TUESDAY, DECEMBER 21st
"OLD WIVES FOR NEW"
 A Cecile B. De Mille production
 From the story by David Graham Phillips
 Should a wife have to compete with other women for her husband's love? If she smugly rests on virtue and the marriage contract and drifts into careless dowdiness, is her husband wholly to blame when his interest turns to another?
 This is the first of De Mille's wonderful pictures on married life, and like the others it's a record-breaker.
 In this story he pictures the lives of a man and woman who marry young, and who regret it bitterly later when the wife becomes slovenly and fat, while the man gains in every way. Another woman enters the life of the man, and thus the eternal triangle is established with highly dramatic results. Stylish gowns valued at $75,000 are worn by the women members of the cast.
 The cast includes Elliott Dexter, Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Tully Marshall, Helen Jerome Eddy and Florence Vidler. Surely this is a wonderful cast in a story by a great author screened by a master director. Don't hesitate to come. We also have

To Give Christmas Dances

Six months ago the Women's Club was confronted with the debt of $200, incurred in remodeling the Liberty Temple to be used as a Rest Room for the comfort of the public. The desire of the ladies was to avoid soliciting our business people and others for large contributions. Today the debt has been decreased to $52.13 thanks to all who have helped and to the Honor Guard for their money donation.

This has been accomplished through persistent effort. The proceeds from the dances and the lunches served have met the debt largely and in giving these dances the purpose of the club has been to meet the debt with as little soliciting from the public as possible. The ladies wish to request all interested to co-operate in making the Christmas dance an enjoyable affair with enough money cleared to wipe out the debt in 1920, also to thank all who have contributed in any way.

The next meeting of the Women's Club will be Dec. 28 at the Rest Room with Mrs. J. E. Norton hostess. Monday evening all who can come to Goulds' Hall to help decorate for the Christmas dance. Those who can bring cedar wreaths or other greens suitable for decorations.

Engagement Announced

Philip Johnson, son of Mayor and Mrs. E. E. Johnson, and now Oregon University student, is soon to be married to a California young woman, who is also attending the University. The Eugene Guard has the following about the party at which the engagement was announced:

"A charming dinner party at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house on Tuesday evening announced the engagement of Miss Maebelle Ramont, of Modesto, California, and Philip Johnson, of Coquille. A number of alumnae members of the sorority were present, as well as the chapter girls, for the affair. Dainty cards, at the places held a verse announcing the engagement. Miss Ramont is a senior in the university, spending the first three years of her college life at the University of Southern California. She came to the university during the last school year. She is a member of Delta Psi Kappa, national honorary physical education fraternity for women. Mr. Johnson is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, but is not in school this year."

Trading for Better Bulls

J. L. Smith informs us that he is going to ship out two carloads of those scrub bulls the banks have been replacing with thoroughbreds tomorrow, (Saturday), and that another will go out soon after New Year's. The animals shipped from here will include those brought up from Bandon. The bulls that are young and in good flesh will make pretty fair beef it is said, but those that are old and tough will go to the making of bologna sausage.

Mr. Smith furnishes us the following list of dairymen in the Coquille section who have traded scrub bulls for purebreds through the Farmers and Merchants Bank:
 P. F. Teeters, B. B. Teeters, Herbert Johnson, Alf Miller, Chas. McCurdy, J. A. Hatcher, K. Marcy, Tom Garrone, Cecil Ellwood, John Hickam, Joe Milani, Geo. S. Robison, L. J. Swan, I. M. Weekly, Tom Summerlin, R. R. Bennett, W. E. Bigelow, E. L. Robbins, Wm. Chandler, Allan T. King.

They Got Here Anyhow

A. T. Morrison, Hark Dunham, and a number of others had a great experience getting back from Myrtle Point last Saturday evening, a number of the crowd being ladies. They were on the train coming from Myrtle Point and it was found that the train could not get through to Coquille on account of the high water. Some of the passengers were anxious to get here so they decided they would walk. They found water over the wagon road so it was necessary to hike over the hills and the trip was a slow one. Before reaching Coquille they had to cross the water but managed to get a boat and finally got home but were three or four hours making the trip.

