Drain Notes.

We soon expect to see grading begin on the Oregon & Western R. R. "This will look good to us."
F. Hofer and wife, of Salem, and Walter L. Tooze, of Woodburn, took the stage Friday morning for Gardner and Coos Bay, where they are billed for a number of addresses. The gentlemen are earnest, forceful speakers and deeply interested in the development of Western Oregon.

Thursday noon the Portland business men's special arrived and were met at the depot by the citizens of the town and the students of the Normal. A number of speeches were made, hands shaken and a general good time had by all.

Ed. Gault, of Cottage Grove's new paper, Western Oregon, visited our little town on business connected with his paper.

Mr. J. J. Hill, of Wilbur, visited friends in Drain on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Hender, of Leona, has moved to town that she may send her boys to the Normal.

Roseburg High School and the Normal play foot ball at this place Thanksgiving. A very interesting game is promised as well as a basket dinner.

The Metcham hotel furniture, supplies, etc., were sold at auction Friday and Saturday.

Miss Susie Hedden went to Elkton Saturday for an extended visit with her brother's family.

Attorney A. N. Oroutt was in town Saturday on business. Mr. Oroutt was formerly a teacher in the Normal.

Ex-Mayor Spaulding is off duty this week wrestling with the lagger.

Mr. E. P. Hill, the general secretary of the college Y. M. C. A. visited the Normal last Tuesday. Mr. Hill spoke in assembly and held two meetings with the Y. M. C. A., going on to Portland by the p. m. train.

The barometer of a city's prosperity is gauged by the report of its banks, and in our last issue we printed the report of the First National Bank of this city. While the capital stock of the concern is small, the business is climbing up and other banks in more favored communities. The resources and liabilities are $1,758,03. A national bank that is honestly and conservatively conducted is one of the safest and best financial institutions that a person can patronize. A person feels safer with their money under government inspection than they do in a private bank, where there are no prying eyes of the treasury department to look into seamy business methods.

A millionaire ex-soldier has been awarded a pension of twelve dollars a month. There are several millionaire pensioners on the list all of whom say do not want the money, but merely the record of their services to leave to their families. There should be something in pension law to provide for these veterans so that there may be more money left for those who want money and would be willing to let their descendants worry along without the record.

The state of Massachusetts spends in its incorporated charitable institutions the sum of $9,580,551 annually. If the other states of the Union average but a quarter of the amount paid by Massachusetts one hundred million dollars would be the sum paid annually for the poor. Hence this standing army of organized charities in its war against poverty costs more to maintain than the entire standing army of Germany.

Hop yards are being grubbed up in Lane county on account of the low price of hops this year, while others are left without the usual fall work. This will mean a great reduction in acreage of hops for next year, and if the prices should soar up above the clouds there will be some wholesale kicking going on.

Choice of Haley is Announced

Salem, Nov. 22.—Thomas G. Haley, of Pendleton, will fill the seat on the Supreme bench to be vacated by Justice Wolverson when he becomes Federal judge of the district of Oregon. After a conference with Justice Wolverson this morning, Governor Chamberlain made the announcement. The retiring Justice told the Governor that he had received advices from Washington and that he expected to take up the duties of Federal judge as soon as possible. This would be immediately after receipt of his commission, and after he had qualified, probably not later than a week from now.

Engineers Favor Sea Level Canal.

Washington, Nov. 19.—The Board of Consulting Engineers today declared in favor of a sea level canal, Long and careful study preceded the decision. The members of the board have the greatest reputation in their profession. France, Holland and Germany sent their engineers to say that a sea level canal would cost more and take longer to build, but would ultimately be of greater use because it would allow ships to make much shorter trips than if they had to go through several locks. An official statement will not be made until the report reached the President, probably in January.

Bancroft Items.

The recent rains have raised the creek and consequently the hopes of the loggers, but not yet to the working point.

