An Old-Timer Makes Visit.

A. J. Pence, now a resident near Seattle, Washington, made Coos county a visit lately for the purpose of looking over grounds where he had spent many pleasant days during pioneer times in this section.

Obituary.

Mary A. Hamblock, wife of John F. Hamblock, was born in Boone county, Missouri, July 27, 1831, the daughter of William and Margaret Campbell.

Drain Notes.

Mr. Davis in charge of the S. P. roust-about crew has been ordered to build the spur to receive the rails for the Coos Bay road and Mr. Near has been ordered to have the right of way by January 1st.

Capt. B. D. Bowell returned from Portland and the Fair, where he has been all summer.

Messrs. Kent, Bassett and company have returned from a hunting trip. Mr. Bassett became so interested in the pursuit of game that he was compelled to remain on the mountain all night and did not return to camp until next day at 3:30.

The following students have entered the Normal during the week: Mamie and Ora Hicketier, Walter Smith, Austin Ferrans, Hiss Hansens Berkern, Chas McKiblin, Menzo Finnelly and Rufus Ames, an equal number is listed for next week.

Rev. M. C. Wire, presiding elder of the M. E. church, filed the pulp at this place last Sunday.

Walter L. Toozie, of Marion county, candidate for congress, will speak at the Normal on Wednesday October 25, on "Education—Past, Present and Future." Mr. Toozie is one of the most energetic and progressive citizens in the district.

The attendance at the Normal is now 14 per cent greater than the total enrollment of last year, and prospects are very excellent for the continued growth of the school.

Mrs. Grans, national W. C. T. U. organizer from Washington held an institute here on Friday and Saturday, giving a public address on Friday evening and going to Roseburg on the local.

Mrs. C. C. Kilburn, of Creston, Iowa, is visiting her cousin, Mr. Whipple, whom she has not seen for twenty-five years.

Mr. D. V. Kaykendall, of Klamath Falls, is visiting friends in Drain and Eugene this week.

Mr. W. H. Sykes, of the Skelly Mill Co., returned with his family from Michigan last Sunday. He has orders sufficient to run his mill for two years.

Miss Dollie Hefty, of Gardner, is visiting friends in town this week. Miss Berkern came up with her to enter the Normal.

Senator Fulton's Visit.

Senator Fulton, of Astoria, made Coos county a visit coming down on the last Alliance, and returning by the same boat. This was the Senator's first visit to this part of the state, and he expressed himself as being very much surprised as well as highly pleased with our county.

On Saturday evening the Senator spoke from the bandstand to a large and enthusiastic crowd. After the speaking a grand banquet was given at Hotel Coquille which was heartily enjoyed by a number of our citizens.

Smoked Herring, Soused Mackerel, Lobsters, Shrimps, Mushrooms, Lunch Tongue, Deviled Chicken, Vienna Sausage, at Robinson's.
