Sylvester Kaski, a miner, was killed by the explosion of a blast in the Beaver Hill mine Monday forenoon.

Mrs. Nosler has just received her elegant line of China, Purely Hand Painted. Just one look will convince you.

Mrs. Irvind Nordstrom and baby of Parkersburg has returned home after five weeks residence with Dr. Wetmore.

Mrs. John Conger, of Bandon, who was operated on by Dr. Wetmore the 20th inst., is convalescing very rapidly.

John Sholtz, of Parkersburg, had the misfortune to step on a rusty nail on Saturday, which entered the instep of his foot one and a half inches. He is under the care of Dr. Wetmore.

Miss Dollie Hefty has resumed the management of the Gardiner Gazette. George Stewart, formerly of Myrtle Point, having resigned has accepted a position in the Gardiner mill store.

Remember that with every 25c worth of goods you buy at Mrs. Moon's you get to guess the number of pins in a bottle, which entitles the lucky one to a $10 hat made to order.

Grand ball given by Louis Ingram and Jack Mast at the Mast Hall, Lee, Nov. —. Tickets $1.00 Reserved seats $1.25. Free bus to and from Hall; music by Ingram's orchestra. Jack Mast, general manager.

J. H. James, of the north side of town, brought into our office last week a specimen of his growing of radish. The tuber measures 22 inches in length and 23 inches around the waist, and tips the beam at 16 pounds.

C. Timmons, the cannery man, brought up his crew of Chinamen from Bandon on Thursday and proceeded with them to the Bay where they will take a steamer for Astoria. Mr. Timmons will remain till he disposes of his season's pack.

F. E. Altese, a new arrival at Marshfield, who has settled there with his family, came over Wednesday in the interest of the Blake McFall Co., the Portland stationery house, which he represents in this county. He made the Herald a pleasant call.

The Ulster.

Following is the cast of characters of "The Ulster," which will be produced Dec. 8, at the opera house:

Ingle; Peter Jones, Roy Watson; Adam Quick, J. A. Yoakam; John R. R. Powder; Mike Black, Kenneth Lawrence; Mrs. Valentine Flipper, Florence Atkinson; Mrs. Barton, Mrs. J. A. Yoakam; Agnes, Lucie Newland; Sadie, Laura Fox; Patsy, Fannie Getty; Susan, Grace E. Dudley.

Wedding.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Dr. Wetmore in this city on Sunday, November 26th, 1905, promptly at 5:30 p. m., when Mr. James S. Grush and Addie B. Waltermier were solemnly united in holy wedlock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. M. Brauham, pastor of the M. E. church, South. About 30 guests were present. The groom was escorted into the parlor by his mother, the bride following, supported by her father, Mr. Waltermier, when the beautiful ceremony was spoken to them that made them one. The groom is a son of our worthy citizen, Mr. Grush, and the bride is an accomplished young lady and daughter of Henry Waltermier, of this city. The young couple go to housekeeping immediately in Coquille, with the well wishes of many friends.

Burton Found Guilty Again.

St. Louis, Nov. 25. — Senator J. R. Burton, of Kansas, was tonight found guilty on all six counts in the indictment upon which he has been on trial for the past week in the United States Circuit court, charged with having agreed to accept and having accepted compensation from the Rialto Grain & Securities Company, of St. Louis, to appear for the company in the capacity of an attorney before the postoffice Department to prevent the issue of a fraud order.

The verdict was brought in at 12:50 o'clock, two hours and 25 minutes after the jury had received the case.

Senator Burton was ordered to appear in court Monday morning, when, the counsel announced, a bill of exceptions would be presented and an appeal asked for, Court then adjourned.

"The Great Blue Grass Derby" will mark the opening of the Margarita Fischer Co.'s two nights engagement at the Masonic opera house, commencing Monday, Dec. 4th, is beyond question the one purely American play of our time that will endure. It is the sweetest and prettiest story of American life ever written for the stage. It is as pure, clean and wholesome as the clear, crystal spring water which trickles down the rugged sides of the Kentucky mountains, to give life and vigor to the beautiful blue grass region below, where the stirring scenes of the play are laid. In perfection of detail, picturesqueness, realism, spirit and originality, the scenes of "The Great Blue Grass Derby" excel anything of the kind ever before attempted. But the play does not depend for consideration upon its great pictorial scenes, nor upon its many ingenious scenic devices. The incidents and strong climaxes are led up to gradually and logically, and are a part of the story. Pure sentiment, valorous deeds, romance, humor, splendid, clean-cut comedy are combined with keen dramatic instinct. The characters are drawn with skill and are types which will be recognized everywhere. It is the faithful drawing of these characters of our own country and of our own time, and the faithful portrayals of a phrase of American life, hitherto neglected by the dramatists that have made "The Great Blue Grass Derby" the greatest popular success of this generation, and that is why it will go on forever cheering, delighting and pleasing thousands.
