COON & RICKARD

James Oliver Curwood, the greatest portrayer of animal life of the present day, has placed sixteen kinds of animals in their natural roles in "Back to God's Country," to be shown at the Liberty Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, June 14 and 15. You have all read his famous stories in "Cosmopolitan" and "Good Housekeeping" magazines. See them in real life.

Good Whistler, Story.
At the recent meeting of the Royal Society of British Artists, Sir Aston Webb told a story about Whistler when president of the society, which is worth recording. The place of honor at one of the society's exhibitions had been left empty by the hanging committee for the president's contribution. The day reserved for the press was fast approaching, and at last dawned, and still no picture had arrived from the president. A telegram was sent Whistler: "Press arriving, no picture," and the reply came: "The press we have always with us. Be of good cheer."

Where Charles I Surrendered.
A famous inn, the Saracen's Head, which stands within the shadow of the archiepiscopal palace and minister of Southwell, Notts, England, is for sale. It has been an inn for over five hundred years. Charles I slept there, and it was in its coffee room on May 5, 1646, that he surrendered himself to the Scottish commissioners before being escorted to Kelham, near Newark. Between 1804 and 1807 the inn was a favorite haunt of Lord Byron when he came to Southwell to visit his mother, and in the assembly rooms attached to it he frequently joined in amateur theatricals.

Frog Slept Seven Years.
After lying dormant for seven years in the solid concrete of a sewer manhole in Lodi, Cal., a frog took an hour's sunbath and then hopped away, according to the foreman of a gang of laborers repairing the streets there. The duration of the frog's long sleep is determined by the fact that the manhole was constructed seven years ago and had not been disturbed until torn out during the recent reconstruction work.

Shoots Sheep-Killing Coyotes

Truman Moon made two shots last week that brought him in $150, says the Port Orford Tribune. On Wednesday two coyotes were seen stalking a band of sheep on the Pfisterer range, about two miles north of Humboldt mountain, and near where Mr. Moon and others are working on the Hubbard-Brush creek highway. The following day Mr. Moon took his rifle with him and seeing the sheep moving about he investigated and found the two coyotes after them. He killed one, the other escaping. When returning from his work that evening he saw the sheep moving and found the lone coyote after them. A lucky shot on the run brought the varmint down.

The coyotes were not supposed to have been on this range more than two or three days, and yet five lambs and three old sheep were found that they had killed. They were a pair, one being a male and the other a female. Mr. Moon swore in the carcasses before Willis T. White and will get $75 bounty on each.

Maybe He Loses and Maybe Not.

A Portland paper tells the following story:
Coming up on the Coos Bay train, Charles Winsor, manager of the Simpson Estate company, bet $10 against $4 that neither Lowden nor Hoover would be nominated at the republican national convention. The short end of the bet was taken by Chas. Hall, president of the State Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Hall is displaying a lively interest in the developments at Chicago and confides that he fears his four dollars have departed from him forever.

Watson Escapes from Asylum.

A Salem dispatch says that Lester Watson, aged 29, committed from Coos county May 15, escaped from the state hospital Saturday night. He was a paroled man working about the yard of the hospital. Watson is an ex-service man who was employed at the Prosper mill at one time. It was from Prosper that he was taken to the asylum.

An actual battle between a powerful, savage Dane wolf dog and an entire team of Malmutes is something you have never seen. They fight to the death in "Back to God's Country" to be shown at the Liberty Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, June 14 and 15.

McKinley Notes.

Harry Bennett son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Bennett is here on a short furlough. He is a U. S. N. vountier and expects his discharge during the year.
Mrs. A. L. Brown is on the sick list this week. She has been suffering for some time from heart trouble.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown arrived home Monday from Bend, Ore., where they went ten days ago as delegates to the State Grange. There were four hundred delegates in attendance. Oregon has two hundred live Granges. There were eight delegates from Coos county. They were Mr. and Mrs. Price Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Jas Barklow, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown. Lakeside Grange sent no representatives. The State Grange will be held at Eugene next year.
Mrs. W. H. Bunch who has been sick for the past few weeks is not improving as rapidly as her friends would be glad to hear she was.
McKinley Grange met in regular session Saturday night. Grant Wilson, "Overseer" acting as master. The Fourth of July celebration was discussed. There will be another special meeting held next Saturday night.