Frank Fish and wife narrowly escaped a repetition of the stage disaster as they came home from Coquille Thursday night. They drove into a mud hole near Mr. Price's prune orchard and their wagon turned with them, throwing Mrs. Fish off and down the bank and into the water. Frank in trying to find her walked off the bank into the water too, but he came out unhurt while Mrs. Fish suffered a strained back and a bruised forehead. They made their way in the dark to Mr. Price's where Mrs. Fish was cared for, while Frank got help and went back to the relief of his team. One horse had to be loosed and rolled down in the creek before he could get up. Altogether the injury was much less than might have been expected. Mrs. Fish is improving fast and is expecting soon to be able to move home.

East Fork Items.

L. A. Masters, of Cleveland, Douglas county, drove 400 angora goats to Curry county, where he had sold them.

Last Saturday Mr. Masters, of Catching creek, brought in eighty-one angora goats which he had bought in the Willamett valley.

The people who donated road work have worked it out reducing grades.

Grant Harry has moved his children to their Grandmother Laird's place in Brewster valley.

J. O. Stemmler and Mr. McDow have each a full-blooded Shropshire buck bought of the O. A. C. X.

Boss Cox of Ohio seems to have adopted the explanation of Admiral Nebogoff, that he sacrificed himself to save those beneath him.

Note and Comment.

More stenographers and typewriters are needed by the Panama canal commission but there is no demand as yet for more spades.

In spite of the appointment of Mr. Stillings as Public Printer the Government Bureau of Printing and Engraving is noisier than ever.

Vice President Fairbanks has discovered the Golden Rule and is urging it with all the enthusiasm of a discoverer as a plan for conducting business and politics.

Foot ball at Annapolis is to be played more gently according to Secretary Bonaforte's orders but the students still have ways left for killing each other.

All of the Russians taken prisoners by the Japanese are to be sent home. This is not consistent with their reputation for treating their prisoners humanely.

The London Committee has received for the benefit of the Russian Jews donations of $355,000 and a speech from Lord Rothschild expressing confidence in the outlook for peace.

Governor Pennypacker of Pennsylvania says he is poorer now than when he accepted the office, but every one knows that until the recent election the state has always been ready to help those who helped themselves.

It is announced that the yellow fever prevalent in Havana can be traced to a swarm of mosquitoes imported from New Orleans in a box of electrical machinery. This is enough to give Louisiana as well as Cuba a shock.

The Norwegian plebiscite polled only twenty-one per cent of the voters for a Republican form of Government for the country. Probably the voters had read of the recent election in New York and decided that a monarchical government could scarcely furnish a condition as bad as that.

The Agricultural Department announces that many prominent seed merchants of this country adulterate their seeds. Many persons who have used Government seeds will decide that it must have been from these merchants that the Agricultural Department bought its seeds.

All small boys and all persons not endowed with steel plate stomachs should read the President's Thanksgiving Proclamation before dinner, especially that part which says: "The foes from whom we should pray to be delivered are our own passions, appetites and follies." As a rule these are thoughts that one has the night after the dinner, instead of before it.

The result of the recent elections is one in which every American, regardless of party thus may rejoice. Corruption and bossism received staggering blows in New York, Philadelphia and Cincinnati and Baltimore. Civic virtue has asserted itself everywhere with emphasis. Party lines disappeared and the masses of the voters gave their ballots for men and principles with an independence that has strengthened the faith of believers in self government.

Best Liniment on Earth.

Henry D. Baldwin, Supt. City Water Works, Shullsburg, Wis., writes: "I have tried many kinds of liniment, but I have never received much benefit until I used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism and pains. I think it the best liniment on earth." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Constipation.
Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50 cents a bottle. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Neuralgia Pains.
Rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pains yield to the penetrating influence of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It penetrates to the nerves and bone and being absorbed into the blood, its healing properties are conveyed to every part of the body, and effects some wonderful cures. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.
