

Wonderfully Efficient—
Surprisingly Low in Price

No Wires—No Plugs—No Bother

SWEEP with all the ease of running an ordinary carpet sweeper but with the suction-lift of electric cleaners.

The Vacuette makes A-THOROUGH-CLEANING EVERY-DAY an actual possibility because its so easy to use and so efficient in collecting dust, dirt, thread, lint, hairs, pins, and ravellings.

You just grasp the handle and go to work without bothering with entangling, troublesome wires. The 13-inch-wide high-speed revolving bristle brush loosens every particle of dust and grit, while the high-speed suction fan pulls the sweepings up into the dust-bag safely away from accidental spilling.

The light weight of the aluminum housing and simple mechanism, (6 1/2 lbs.) makes it so convenient to operate and carry that a child can use it.

STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Lane County Productive
J. B. Jones, who resides on rural route No. 3, on the Lorrans road, southwest of Eugene, writes The Guard as follows:
"Lane county is hard to beat in any line, from pretty girls, sawmill, farming, or patriotic citizens, even to large families. We have 16 living children—11 boys and 5 girls, and one dead. Four boys were in the army and four children are married. The report of the last birth was given to Dr. Harris as health officer 10 years next June. We expect to see all 16 Christmas."—Eugene Guard.

Simply irresistible—the High School minstrels. Goulds' Hall Dec. 19.
A year's subscription for the Sentinel would be an appropriate Christmas present for any distant friend who is interested in Coquille.

East Fork News
The friends of Mark Brown, of McKinley, who was drowned in the North Fork, was held at the Dun cemetery Monday at 11 o'clock. Mark was a home boy and was a partner with his father and mother.

Mildred Laird, who has been in Roseburg for the past four weeks, is improving in health, the operation for appendicitis having been a success.

When Alex Austin was at Coquille the last time he brought an order from the county roadmaster for 20,000 feet road lumber to be cut by Christensen & Binger, of Brewster Valley, for the East Fork Road. They commenced to saw last week. It looks now as though some of the mud holes on the East Fork would be bridged. The road is so bad in front of the Rosebine cabin that Mr. Boon asked to go through the field, for it is a hard job to get through the mud with the mail.

The "teachers" of Coos county did not threaten to quit their jobs as individuals unless they got 1,000 bucks next year. They voted a "resolution" to that effect; also to try to get the other teachers in the state to do likewise. When they ceased to be individuals their "resolution" became a conspiracy—a threat to strike.

After I read of a teachers' (?) meeting in Coquille, a person doesn't have to guess as to who gave it to the teachers in the neck. More next week.

Items From Arago.

Work had begun on the Arago bridge when high water came which delayed the work for several days and the road through the bottom land is very nearly impassable.

About 45 attended the bountiful supper at Arago hall last Saturday evening given by the ladies of the Arago Progressive Club and an exceptionally jolly time was reported by those present. There is likely to be another given in the near future as the time was too limited for all of the business transactions.

Rev. W. B. Smith has been improving his ranch somewhat of late and is expecting to rent it.

Ralph Planap, of Albany, is visiting at the D. W. Newton home. He is a nephew of Mrs. Newton.

Mrs. L. E. Woodward and two youngest daughters, Misses Edith and Evelyn, also her son, Tyrrol, of Castor, Canada, arrived in Coquille Monday. Mr. Woodward and son are at their Arago ranch fixing the house ready for them to occupy.

Little Pearl Myers entertained a large birthday party last Sunday. The children from the Sunday School were all invited to attend after the session was over.

The Community Christmas tree is for everyone to come and enjoy the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 24. There will be Christmas exercises.

Geo. Newton is home for the holiday vacation.
E. M. Beckham has moved on to the J. M. Beyers ranch at Fishtrap.