Death of Mrs. W. S. Noel

Last week we recorded the death of W. S. Noel, of this city, at the advanced age of 71 years, which occurred on Wednesday. We spoke then of his being survived by his widow, Mrs. Louisa Noel; but she did not live long to mourn his death, but died on Sunday. Her funeral services were held on Tuesday at the Undertaking Parlor and conducted by Rev. L. E. Neal. The interment was beside her husband in the Masonic cemetery. Mrs. Noel's age was about the same as that of her husband. Cases like this where two old people, who have long traveled life's journey together, "go over the range" at very nearly the same time often occur.

TOWN KILLS ADAGES

Municipal Offices Now in the Hands of Women.

Suffragists of Yoncalla, Ore., Prove That They Can Keep a Secret and "Play Politics."

Yoncalla, Ore.—Yoncalla is now strictly a woman's town. In spirit and in fact women are the town's leaders since the recent election when they elected a woman mayor and a woman to every other place in the city government unbeknown to the men of this little town.

The women say the election has permanently disposed of two old adages, to the effect that women can not keep a secret and that they can not successfully "play politics."

Over tea-cups, at social gatherings, after prayer meetings and from house to house the women carried on their political campaign secretly prior to election. It had been "whispered," they said, that the men intended to let the incumbents hold over without bother of a new ticket.

The women did not like the administration. They bolted and went to the polls and marked in the names of their candidates. The men were concerned with national and state politics only. The men did not bother about the city election. Result:

Mrs. Mary Burt, mayor, native Oregonian, graduate of Pacific college, class of 1873, who has lived here 48 years (Rep.).

Councilwomen—Mrs. Jennie R. Lanwell, wife of the retiring mayor and prominent clubwoman; Mrs. Bernice Wilson, pioneer school teacher, and wife of postmaster; Mrs. Nettie Hannan, wife of a retired capitalist.

The women have no definite plans for promoting the welfare of the town, Mayor-elect Burt said.

"We intend to study conditions," she said, "and do all in our power to give the city of Yoncalla a good, efficient government."

"At the worst we can not do much worse than the men have done."

Mayor Jesse B. Lanwell, who has lost his job, said his cohorts "were taken off their guard," but he has promised the women his help.

A SONG OF THE SEA

I should not care to live by the sea,
 With its rumble and groan and roar;
 To me it means a mournful song,
 And means it o'er and o'er.

And yet when the wind is calmly still
 And the deep blue ripples free,
 Why then, methinks, perhaps I, too,
 Would dwell by the deep blue sea.

And thus it is with life, my friends,
 When the ripples ripple free
 Our lives move on with joy and ease
 By mountain or by sea.

How gladly we'd still life's fitful roar,
 And wish it o'er might be
 Calm, serene, secure and deep,
 As the peaceful, deep blue sea.

Anon.

The foregoing, very creditable poem by a Curry county high school girl appears in this week's issue of the Port Orford Tribune.

Mrs. J. E. Paulson Entertains

A very pleasant and delightful party occurred at the home of Mrs. J. E. Paulson last Friday evening. The severe storm outside served to emphasize the warmth and good cheer within and the two large living rooms were filled, there being eight tables at which the ladies enjoyed the ever popular "500." Mrs. L. H. Hazard finished with high score while lock went against Mrs. Dr. Hamilton who was consoled. The hostess served a delectable luncheon at the close of the game and was graciously assisted by her daughter, Maxine, and by Miss Geneva Robinson, Mrs. Stanley Bartlett and Mrs. Nick Johnson.

Doesn't Own the Beach

We are reliably informed that when Louis Knapp, Sr., was informed of the false and libelous report which was first published in a Coos county paper and copied by several others to the effect that he claimed the Port Orford beach, and refused to allow any one to take lumber therefrom, he jumped from his chair and remarked, very impressively: "The man who told such a — of a yarn as that is a ———— of a ———— well everybody knows how emphatically Louie can express himself when occasion calls, and no one blames him in this case.—Port Orford Tribune.
