Centennial Notes.

The attendance at the Lewis and Clark Exposition on G. A. R. Day, was 15,673. There were about 3,000 veterans present and appropriate exercises were held.

For the purpose of stimulating night attendance at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, the management has devised a coupon arrangement which will enable the purchaser of a fifty-cent admission ticket to take in twenty-five cent's worth of shows on the Trail free of charge.

Liberati's famous Italian band of fifty pieces is now giving two free concerts daily at the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Saturday, July 1, was Trail Day at the Lewis and Clark Fair and on that day the amusement street was formally opened to the public. There are thirty-five shows on the Trail, and it costs only about seven dollars to see them all. This is much cheaper than that at St. Louis.

In the Idaho building at the Lewis and Clark Fair there is a pyramid of nearly pure lead ore which weighs 60,000 pounds. A single specimen weighs 10,000 pounds. Idaho produces annually forty per cent of the lead mined in the United States, and twenty-seven per cent of the world's supply.

In the Foreign Exhibits building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition there is a reproduction of Raphael's "Sistine Madonna," done entirely in needlework. The reproduction was made by a young German girl, Fraulein Clara Ripberger, and is considered the most wonderful example of art needlework ever created.

Friday, June 30, was Vancouver day at the Lewis and Clark Fair. People of the historic town of Vancouver, Wash., to the number of nearly two thousand, swarmed into the Fair grounds in the morning, and paraded with banners and badges. "Vancouver Grows Without Watching" was the slogan of the Vancouver people.

50 and 60 cent popular music at 10c and 2 for 25c, W R Haines Music Co, Marshfield.

The Car and Mr. Hyde of the Equitable ought to sympathize with each other. They both know how painful it is to give up an absolute "cinch."

It has remained for the venerable prelate of the Catholic church, Cardinal Gibbons, to christen Theodore Roosevelt "the Angel of Peace."

It is assumed that the young men who tried to break into the residence of E. H. Harriman were prompted to look for large booty by the present condition of the Equitable.

If Secretary Wilson, or some of his Weather Bureau experts, could show the President how to cashier and dismiss General Humidity they would earn the gratitude of a sweltering people.

The men who secured a patent for a machine for "converting hot water into work" are being sued. We have never heard that the men who convert hot air into words were sued,—but they ought to be.

Even the institution of proceedings against the Paper Trust has resulted in cheaper prices for white paper. Let the good work go on.

It will not prove much of a shock to Mr. Carnegie to learn that his "lainted money" also, when Governor Vardaman is his informant.

After the recent naval manoeuvres it may be safely assumed that the only way any naval officer can take the national capital is with a camera.

Japan will not name Oyama and Togo as peace commissioners because she wants them at the other end of the line and for a different purpose.

Having disposed of the extra session of Congress the railroads are free to complete their plans for defeating railroad rate legislation at the regular session.

Secretary Taft says he has heard nothing regarding the possibility of his being made Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Probably Chief Executive would suit the gentleman from Ohio better.
