

Six Barrels of Potatoes for 99c.

On September 14, Mrs. Sarah S. Hancock, of Bridgeton, New Jersey, sold six barrels of No. 2 potatoes through a New York commission house for $1.50 a barrel—a total of $9.00. After deducting $2.10 for barrels, $3.51 for freight, $1.50 for cartage and $.90 for commission, the firm sent Mrs. Hancock what was left—99c.

Think of it! Six full barrels of food for only 99 cents!

The quick relief for such cases is direct cooperative marketing of vegetables, fruit, grain and livestock by the full carload.

Michigan potato growers saved $700,000.00 last year by letting a trained sales manager market their crop cooperatively. There is no longer any question as to whether it will work—fourteen thousand cooperative associations are working in the United States today.

There is a big, new force in the United States which advocates cooperation. It is the American Farm Bureau Federation. It also supports all other sound relief measures for farmers, such as cost accounting, knowledge of world markets and legislative reforms. You can help in the fight for these measures by becoming a member of your County Farm Bureau.

You can help, too, by reading that great national farm-service weekly, THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. You will find it always in the thick of the farmer's fight—never neutral and never dull. Fifty-two big, inspiring issues, crammed with helpfulness, entertainment, hope and courage, will be delivered in your post-box for just $1.00 the year. Yes, your check is good.

A state convention of the Oregon State Retail Merchants' Association is to be held in Marshfield February 17 to 19. There is talk of organizing a bureau at that time to collect facts and figures to defend the retail men against the charge of profiteering.

School Notes

Mrs. Harriett Sweet Mace has been added to the teaching force in the Grade building. Mrs. Mace fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Katherine Hansen.

The large assembly hall on the second floor is entirely empty since the fifth and sixth grades moved to the new building. If seats could be provided, the grades would find it very convenient to assemble occasionally. As it is, no room is sufficiently large to hold all the classes.

Miss Kennedy of the second grade experienced a very pleasant and profitable vacation in Portland as a delegate to the Oregon State Teachers' Association. Miss Kennedy was entertained at the apartment of Miss Rena Anderson, formerly of Coquille and now teaching in Portland.

Seven new pupils were enrolled in the grade building at the first of the year: Addie Wigant, of Langlois; Cecil Story, from Canada; James Watson, of Marshfield; Walter Dunham, of Powers; Freda Johnson, Beatrice Johnson and Donald Carter.

Pupils perfect in spelling were:
Second A—Dorothy Bunch, Helen Belloni, David Smith, Eleanor Elliott, Tallent Greenough.

Third B—Marjorie Jacobson, Martha Jane Webb, Laura Pollery, Agnes Lee, Georgia Leatherwood, Corrine Wheat, Elma Russell, Annie Peart, Grace Whittington, Charles McQuigg, Belmont Ireland, Flora May Johnson, Emma Flitcroft.

Third A—Eulah May Barnett, Edward Dow, Lester Mael, Delores Lamson, Jessie Johnson, Addie Wigant, Audrey West, Rosa McQuigg.

Fourth B—Pauline Ellingsen, Florence Cary, Marguerite Agostino, Viola Pribble, Maxine Neal, Gerald Sandon.

Time Extended Six Months

The signing by President Wilson of the bill extending for six months the time for doing 1920 assessment work on mining claims, saved thousands of holders of claims in Oregon and the west from the danger of claim jumping after the first of this year, according to Henry M. Parks, director of the Oregon bureau of mines and geology.