240 Miles in Two Hours.

Speaking of the airplanes that were giving exhibitions in this county last week, one of them at Coquille, a Marshfield paper says they left for Portland Saturday. Mrs. J. J. Mahoney, wife of the promoter, made the trip in one of the machines. According to a telegram received the trip was made from Marshfield to Portland without stop in two hours and five minutes, the distance being 240 miles. The machine went up to an altitude of 10,000 feet to make the trip and followed a route from Marshfield to Eugene and Salem.

Selecting Landing Fields.

F. A. Elliott, of the state forestry department left Wednesday morning for Salem after having been in this county to make arrangements for the landing of the airplanes of the forest patrol service which will be used this year. Mr. Elliott selected a landing place at Powers just west of the town. With some improvement work it can be made a suitable place for the machines to land. The airplanes will also have the landing place in Marshfield to use.

Farm House Burns.

The farm house on the Hillis Perkins place on the Bandon-Coquille road near Parkersburg burned to the ground Wednesday afternoon with a loss of nearly all its contents, says the Bandon World. The fire originated from the chimney and spread so rapidly that it was beyond control before anything could be done to check it. Neighbors and occupants of passing cars rendered assistance in saving the barns which were in danger.

Girl Swims Down Roaring Rapids.

Scenes of the most expert swimming are among the unique features of "Back to God's Country," a First National special attraction, written by James Oliver Curwood, the most famous writer of animal life of the day. Nell Shipman, who takes the leading role, is an expert in the art and swims the torrid mountain streams with ease and grace. She swims down great rapids, where making a single mistroke might cost her life on the rocks. She swims through a boiling eddy clear under a great waterfall. Miss Shipman is an expert at both the Australian and American crawl strokes. The picture will be shown at the Liberty Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, June 14 and 15.

Church of Christ Notes.

Last Lord's day morning our hearts were made glad with ninety three in Sunday school, most all on time, and with good lessons and good attention during the study hour. Then Bro. Dallas had a special sermon for the children which he illustrated by using one of the boys and the strings which the little folks had brought for this purpose. It was indeed a child's sermon and yet the older people could learn a lesson, as I think we all did, and we surely praise these little folks for their attendance and good behavior.

The evening service was largely attended and many new faces were seen. We thank our Lord and Master for all things, especially for the growth of His church in all departments. Indeed, the bible study class is growing more interesting in the study and greatly increasing in number. Come, see, hear and ask questions. It will do you good. The Intermediate Endeavorers are doing a fine work. We may well be proud of these young people the way they are doing things for their Lord and King. All young people are invited to these meetings.

With thirteen in number at the Wednesday night prayer meeting we feel the work for the Master is ever growing in deed and in truth.
Don't forget the C. E. convention at Bandon on the 18th, 19th and 20th. Sunrise prayer service every morning, bonfire and eats on the beach, with song and prayer service. Coquille will be there seven or eight or more in number. Everybody go; a good time is insured all who attend.
Don't forget the regular service next Lord's day. Come one, come all, the Saviour wants you and you need him.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

All water users of the City of Coquille will please take notice that it is necessary to conserve every bit of water possible, as the dry season is rapidly approaching. There was a great shortage of water last season, and we have many more water users now than last year, so it behooves every one to not waste any water from this time until the fall rains commence.
A leaky faucet will waste more water in twenty-four hours than an ordinary family will use in that time; so look after these leaks. It is a violation of the City Ordinance to allow any water service to leak or waste water and the person allowing any such waste on his premises is subject to fine. I hope every person will realize that it is to their own interest to save water wherever possible and that it will not be necessary to resort to the law to enforce these regulations.
I ask the co-operation of every good citizen in this matter.
S. V. Epperson,
164t Water Superintendent

The Oregon Farmer is still furnished for $2.15 in connection with the Sentinel, and why its publishers shouldn't ask a dollar or a dollar and a half a year for a paper as good as they furnish, we don't understand.
