MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

That you agree with us. We have never before... Myrtle Point, Oregon. 3244

Fair! Coos and Curry County Fair held at Myrtle Point September 15-16-17-18. Going to be the biggest ever. So do not miss it. Remember the dates, Sept. 15-16-17-18.

The Myrtle Point schools started Sept. 7th. Both the high school and grammar school have all their teachers with the exception of the Commercial teacher in high school, who has not arrived. It was thought Miss Barlow, of Yakima, Wash., would be the teacher, but as she couldn't be procured, another will be here in a few days it is hoped.

Miss Myrtle Clayton, of Gravel Ford, came to town Monday to be able to start to high school Tuesday.

Miss Bertha Jennings, of Bandon, who formerly worked in the office of the Myrtle Point garage, came up here Monday to take the early morning train to Portland, where she will visit a few months with her friend, Mrs. Anna Bower.

The kiddies of Coos and Curry counties will be glad to hear that the merry-go-round and the Ocean Waves have already arrived, so as to be ready for the Coos and Curry County Fair which will be here Sept. 15th to 19.

Walter Butters, of this city, went to Marshfield to have treatment for his foot, which was injured several weeks ago in one of the Powers camps.

Miss Margaret Kety, of Gravel Ford, arrived in town Monday to take up the high school work this year.

Myrtle and Mabel Hall and Nellie Mast are keeping house in town and going to high school.

Jot Miller, formerly of this place but now of Ashland, is visiting friends and relatives in Myrtle Point after an absence of several years.

A party from Myrtle Point spent a most enjoyable time on the beach at Bandon and on the way home stopped at the foot of Lamps mountain, built a big bon fire and had a wienie roast, which was enjoyed by all. Those taking the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Annin and Vivien, Crawford and Bobbie Annin, Miss Lettie Pratt, Miss Blanche Lee, Cecil, Fait, Dr. O. H. Clarke and sons, Oliver and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thompson and children, Marjorie and Carl, Tommy Donaca, Dr. L. M. Anderson, Florence, Clifton, Louis, and Kathleen Anderson, Alvin Neideigh, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carter, Hilda, Clarence, Ora and Shirley Carter, Marjorie Anderson, Arual Haselwood, Elton Corbin, Gladys Carey, Launcelot Baker, Lila Endicott, Itha Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Jennings and Dallas Robinson.

Gilbert, the small son of Will Miller, of Powers, had his tonsils and adenoids removed at Dr. Pemberton's hospital. At this writing he is doing nicely.

C. O. Jennings and wife drove to Marshfield Monday morning and drove back a big new Buick.

The Royal Neighbor Lodge convention of Coos county will be held in Myrtle Point October 2nd. Supervising deputy Ida Hamblen, of Portland, will be here to attend.

E. M. McArthur and F. M. Wolf, of Coos Bay, were in Myrtle Point Tuesday on business matters.

L. E. Brown, an insurance man of Marshfield, was in this city on business Tuesday.

James Loveland and Albert Coulter, of San Francisco, are here selling real estate without a license and were brought before the Justice court and the trial was set for next Monday here.

Miss Gladys Carter, who has been visiting in Roseburg the past week, returned home Wednesday.

Miss Rowena Roberts, formerly of this place but now of Ashland, came Sunday to stay with her aunt, Mrs. Benson, until after the fair.

Dick Buell, an old resident of Myrtle Point but who now resides in Salem, is in town visiting friends and relatives.

F. V. Healy, W. S. Glover, T. A. McClies, all of Portland, were here Tuesday on official business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Lundy were in Bandon Sunday to have dental work done.

A couple of our citizens got into a fistie combat the fore part of the week and the cause of their difficulty was a little dog.

O. V. Chevey, of Portland, was a Myrtle Point visitor last Wednesday.

P. B. Scholtes, of Seattle, was a caller in our city Wednesday.

Want to Locate at Myrtle Point.

Secretary A. C. Chase of the Myrtle Point Commercial Club has received a communication from a Michigan firm of wood manufacturers that desires to locate there and put up a plant for the manufacture of battery boxes, using Port Orford cedar. They state that they want to put up a plant of about 10,000 feet floor space and will employ a force of about forty men.

Items From Arago

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pinkston received a second little daughter into their home last Saturday, Sept. 4.

George Clinkenbeard's mother, Mrs. Clinkenbeard from the Bay, visited them from Saturday until Tuesday of last week.

Jerry Scott, of Marshfield, was combining business with pleasure last Wednesday and called on several of his friends about Arago. Mr. Scott will be remembered as leading a singing school at Arago several years ago. During the war he was located between St. Paul and Minneapolis, as a flyer. He also sustained an accident from a long fall from which he has practically recovered.

Mrs. L. R. Woodward, who went to Eureka to visit her three sisters, whom she had not seen for ten years, was gone three weeks arriving home August 29.

The community threshing is about over for this year, having had very good weather for it. Next come the silos to fill and fall plowing.

The meetings at the tent at Arago, which have been conducted at Arago by Rev. Wm. Barnett, the evangelist for the Brethren church, for the past two weeks, will continue over next Sunday. All are invited to come.

Miss Mildred Myers is at the Mercy hospital at North Bend, undergoing an operation.

Everyone is interested in knowing when the Arago school will open. The building is progressing nicely but there was some delay in getting material last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter, who have been camping on Rogue River for nearly two weeks, returned home Monday.

Linn Averill left last Monday for Corvallis to take up his studies at O. A. C. Mr. Averill has been clerking at the Arago store this summer.

Mrs. Emily Schroeder has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Langor, last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder motored to Powers Sunday for her.

Leslie Lett is clerking at the Arago store.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Willoughby are moving from Halls Creek to Rock creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Root from Granda, Calif., are expected to arrive here for a visit in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Paul, who are living at the mill on Halls Creek, welcomed a fifth son into their home
