregon, is the are 1200 entries in the be classes. The Pacific Int the culminating event o circuit and all the finest have carried off premiu phies at other coast sho pete for final honrs a Premiums aggregate $75

The Oregon Farmer is ed for $2.15 in connecti Sentinel, and why its st. couldn't ask a dollar or a half a year for a paper they furnish, we don't u