

By the time that the next HERALD reaches its readers Christmas for 1905 will be a day that has passed into the dark. And the only recollections of it that we will all have is the kind remembrances of many friends, who greets all with a cheery "Merry Christmas," and the tokens of regard that will be sent to friends and dear ones.

Coquille, and Martin D. Sherrard of Oxnard, Cal.

The deceased took part in two Indian outbreaks and had done his part in fubbling the wild man as well as the forest, etc.

The deceased was one of God's noblemen who leaves a host of friends and relatives to mourn his sad demise, and who sincerely sympathize with his wife and children in their sad afflictions.

W. H. Sherrard Passes Away.

William Hamilton Sherrard, an Oregon pioneer, also a pioneer of Coos county, passed away Thursday morning at his home in this city, after a long and tedious illness.

The deceased was born at Zanesville, Ohio May 10, 1829, and was 75 years, 7 months and 14 days old at the time of his death.

Mr. Sherrard and his life companion were members of a company who crossed the plains in 1853, and endured all the hardships and dangers of that long and tiresome journey, and were married the next year after their arrival in Oregon at a point near where Eugene now stands.

At one time they were lost among some lakes for a period of two weeks in deep snow and a terrible storm and their sufferings were intense, and for a time it looked as though death stared the entire company in the face, however, after long suffering and hard work they reached the Willamette valley where they settled and made a home.

In 1881 Mr. and Mrs. Sherrard moved to California where they lived till 1892 when they moved back to Coos county and have lived here since. To this union were born ten children, six of whom are living, as follow: Mrs. J. R. Beard, Lincoln Sherrard, Redlands, Cal., Mrs. Col. John Lane, Julietta, Idaho, Mesdames Kerr and Lane, of

A Husky Lot of School Boys

The boys of the Coquille grammar school are a husky set considering their ages of from 13 to 16 years. They went up to Myrtle Point Sunday and they veni, vidi, vici the grammar school boys of that place. The Myrtle Pointers averaged from 14 to 20 years and were not in it from the time that the pigskin was punted from their line to Coquille's half back and they worked the ball down to a yard and a half of their opponent's goal and on a fumble lost the ball. Then Myrtle Point done some recentible fudging and Clarence Tuttle fell on the ball back of the Myrtle Point line, making a touchdown, which counted 2. Then Myrtle Point punted the pigskin to Coquille, who worked the ball half way up the grilliron, where "Back" Lawhorn, made a 25 yard run, and Clarence Tuttle made a touchdown in fine shape. This ended the first half. The second half was a goose egg on both sides. Elmer Willard, Rackleff Lawhorn, Clarence Tuttle and Albert Miller played a star game.
