Real Estate Moving
There have been a number of transfers of Myrtle Point realty during the past week or two, says the Myrtle Point American. J. D. Barkley has sold his place on south Fourth street to E. L. Weekly. Jan. Endicott, who bought the T. D. Gernin bungalow on South Fifth, closed a deal for the purchase of the property belonging to Mrs. Daly, formerly owned by Wm. Carver in the southeast part of town. A. W. Boell has sold his place to Frank Jackson, of Bridge, and L. T. Denton has bought the property he is occupying as a residence from Mrs. Joe Laird.

Mr. Garrett, the new preacher at Fishtrap, has just arrived and will preach his first sermon next Sunday.

John Stone, who has been hauling for E. M. Beckham on Halla creek, is down here digging his spuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton and sons have returned from their pleasure trip on which they went up into Washington. They said they had a wonderfully good time.

Miss Beattie Finley has been helping her brother, Hugh, in the tailor shop last week and this.

Almost all of the the young people and some of the old ones are planning to move to town, the younger ones to enter school and the older ones to keep house for them. Beattie and Verna Finley will stay at home and go to school with Mr. Baker in his car. Oh yes, it's in the shop now being overhauled. It will go all right.

Have you lived three years with a perfectly good husband? Then you'll know why Constance Talmadge, as Georgianna, stepped out "In Search of a Sinner" at the Liberty Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 11th and 12th.

business in Coquille Sunday evening. Alva Brown is helping cut snags in Brewster Valley.

Chas. Holmstrom had business in Marshfield last week returning home on Friday's mail stage.

Mrs. Blair fell Friday forenoon and dislocated her arm at the elbow. She was taken to Dr. Richmond at Coquille, who fixed up the arm and she is getting along nicely at present writing.

Sunday School opened again after a three months' vacation. Mr. Bennett is the new superintendent, Mrs. Hansen organist, Mrs. Arthur Brown, chorister. Mrs. Lyman King is secretary and treasurer and Margaret Wilcox librarian.

Millford and Roy Mast had business in Coquille Thursday.

Johnson's Mill

Raymond E. Baker, city school superintendent at Coquille, is now a citizen of this burg. We are glad to have them here, it adds to our school as well as to our good citizenship.

Little Edna Halter, who has a severe case of typhoid fever, is thought to be some better. She is the fourth one of the family to have this dreaded disease this summer.

The young people of this place have been going down to Coquille to church in the evening and they are such old timers they sometimes go on a hay wagon, but Sunday evening they took advantage of the railroad going down and hired a car to bring them home.

Miss Grace Hockema, of Alsea, came in last Friday and visited friends here till Sunday when she went to McKinley where she will teach school the coming winter. The good people of McKinley are fortunate in securing such a teacher as we know Grace to be.

E. B. Finley had twelve big fish come up on the Myrtle and his poor better two-thirds has to can them.

Miss Eunice Pinkston, who with her mother has just moved to Coquille to enter school, was a visitor at R. B. Knife's Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson, who have been visiting relatives and friends for the past month, started for their home at Grenada, Calif., Saturday.

Arthur Brown, who has been sick for some time, is not improving very rapidly.

Wm. Mast and wife moved to McCarthy's camp Sunday.

Lynn Snow and Walter Sunch had

wonderfully good time.
