J. A. Lamb Resigns

All members of the common council, except Mayor Johnson, were present at the regular meeting last Monday evening.

The first business transacted was in regard to a sidewalk on the north side of First street from Hall street to the bridge, a distance of about 100 feet. The walk there has been in bad condition for some time and the marshal was instructed to notify the owners or their agents to have a new walk laid at once.

T. F. Tompkins, having offered the city $405.68 for lots 11 and 12, block 49 Elliott's Addition, known as the Harry lots, the recorder was instructed to close the deal with him. Mr. Harry has not paid the street assessments on these two lots, which lie east of the old M. E. Church, and the city accepted the opportunity to come out whole on them.

The resignation of J. A. Lamb as councilman, effective December 31, was accepted by the council. Mr. Lamb had had the move in mind for some time and tendered it thus early so that his successor might be nominated at the caucus Tuesday evening. Mr. Lamb has been one of the most efficient and faithful members of the council the past two years and it is to be regretted that he could not see his way clear to serve his time out.

Judge A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles, contemplating resigning from the Supreme bench, and it is thought that if he does Gov. Olcott may appoint Judge John S. Cole of this district to fill the vacancy.

The registration books for this fall's election will close Saturday of next week, October 2. It will save the voter who has moved since last voting lots of trouble to see that he is registered right before that time.

Mrs. C. C. Price, who has been down in California, near Vera Cruz, for several months, is expected home next week. Miss Jennie came home last week and Miss Erma is attending Jefferson High School in Portland.

W. H. Voss, M. D., specializing in eye, ear, nose and throat and fitting of glasses, announces that he will be in London every Tuesday and Myrtle Point every Friday. Home office, Collier Apartments, Coquille, Phone 381.

Wanted to buy, good stock hogs. Will pay 14 cents delivered in Coquille. L. P. Branstetter.

A. E. Pendleton, the new M. E. South pastor, arrived last Tuesday from Montgomery City, Missouri, accompanied by Mrs. Pendleton. They leave a son and daughter attending school in Missouri. Mr. Pendleton has spent many years in Colorado as a pastor.

Having purchased the tailoring business at the old Fred Slagle stand we have consolidated the two equipments and are prepared to serve you in the Pressing and Cleaning line at our location opposite the F. & M. Bank. Hines & Finley. 3513

Miss Jennie Biles of O. A. C. who was busy at the fair all last week returned to Corvallis Sunday morning and Miss Minnie Kalbas, home demonstration agent, who was summoned to her home at Chehalis, Wash., a week before on account of the death of her father, returned to her work in Coos county Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Butler were up from Prosper last Sunday visiting friends, and while here made arrangements to move to Coquille for the school year in order that their daughter, Miss Gertrude, might attend our high school. They rented the upstairs of the W. C. Chase home. Mr. Butler is bookkeeper for the Sudden & Christensen mill at Prosper.

Joseph A. Harvell, who has been connected with the Russ Improvement Co. at Eureka, Calif., has severed his connections with the company and arrived Monday afternoon to become a Coos county rancher. He has purchased what is known as the China Camp ranch of the Russ holdings and intends to get into the dairy business. While waiting to get a house built on the land, he is looking for a home here in Coquille in order that Mrs. Harvell and the children may join him as soon as possible.

Those 30,000 Booklets

The Farm Bureau committee appointed to get 30,000 Coos County Booklets printed met at Myrtle Point last Saturday and began over again. The contract had been awarded to the Gazout printery, which made far the lowest bid; but it seems that shop did not bid on the same specifications as the other bidders, and no cover was provided for. That alone was a matter of several hundred dollars, so it was deemed fairest to make another call for bids. The preliminary estimate of the committee was that the job would cost around $2,000 and it looks as if they made a much better guess than some of the bidders did. We only hope that when the contract is let, it will go to some shop that is prepared to do all the work in Coos county.

Bradley Becomes Rancher

W. C. Bradley, the Berry Booster, was a Sentinel caller Tuesday morning. He informs us that he has decided to make his home at Fairview, where he has bought a half interest in the O. W. Thompson ranch, and take a hand in berry culture himself. This is the ranch owned for several years by our townsman, Zena C. Strang. Mr. Bradley tells us they are contemplating the installation of an electric lighting plant and a water supply system on the ranch.

