Some religious folks are so elaminist that they would rather escribed the Hible them their jet notions. What the world needs teday is a religion that will cause folks to love one another. "Love worketh no ill to his neighbor." The non-professor of religion many times lives better than stany professors.

What Cognille needs is not more church members but more Christianal God appeal the day when people will know Christianity as a cure for the strife and divisions of the day.

a solo by Irma Wilson, after which Stanley Stevens gave a short address on foreign mission work and why the little folks should help to earry on the work in foreign fields. The Endowor twice-a-month hard time social was held at the home of Irma Wilson Saturday night with 22 young people present, all poorly clad. Stanley Stevens took first prise, Martha Wilkinson second. The judges were Mr. Day, Aaron Wilson and Jim Nesler. The Junior young people are doing a fine work. They will be pleased to have the senior and the alumni council to visit their meetings at any time from four until five Sunday evenings. The evening services last Sunday were dismissed that all might attend the services at the tabarnacia. All are welcome at all times to all the services.—Church Correspondent.

Water From Willow Creek

That a hydro electric power plant for Bandon is feasible by utilizing Willow creek, a stream in northern Curry county, is the statement of E. C. Miller, of Miller Engineering Co., Seattle, who during August investigated prospective local sites. His preliminary report and estimate made for the City of Bandon, has just been received by Mayor Topping. The cost of the entire project, including the purchase of the local distributing system of the Bandon Power Co., is estimated at $105,000.—Western World.

Jeffree Held Up at Bay

William Jeffres was held up and robbed at Marshfield Monday night while going to his home in Bunker-Hill addition. The hold-up occurred near the Libby treatle. Jeffres found himself suddenly confronted by two men who had their faces covered with handkerchiefs and each of them carried guns. They took his watch and a few dollars in money but failed to find about 500 in each he had in one pocket.—Times.

Pumpkin Seed Guess

At the State Pair last week At the State Fair last week a guessing contest in which anyone was allowed to guess the number of seeds in a pumphin from Coos county, caused considerable interest. Guesses ranged anywhere from 60 to 18,000. Actual count was 321 seeds of which number 12 guessed correctly.

Miss Talmadge takes the part of Georgianus Chadbourne, who is re-fleved of a too-good-for-any-use hus-hand at twenty, and who uallies forth in search of a man who can give her a thrill. She finds him too!
