WINCHESTER

The Gun and Shells For Getting Game

GOOSE shooters all over North America swear by the hard-hitting, evenly distributed Winchester perfect shot pattern, that brings the geese down stone dead, close to the blind.

Winchester Shotguns and Shells give the same satisfactory results in every other kind of small game shooting. They are known everywhere in the world for durability, accuracy, and getting game.

Buy a Winchester Model 12 Hammerless Repeating Shotgun, or a Model 97 with outside hammer. And Winchester Shells—Leader or Repeater in smokeless, Nublack or New Rival in black powder. Be prepared for the big day when luck comes your way.

There's one time when married life is absorbingly entertaining. It's when Cecil B. DeMille puts it in a picture. See "Why Change Your Wife?" at the Liberty Thursday or Friday, Jan. 6th or 7th.

The list of officers for the coming year is as follows: All but H. H. Mast as secretary for the Masons, and Mrs.
Hattie Leslie as Adm. for the Star being installed Monday evening. Mrs.
Hattie Leslie acted as grand marshal and Mrs. O. X. Maury as installing officer for the Star, while J. E. Norton was installing officer for the Masons and G. L. Willey, Jr., was marshal.

Will Visit in the East

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Chaney and son, George Jr., left Monday evening for Portland. Mr. Chaney will remain in that city for the remainder of the week transacting business and Mrs. Chaney and son will continue their journey eastward. They expect to arrive in New York on New Year's day. Mrs. Chaney will be met by her brother, David W. Ribble, who recently came from Miami, Florida, to spend a month, and together they will visit at the home of another brother, Dr. Roy Dufford Ribble, in Rutherford, New Jersey. Mrs. Chaney's trip is timed so as to allow her to attend the wedding of her brother, Chauncey H. Ribble, and Miss Helen Vale Coffey, on January eighth. The return journey will include stopovers in Philadelphia, Akron, Ohio; Niagara Falls and Detroit, Michigan. Mrs.
Chaney and son expect to be away about six weeks.

Wants to Sell His Stock

The Coach Timber company affairs were up before the county court yesterday, on a petition by G. W. Kaufman, guardian of Arthur Coach, to sell the 4,599 shares of stock of the company now in Arthur's name. His sister, Mrs. L. J. Cary, appeared to resist the petition. It will be several days before this case is decided, as the evidence has not all been heard yet. A. J. Sherwood appeared as attorney for Mrs. Cary.

30 Days and $200 Fine

John Galli, of Delmar, was arrested Tuesday for moonshining, taken before Justice Joehnk, sentenced to serve 30 days in jail and pay a fine of $200, and then brought over to Coquille and added to the contingent in the sky parlor here, all in one short winter day. Galli got a little stiffer sentence on account of having been before convicted of bootlegging.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS.

Happy New Year to you all.
Earl and Guy Corbin, who have been working in Spokane, Wash., for the past year or so, returned home Saturday to spend the holidays with their mother, Mrs. Louisa Corbin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Deyoe are the proud and happy parents of a baby girl born Monday, Dec. 27th, at Pemberton's hospital. Both baby and mother are doing nicely.

F. G. Sumerlin and children, Joe and Vera, of Gravel Ford, were in town Friday shopping.

M. T. Ansen, of this city, made a business trip to Randon Tuesday.

It's like picking up money in the street to get the Oregon Farmer every week for a year at only 15 cents when subscribing for the Sentinel.

You Can Save a Life

Time has healed most of the wounds of the war. In the United States the scars have almost vanished. But in Central and Eastern Europe a great open war wound remains. Its sufferers are little children—children of war Allies and of war enemies, Catholics and Protestants, Jew and Gentile—but all too young to have had a part in making the circumstances of which they are now the helpless victims.

In the eyes of America they are just hungry little children—3,500,000 of them who will die or suffer permanent injury through the stunting of mind and body from the effects of underfeeding unless America continues its great self-imposed charity of providing them with supplementary food and necessary medicines.

In order to save these children eight great American organizations have banded together as the European Relief Council and have appealed to the American people. The organizations are the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the American Red Cross, the American Relief Administration, the Knights of Columbus, the American Friends Service Committee, the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Y. M. C.
A. and the Y. W. C. A. Herbert Hoover is national chairman. Former Secretary of the Interior, Franklin K. Lane, is treasurer.

The charity of the European Relief Council is being administered on a policy that prevents pauperization and that develops self help. Every American dollar contributed to the starving children draws $2 from European sources as cash, food, rent, light, heat and transportation. The three dollars is so expended that it will give one child one full meal a day for one month. Ten American dollars will carry a child until next harvest.

Ten American dollars will literally give a child a New Year's present of its own life—the most magnificent New Year's gift in the world no matter what the price.

A check to Franklin K. Lane, 45 Broadway, N. Y., is the life warrant for a European child. They are not America's children. The highest court of justice in the world would not say that it is our obligation to feed them. America's task is carried forward on a nobler spirit than that of justice—it is mercy.
