Johnny Starr and Ransel Burr have returned to the Second B.

Those perfect in Spelling are:
Third B—Corrine Wheat, Flora May Johnson, Belmont Ireland, Leslie Robbins.

Third A—Bessie Abell, Jerene Low, Edward Dow, Barbara Richmond, Niel McGilvery, Anna Wiggins.

Fourth Grade—Viola Fribble, Lurline Wilkinson, Kathryn Wilson, Stanley Vowell, Gladys Jones, Elizabeth Lane, Minnie Lanson, Leah Huber.

Remember when renewing for the Sentinel that it costs only 15 cents more a year to get the Oregon Farmer, an excellent agricultural weekly, for a year.

The first day of the week at Coquille was spent shopping Tuesday.
The Walker Girls, consisting of Anna Frances Stewart and Boyce Baker, were enjoyed very much Monday evening in the South Methodist church. Their program consisted of solos, duets, both vocal and instrumental, readings given in child dialects and also several child songs. This was the third Lyceum number and the other two will be held some time in February.

M. H. Beeson, of Big Creek, was in town Tuesday on business.
E. M. Clayton and son, Marion, of Gravel Ford, were in town Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. George Eckloff, of Catching Creek, were in town Tuesday shopping.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by the Epworth Leaguers of the M. E. Church Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Jennings. Games were played until a late hour when a dainty lunch was served, after which all returned to their home to dream of the delightful evening they had had. Those present were: Percy Keltner, Claire Lehmonski, Clarence Carter, Elton Corbin, Dallas Robinson, Elmer Gant, Wayne Carver, Rev. J. D. Woodfin, Margaret Kelly, Itha Clinton, Myrtle Clayton, Margaret Corbin, Audrey Wagner, Ora Carter and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Jennings and daughter, Dorothea.

Dean Straub, of the University of Oregon, lectured at the Myrtle Point High School Tuesday morning on "A College Education." It was enjoyed very much by all.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Miller, of Alkott, Nebraska, who have been here visiting Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. S. W. Hall, of this city, for past three weeks returned to their home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Swanson, who has been running the logging camp for J. O. Stemmler during the summer, moved to Marshfield Tuesday.

Mr. Mandell, of Fredericks K. Sterns Drug House of Detroit, Mich., was here on business Tuesday and Wednesday.

Little Anne Harlocker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Harlocker, went to Coquille Tuesday to stay till Christmas with her grandmother, Mrs. Harlocker, who resides there.

A. T. Morrison, of the Bankers Life Insurance Co., was in town Tuesday on business.

Tice Wagner and daughter, Emma, of Broadbent, were in town Wednesday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bryant, of Bridge, were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Billings were in town from Bridge Wednesday to attend the Women's Club.

Mrs. Elizabeth English, of Powers, died in the Pemberton hospital Monday of dropsy. The remains were shipped to Powers and buried there Wednesday.

Belle C. Park, of Medford, Oregon, was here visiting Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

R. E. Merrick, of Portland, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

John J. Beteman, garage man of Coos Bay, was in town looking after his interest here Wednesday.

C. E. Mason, of San Francisco, was here on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Schroeder, of Coquille, was in town Wednesday visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sturdevant.

There will be a big basket ball game here tonight. Myrtle Point plays against Powers high school. This being the first game of the season, everybody come and help start it right. Children admission 25c and adults, 35c.

Joe Knight Jr. had his tonsils and adenoids removed by Dr. Clarke Wednesday.

Dr. S. A. Danford, new district superintendent, made his first visit here Monday evening and held services in the Methodist church morning and evening.

Jimmie Rookard, of Bridge, who was operated on for ruptured appendix at Dr. Clarke's sanitarium some time ago had so far recovered as to be able to be moved home Monday.

Theron Keltner, who has been working at Marshfield for some time, was here Wednesday on a visit.

The boys of the Myrtle Point high school are practicing vigorously for the first game of basket ball with Powers here tonight.

Items From Arago.

The Sunday School at Arago is doing nicely with Miss Flossie Lett as superintendent. There is room and a hearty welcome for more members. Please come and help them.

Mrs. George Halter is having the flu or something like it.

Rev. Mr. Wiggles left Monday for Corvallis to spend Christmas with his family there.

The water is up so high on the lowlands that it is necessary and common to see a skiff or launch fastened to the door of the homes.

Dave Smalley, of Hall's Creek, who has been at the Richmond hospital for about three weeks and has been operated on twice for appendicitis, is in a very serious condition yet.

Mrs. Smalley is staying with her son, Dave at the hospital in Coquille, having gone down last Friday.

Arago Progressive Club has elected three delegates to find ways and means to help with giving hot lunches for the school children.

The three rooms of the school will give an entertainment next Friday evening, Dec. 24, at Arago.
