Eighth Grade Graduation.

The eighth grade graduating exercises which were held in the Opera House on Friday evening were attended by a large audience. The hall had been appropriately decorated with the class colors—lavender and cream.

An interesting program consisting of essays, recitations and a class prophecy, was given by the members of the class, after which the Hon. Robt Burns delivered the class address, which was a particularly able and instructive talk to the young people. Mrs. Wooten favored the audience with a reading and was twice forced to respond to an encore. Mr. Hacker, Chairman of the Board, read a very excellent paper, after which he presented the diplomas to the class.

The program was interspersed with several selections by the Coquille band, which added much to the evening's entertainment.

The students who received diplomas and who may now be admitted to any high school in Oregon are: Ora Morgan, John Miller, Minnie Swearingin, Dayne Hudson, Amy Kelly, Wava Berdan, Emma Maury, Della Wood, Virgil Wilson, Myrtle Frye, Hal Pierce, Alton Grimes, Roy Kerrigan, Gertrude Miller.

In our next issue we will give the paper read by Mr. Hacker.

Mr. W. C. Sanderson received a letter from San Francisco, announcing the safe arrival of Mrs. Sanderson and her brother there on their way to San Diego. Mrs. Sanderson suffered slightly from seasickness the first half day out, but after that stood the trip well and walked a block and a half to the street car on her arrival at San Francisco.

Died.

Edna Alice McCoy was born near Drain, Douglas county, Oregon, Dec. 13, 1888 and died at Bandon this county, June 1, 1905.

She was the daughter of Chas. McCoy and had resided in this place for several years before going to Bandon in 1902. She had been marked a victim of that dread disease, consumption, for many years, although she had not been bedfast. She was sick about four days before she died, but was not considered dangerously ill; and seemed very strong and cheerful and within two hours of her death seemed strong enough to dress herself. But just after noon she became suddenly worse and died in a very short time, but did not seem to suffer much pain in the last struggle.

The funeral was held in the Presbyterian church at Bandon, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The deceased left a large host of friends who extend their sympathy to her father and sisters for their great loss.

At the city election in Portland Monday, Dr. Lane, the Democrat candidate, was elected as mayor of Oregon's metropolis.
