Accuses Father of Murder.

Grants Pass, April 28.—Brooding over his secret and the fact of the threats of death should he ever tell, for over 16 months, lead Lloyd Ingram, aged 17 years, to tell of the murder of Wm. Dunlap. The murder was committed about the 19th or 20 of September, 1903, at the cabin of the hermit miner and prospector on Louse creek, and no clue was ever gained as to whom committed the crime.

Andrew Ingram and Elsey Dodson are in jail here, charged with the never-solved murder of Wm. Dunlap of Louse creek, Josephine county. Dunlap, a hermit placer miner, was shot to give robber opportunity to search his shack unopposed for gold supposed to be secreted there. In some respects the killing resembled the murder of Patrick Dunn on the Crescent City stage road a few months ago.

Ingram and Dodson, the former of Crescent City, and the latter of Grants Pass, were apprehended through the confession of Lloyd Ingram, son of Andrew Ingram, who claims to have been with his father and Dodson when they killed Dunlap, and that he helped to search the premises for treasure. Twelve dollars he tells Sheriff Lewis was all they got in money, apart from gold dust. The boy, who is aged 17, says he was afraid his father would kill him, and so confessed.

Rojstvensky Writes Despairing Letter.

St. Petersburg, May 4.—Admiral Rojstvensky has written a letter to a relative here, which complains that it will be impossible for him to fight with the material at his command. He says that the lack of discipline is appalling, and concludes: "These are the men and ships with which I am expected to face the powerful Japanese fleet. It is a hopeless enterprise, and nothing short of a miracle can save us from annihilation."

Hold up Bank.

Salem, May 3.—The Bank of Woodburn was held up and robbed of three thousand dollars this afternoon. Two men entered the front door and presenting a pistol, held up the cashier, Tracy M. Poorman. No one was in the bank but the cashier, a son of J. M. Poorman, the banker, his little boy, and Miss Eddy, a stenographer.

The robbers were two short men wearing overalls. They had no coats on, and had handkerchiefs over their faces, and one of them wore goggles.

Young Poorman thought at first that it was some of his friends playing a practical joke on him, but when one covered him with a gun while the other swept all the cash in the money trays into a sack, he awoke to the fact that they meant business. They threatened to kill any one who made an outcry, and had the money and were gone before any one could see what was going on in the bank. The whole town was speedily alarmed and gave chase but the men were out of sight.

The robbery was carefully planned and boldly executed.

Cable Powers' Trial.

Georgetown, Ky., May 1.—The celebrated case of Caleb Powers, former secretary of state of Kentucky, and thrice sentenced to death for the murder of Governor Goebel, on December 3, 1902, came up for hearing in the district court here today, and the fourth trial will proceed without delay.

Have you seen the Lewis and Clark souvenirs at Mrs. Nosler's? Attention! Wool Growers—W. T. Kerr will make contracts and cash advances for your wool.

David Fulton, of this city, will take orders for head stones, monuments and all kinds of cemetery work for the Coos County Marble and Granite Works, of Marshfield.

Rush of Immigrants.

New York, May 1.—On 22 steamships due to arrive at this port this week from Great Britain and the continent is the highest number of immigrants ever scheduled to enter during such a period of time. The horde reaches nearly 25,000. At Ellis Island arrangements have been made for their prompt handling, because the detention of any part would at once tax the facilities of the emigration station far beyond its limits.

Figures for the week that has just closed were close to 22,000, showing that rush has been kept up for a longer period than ever before, and it is likely that the total immigration for the spring will far exceed any previous year.

Nearly 22,000 immigrants arrived in New York last week, and the number to arrive on steamers due this week is 25,000. All previous records in the immigrant business have been broken several times this year, and when the average runs up in excess of 3000 per day at one port, the effect will, sooner or later, be felt on industrial conditions throughout the country. Women and children, of course, make up a considerable portion of the crowd now pouring in from the Old World, but in the two weeks "receipts" mentioned there were enough able bodied men to fill every position vacated by the strikers in Chicago and leave some to spare for other points. This heavy immigration is a more serious menace to the cause of labor than all of the "Farleys" in the country. —Oregonian.

