AT ROBINSON'S STORE.

Jas Lewis, an old settler, died at his home on the South Fork, Saturday. Parties visiting his house Saturday morning found the old gentleman in his usual health but on returning in the afternoon found his lifeless body, heart disease evidently being the cause of death. He was about seventy years of age and was well known by all old pioneers. He and a brother came Coos County in 1851 and participated in several fights against the Indians. The remains were brought to this place Sunday and interred in the Myrtle Point cemetery.—Enterprise.

There was a quiet wedding at this place Sunday, the contracting parties being Miss Minnie McCracken and George Hermann. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thos Barklow, of the German Baptist Church in the presence of the immediate relatives of the young couple. The bride is a most accomplished young lady and one of Coos County's most popular school teachers, having taught in the Myrtle Point public schools the past two years. The groom is the oldest son of T. M. Hermann, of the South Fork, and a prominent logger and farmer. He is a quiet, industrious young man and popular among his associates. The young couple have many friends.—Enterprise.

Hamilton's Decision.

In the matter of the petition of Nelse Rasmussen for a writ of habeas corpus. The above cause came on for hearing, petitioner appearing by his attorneys, Gallier, the sheriff of Coos county, Oregon being represented by F. B. Rutherford and G. F. Martin, his attorneys. After hearing argument of respective counsel and considering the briefs filed, the court finds that the petitioner is not illegally restrained of his liberty, nor wrongfully imprisoned.

It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the petitioner be and is hereby remanded to the custody of said sheriff of Coos county Oregon Dated this 21st day of August, 1905 Signed J. W. Hamilton Judge.

PREPARING FOR COOS BAY LINE

Just Thrown in

We know just how our watches are made and just what they're made of. We have picked up some pointers about watches in the 20 years we've been buying and selling them. We'll tell you what is in the watch we sell you, because we can and because you have a right to know. We'll tell it to you honestly, because we cannot afford financially to mislead our customers. To the watch buyer we offer a good many advantages that some other people can't offer and it costs no more to buy of us, for it's just thrown in.
