

The Help You Want on Washday

While lifting boilers, struggling with tubs and straining over the scrubboard on wash days, haven't you often yearned for relief—some economical and convenient means of having your family washing done?

Our Family Laundry Service will appeal to you if you have.

It is something different from the usual laundry service,—and its cost is very moderate.

When our driver brings us your family bundle, we wash everything, using from nine to twelve changes of pure, soft water and suds of mild white soap. We dry the clothes without wringing or flapping on the line—a spin in our magic basket and a few minutes in a gentle breeze of warm, clean air, does it.

Then we iron the flat pieces, like the bed clothes and table linens. Such other pieces as require it, we starch.

Finally, we wrap them all in a package and deliver them to you immaculate—leaving only a small amount of the ironing for you to do yourself.

Could anything be simpler? All of the heaviest and most unpleasant work of washday is done by us. Only the lightest duties are left to you.

You will be pleasantly surprised, too, at the reasonableness of the cost.

But more important still, you will find immense relief in having no smelly Mondays to live through, no irksome labor over the scrubboard and no weekly troubles with clothes lines and soot.

If you will telephone, write or visit us, we will be glad to tell you more about this service. Or better, leave us your address and we will have our driver call at once for your family bundle.

The Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen at Norway, held their semi-yearly election Monday evening April 5th. The following officers were elected: Vern Hasen, Chairman; C. H. Neal, Vice-Chairman; Earl Steele, Secretary and Treasurer.

The members are planning a big time Saturday evening April 10, by giving a basket social and dance. As automobiles cannot reach Schroeder and Aasen's mill from the main road there will be a special train leaving the road crossing at 8:30 p.m. sharp.

Weather Observer Honored

O. Wiren, superintendent of the local lighthouse station, has been awarded a superintendent's efficiency star for the year ended Dec. 31, 1919 which he has just received. The local station is one of 5 out of the 38 Pacific coast stations so honored. Another Coos county station was one of the five, Capt. Dunson of Cape Arago station receiving one also.—Bandon World.

Capt. O. Wiren, weather observer at Bandon reports the March rainfall at the mouth of the Coquille this year as 5.60 inches which is more than inch less than last year.

Endorse Two Mill Tax Bill

Superintendent Mulkey hands us this morning the following resolution unanimously adopted by the Woman's Club of Bandon at a meeting held last night:

Resolved that, whereas our present method of raising funds for the support of our public schools places 70% of the burden of taxation directly upon the school districts, many of which are small and have a low valuation, a fairer, more democratic means of distributing this burden is needed.

That whereas the two mill state tax bill will place a tax upon all property including millions of dollars worth of property in the state that escapes the local district school tax, and thereby does not do its share toward supporting the public schools.

Therefore be it resolved that we, the members of the Bandon Woman's Club, do most heartily favor the passage of this bill at our next election.

What the Label Date Means

As to dates on the Sentinel labels, the figures refer only to the year and not to the day of the month. For instance "April 20" means April 1st, 1920. Naturally many people think the "20" means the 20th of the month. We intend that every subscription shall expire on the first of the month so as to have only twelve expiration dates in the year instead of 365. We don't want to short change anyone on the year's papers and in hundreds of instances have furnished two, three or four papers more than a year's numbers in order to have the subscription dated the first of the month. For any one who has reason to believe his subscription is paid for longer than our date shows we will give an additional month.

Two bargains in periodicals are to be found in our offer of the Oregon Farmer and the Sentinel, each one year, for $2.15, and Sunset and the Sentinel for $3 a year.

Coos River Shows Right

The following article from the Marshfield Sun will probably cause Coquille Valley farmers whose property borders on streams large or small to sit up and take notice:

Application of the Coos Bay Logging company for a franchise from the public service commission of Oregon "for driving, catching, booming, sorting, rafting, and holding logs, lumber and other timber products on Coos river," will be heard before the commission in Marshfield on the 14th of the present month.

The franchise is asked under a recent enactment of the legislature and the boom company seeks the exclusive privileges for such purposes on the waters of Coos river from its mouth (between Secs. 30 and 31, Tp. 28 South, Range 12 West), to the confluence of the north and south forks; and thence on south Coos river to its source (Sec. 7, Tp. 26 South, Range 9 West); thence on Williams river to its source.

Williams river is a new one on those who claim to be modern geographers, but when you are aware that the act under which this franchise is sought describes a stream that will boat a log "at certain periods" as navigable, you see that it is not easy to contemplate the magnitude or extent of its operations.

All acts of the boom company are governed by rules promulgated by the public service commission which alone is the sole arbiter of the life of the franchise.

For this privilege of an exclusive right to operate on and over the route described the booming people are to pay to the state of Oregon the munificent sum of one and one-half cents per thousand, board feet, for all logs and materials handled.

Under the extraordinary privileges granted in this act it is not clear, but that with the granting of this franchise Coos river farmers, who have in the past enjoyed free and unencumbered access to the waterway passing their farms, may be called upon to pay tribute to the booming company for so doing. It is certain that the rafting, storage, etc., of all logs on and over the aforesaid river becomes the exclusive and undisputed right of the boom company, which may enter upon your land at will, drive piles for the booms, dolphins, etc., anywhere on said river and wherever it may elect. If it cannot tax you for commodities to and from your farm, the first step has been taken, and all there is to do is to apply to the legislature—and it is there to act.

We don't know who the Coos Bay Logging company represents, and care not. At all events they are not going mealy-mouth into the franchise-grabbing business. They want everything in sight.

As to farmers who own lands on Coos river, and south Coos river, we believe their property rights are being placed in jeopardy. Under this you are asked to surrender the gracious privileges you have exercised in the past in the control of your waterfront to the tender care and guidance of a monopoly in the future. For all of which the great state of Oregon gets a mess of pottage; and the farmer parts company with privileges and rights that cannot be redeemed.

The law gives the Coos river and south Coos river farm-holder the right to protest. This is his only salvation. He must act before the 14th or forever hold his peace.

GO TO CHURCH

"These Things I Command You, That Ye Love One Another."

There are two principles fighting for mastery in the world today.

The one is Love. The other is Hate. Love is progressive, constructive. Hate is reactionary, destructive.

Love is optimistic. Hate is pessimistic. Love brings peace, joy, happiness, contentment.

Hate brings malice, envy, discontent, unhappiness. Those who obey Jesus, live by the rule of Love.

Such folks know Joy, Peace, Contentment, Happiness. Obedience to the commands of Jesus is the only life to live. Come to Church Next Sunday and Bring a Friend.

Rev. W. J. Fenton, Presiding Elder of the Portland District, will preach both morning and evening.

The third Quarterly Conference will hold business session at close of evening services.

In a Class by Themselves

DE LAVAL MILKING MACHINES, like De Laval Separators are in a class by themselves. These machines have been in use for several years, but only last year were they placed on the market. They have been experimenting with them until they have made a Perfect Milking Machine.

The demand has overrun the supply and they have had to pull their agents out of several states in order to get a wider distribution. I have been allotted three machines.

Our travelling representative will be here next and if interested, call or phone to me and we will give you full information. If your Separator needs fixing, or you need any extras, repairs, oils, or a new machine, we will be glad to serve you.

Give us your next order for a bill of groceries.