Chicago, May 2.—The death of one man and the injury of scores of others were the immediate result of today's fighting between the striking teamsters and their sympathizers on the one side and the police and the non-union men on the other. There were riots in all parts of the city. Men were clubbed and stoned almost to death within a square of police headquarters and five miles away men were shot down in the streets. At a hundred places between these two extremes there were assaults and fights in the streets. Blood was shed on State street, in the heart of the fashionable shopping district, and furious riots took place almost in the doorways of the leading hotels. Non-union men were pelted with stones, bricks and every other conceivable sort of missiles. They were dragged from their wagons, beaten, clubbed and stamped upon. The mobs that followed the wagons on which they rode were ugly in the extreme, and but for the splendid service rendered by the police, the list of dead would be 20 instead of one.

Grants Pass, Or., May 2.—The matter of a railroad from Grants Pass to Crescent City and the sea has again been taken up, and recent developments indicate construction of the line this summer. Colonel T. W. Draper, of San Francisco, chief engineer for the California & Oregon Coast Railway Company, which has completed its final survey of the line, has just made a further inspection of the proposed route. Colonel Draper has also secured reports on all the mines, also from the timber belts and agricultural districts of the region the line will traverse, to gain an intelligent idea of the traffic the road might expect. The company has secured right of way, grounds for sidings and stations, and terminal facilities in Grants Pass and Crescent City, and everything is in readiness for actual construction.

Exposure

To cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of the temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and cold.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best cure. Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Texas writes, Jan. 31, 1902: "One bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take. For sale by R. S. Rowland."

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The bulletins announcing the complete ruin of the Delaware peach crop have arrived on time.

The Prince of Wales has just had a boil lanced. The Prince might have purer blood if he had kept Lent.

It must rejoice? The British taxpayer that Great Britain proposes to make its navy greater than that of any other three European powers.

If the Mormons start in to investigate their Apostle and Revelation Trust they may have their hands full without mixing in politics.

It is a lucky girl who finds "an affinity" worth $20,000,000. That has been the experience of Miss Rose Pastor who is to marry Mr. Phelps-Stokes.

"Resolved, That we gravely doubt the sincerity of President Roosevelt's protestations against race suicide." (Signed) The Bears of Colorado.

We fear Commissioner of Corporations Garfield made a mistake in going to Kansas to investigate the trusts. He should have gone to New Jersey.

The Czar need not fear that it will injure the prestige of the Russian arms to make peace. Outside of Russia everyone is familiar with recent events in Manchuria.

"How shall the masses be reached?" asks Secretary Shaw. We can assure the Secretary that there is no better way than through the advertising columns of this paper.

President Roosevelt is taking a well earned rest. His variety of resting is strenuous but it is doubtful, and perhaps even more beneficial, than a siesta in a hammock.

Major Warner, the new senator, from Missouri, expended just $29.80 for his seat in the upper chamber. What a source of sorrow it must be to Gasman Addicks that he does not live in Missouri.

The people of the United States drink an average of 1.48 gallons of distilled liquor per capita; the people of Great Britain 1.38 gallons; the people of France 1.85 gallons and the people of Germany 2.11 gallons.

It may be that these Omaha school boys who struck because of the presence of two Japanese boys at their school had experienced some of the surprises of jiu jitsu.

Secretary Loeb has begun to deny the wild stories that have gained circulation regarding the President's hunting trip. We fear the Secretary has started in on a long and tedious undertaking.

Senator Platt, of New York, gravely announces that this is the foolish season in politics. Recent reports from New York would indicate that the Senator speaks from experience.

From the manner in which the Daughters of the Revolution manage to mutilate parliamentary procedure one is led to suspect that they have all taken lessons in jiu jitsu.

Since some of the statesmen booked for Secretary Taft's junket have heard they will be expected to pay their fare, they have discovered that National Affairs and the flag in this hemisphere require their unflagging attention.

At a moment when the fate of Nations is depending on a Titanic Naval struggle in another hemisphere we are impressed with the loveliness of peace and also with the power of iron clads. Let us not neglect the one or the other.

It must make the Czar green with envy to read of a chief executive who leave his Secretary of State in charge and retire into the wilderness for a genuine bear hunt. The Czar knows now what a bear hunt is, but he does not know the joys of being the huntsman.
