C. H. BUNCH, Elder.

Wm. Toospin, of Alameda, California, tuned pianos in town last week.

Wm. Lafferty, of Myrtle Point, made our office a pleasant business call last Thursday.

Parties wishing the best of pasture for stock will do well to inquire of W. A. Goodman, Coquille, Or.

Frank Burkholder, the Portland artist, is with us again, delivering some very fine pictures from his house.

J. S. Kanematz will sell everything at cost and retire from business. Here is a chance to save money.

NOTICE.—Having decided to retire from business I will sell my entire stock of general merchandise at cost.

J. S. KANEMATZ.

If you have cash and want to invest in general merchandise business J. S. Kanematz will sell you his entire stock at a liberal discount below cost. Call on or write to him directly.

The funeral of the late Charles George, which took place yesterday from the Episcopal church, was attended by a large number of the former friends of the deceased and the orders of the K. of P. and Eagles were well represented, the burial taking place according to the rites of the former.—Coast Mail.

W. S. Fertig, who arrived here lately from Josephine county, has been delivering lectures at the school houses in different districts in the county with large and appreciative audiences. His lectures are of a highly moral and instructive nature. He will probably give our city a call in the near future.

Married.

SCHETTER-AIKEN.—In Portland, Or., at 5 p. m., August 9, 1905, Otto Schetter and Miss Alice Aiken.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Aiken, of this city, and is one of the most popular young ladies of Marshfield society. The groom is the manager of the local Western Union telegraph office, and is held in the highest esteem by his numerous acquaintances here. Mr. and Mrs. Schetter will return from Portland in a few weeks, and will take up their residence in the flat above Gulverson's furniture store.—Coast Mail.

Baucroft Items.

We are having very warm, dry weather here now.

Harvest is in progress and the thrasher is expected soon.

Ray Dean, of Coquille, is visiting friends and rusticating in this vicinity.

Mrs. J. V. Leep, of Myrtle Point, is at the ranch this week.

Mr. Leep brought in a nice little band of sheep Tuesday.

Mr. Robinson, of Portland, father of Mrs. John Appleton, arrived here Monday after an absence of twelve years.

C. D. Price started Tuesday for Roseburg with his mother and his brother's family who go to take the train for Rans by way of Portland and the fair, and will also visit friends in Polk county, Oregon.

Miss Etta Bryant, of Bridge, is off for an extended trip in California and Oregon, expecting to visit the fair.

Auto.

Norway Items.

Boss.—In Norway, July 30, 1905, to Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lafferty, a son.

Mr. Mary Brown, of Marshfield, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Myers, and family.

Capt. O. Reed has his new barn about completed which adds much to the appearance of his farm.

Capt. Ellingson, of Lampa creek, visited his daughters, Madames Carl and Lafferty last week.

Miss May Schroeder accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bender and Miss Zelia Hermann, of Myrtle Point, to Roseburg where they go to meet Percy Schroeder, who has been in the St. Vincent hospital in Portland for a month. He stood the operation well and thinks he will be all right now.

Miss Myrtle Kennedy, of Cherokee, Iowa, who has been visiting her cousins, S. J. McCloskey and family for a month, left on the Roanoke for Waitsburg, Wash., where she goes to resume her work of teaching. She has spent the last two years in Waitsburg and is well pleased with the west. Her cousin, Miss Emma Kennedy, of Rochester, Minn., who has also spent the last month with us, will remain about two weeks longer before returning to her work in the Rochester school.

A number of our young people have gone camping, some taking in the W. O. W. celebration at Dairyville.

S. J. McCloskey went to Bandon Saturday with the Masons where Governor Chamberlain met with them.

TRICKIE TRICE.

Women Engaged in Duel With Bandits.

Reno, Nev., 9.—Mrs. C. Brown and Mrs. A. Mathieson, wives of well known residents of Gardnersville, south of here, had a thrilling experience with two highwaymen while driving last evening. The women were on their way home, when they were ordered by highwaymen to stop. Instead of complying, they drew revolvers and began firing at the would-be robbers, who started to retreat, at the same time emptying revolvers at the women.

The women bravely stood their ground until help arrived. The bandits, however, made their escape across a field and have not been seen since.

Cures Sciatias.

Rev. W. L. Riley, L. L. D. Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment; the first application given my first relief and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation. 25c, 50c, $1.00, sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Detective Stories That are the Real Thing.

The Cosmopolitan has been fortunate enough to secure the "Confessions of a New York Detective," made by an ex-Captain of Police. This remarkable narrative will be run serially, beginning in the September issue. It bids fair to prove far more interesting and exciting than any imagined detective story, for it deals directly with those phases of life and their supervision by the police upon which all the ingenious yarns of clever writers are formed. Henry Raleigh is illustrating the Confessions, and is making some very realistic drawings.

They Appeal to Our Sympathies

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. There is not one of them, however, who may not be brought back to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and strengthen the digestion. They also regulate the bowels. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that my wife, Martha Brewer, has left her bed and board and refuses to return thereto, and the public is hereby warned against trusting her upon my credit, and that I will not be responsible for any obligations she may contract.

Dated at Coquille, Oregon, May 29, 1905.