The Service Station

I used to wonder WHO the guy was THAT invented THE Service Station.

AND why. NOW I know why. LAST week I drove to town IN my Henry T. TO get some gas. AND it was raining. I stopped AT a sidewalk pump AND hollered AND yelled, AND pretty soon A man came out IN the rain. SO my wife got out. AND I got out IN the rain. AND the water ran DOWN the back of my neck, AND spoiled my clothes AND ruined my wife's hat, BUT I kept my temper AND paid for the gas, BUT I wanted some air, AND I got it, MYSELF. AND got mud on my clothes, AND cursed the man AND the weather. BUT next time I went TO a Service Station. IT was raining. BUT the pump WAS under cover AND I was IN the dry. AND I got my gas AND the man PUT air in my tires AND water IN my radiator. AND I didn't DIRTY my clothes. SO now I know why THEY built the Service Station. AND Oh Boy! AIN'T it a grand AND glorious feeling?

Stock Train Saturdays

Col. John L. May, assistant superintendent of the Southern Pacific, announces that the company has arranged for a fast stock service out of here weekly to accommodate shippers to the Portland market. Hitherto the live stock has been taken on the regular nights and the delays have been bothersome to both shippers and the company.

The new service provides for a special train to leave Myrtle Point Saturday evenings. It will pick up carloads along the line and reach Eugene early Sunday morning and the union stockyards in Portland about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The car shortage is easing up, Col. May says. There are more cars and the demand is not so great as the lumber orders are dropping off.

New Studebaker Six

We had the pleasure of coming down from Myrtle Point last Saturday afternoon with J. A. Lamb and H. P. Gurnes, of North Bend, in one of the new light six Studebakers which has caused such a sensation in the east and wherever it has been shown. This is the first one shipped to Coos county and is being used for demonstration purposes. Mr. Lamb expects to have one as a demonstrator after the first of the month. It is a mighty fine car, with an engine which is an innovation in automobile circles. The engine was kept running from eight o'clock Saturday morning until five in the evening without heating the radiator.

Residence for Sale

Two lots, each 50x100, modern house, and barn. One lot 50x100 with garage. Inquire of F. W. Jones.

A. E. Adams Has New Company

Al E. Adams, of Eugene, dropped in Tuesday as the representative of the Endicott Paper Co., of Portland, the coast branch of the Butler Paper Co., of Chicago. Mr. Adams used to represent the American Type Foundry in this section and later went down to California to learn more about the Mergenthaler Linotype. He did not fall in love with the climate there and says he wouldn't live there if they would give him the whole state. He found it extremely hot in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys and lost sixteen pounds in the few weeks he was there.

Dr. and Mrs. Moore Here

Dr. H. B. Moore, who had an office here several years ago, made a brief visit here this week, coming in Wednesday and going out yesterday. Mrs. Moore came in Monday and went out this morning for Marshfield to take ship there for San Francisco, where she goes to visit a daughter, and a granddaughter whom she has never seen. She says her son, Harold, has adopted the newspaper profession and has been doing good work on the Eugene Guard lately. He is taking the University course in journalism also.

O. E. S. Members, Attention

All members of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., and all visiting members are hereby notified that Mrs. Ida Umbach, of Lakeview, Oregon, grand worthy matron for Oregon, will pay her official visit to Beulah chapter next Monday evening, the 27th inst., and all are cordially invited and urged to be present.

Much Is "Promised"

Yesterday's Coos Bay Times is authority for the statement that "it has been promised" that if the paving of the Coquille-Marshfield road cannot be completed this fall, plank or gravel would be used on the unpaved section so that the entire road could be used during the winter season. It is not stated who made this promise.

American Legion to Fight

A yesterday's New York dispatch says:

The American Legion has announced formation of plans to mobilize its forces for a war against the high cost of living. In every community where there is a post the Legion contemplates organizing retail dealers into an association, prospective merchant members of which, it is said, have pledged discounts approximating five per cent from the current selling prices of all commodities to the 2,000,000 members of the Legion and their families.

How this will help the rest of us is not yet evident.
