Quit Claim Deeds a Specialty

While Henry Sengstacken was in Portland the first of the week he was interviewed by an Oregonian scribe, who had this to say:

"If you ever buy a piece of property in Coos county you will finally have to go to Henry Sengstacken for a quit claim deed. Mr. Sengstacken has lived there so long and dabbled in real estate so long, that signing quit claim deeds has become second nature, and Mr. Sengstacken has not been losing money by the peculiar situation. When the Coos Bay chamber of commerce was discussing the proposed purchase of Lower California, as proposed by the United States chamber of commerce, Mr. Sengstacken arose and tried to help matters, for he said: 'I'll give a quit claim deed to Lower California.' No one knows how long Mr. Sengstacken has lived in Coos county. He was running a drug store there about 50 years ago, but derived more profit, pleasure and excitement as a real estate."

If It Didn't Rain

The Marshall News (see Record) says it was announced Tuesday afternoon by officials of the Scandia company that work would be resumed Thursday, October 7, on the Coquille highway which means so much to the future prosperity of the Coos Bay country. The company's crew will start pouring concrete at the Coquille end of the highway and with favorable weather it is expected to vigorously prosecute the work. The weather didn't permit.

The G. C. Lindauer, which is to carry lumber from Marshall to San Francisco for R. A. Wernich's Coquille mills, has been chartered for five trips. She will leave San Francisco October 7th on her first trip here.—Times.

With this machine the re-boring is reduced to an exactness that will completely stop the leak and make your cylinders as good as new—better, in fact, on account of the increased power.
