Hundreds Dead and Dying.

Moscow, Dec. 26.—The streets of this city present an indescribable scene as a result of the terrible slaughter that has been carried on during the last 48 hours. Troops have gained partial control of the city but incessant fighting continues on the outskirts. The revolutionists have appealed for help from other outside cities and if it is secured it is considered that the troops now hold the thousands in check will, unless reinforcements arrive, be overwhelmed. Patrols are constantly riding in every direction and shooting without hesitation or discrimination at all citizens that have gathered in groups of three or four or more.

With the terrible slaughter that took place Sunday night, in which it is estimated that 2,500 were killed, and the casualties during the fighting yesterday and last night, which are placed at more than 5,000 killed and 15,000 wounded, it may be realized how hard it is for the soldiery to overcome the spirit that actuates the revolutionists, who, despite the hail of shot, shell and shrapnel during the onslaught continued to press forward.

Larz Anderson, a member of the socially elect of Washington and New York, who married for money and got barrels of it, declares that he sees in the engagement of his cousin, Nicholas Longworth and Miss Alice Roosevelt nothing to interest the public. We have only sympathy for a man with a soul so guided that it cannot respond to the sentiment that all the world loves a lover. A White House wedding is every body's business, because people are human. The whole nation would be expected to mourn a White House funeral why not rejoice at a White House wedding? It is true that there are some married couples who are unhappy all the time, and quite as true that all married people are unhappy some of the time but it is far from true that all are unhappy all of the time so that even those who are least optimistic about the condition are still without ground for extreme melancholy about it. Marriage may be, as one of the philosophers asserts "the solemn submission of one's liberty to the law, and his destiny to caprice" or as another says, "a lottery in which men play their liberty, and women their happiness" but for all that a wedding is an event which stirs the emotions of young and old, in fact of the whole human race, except the pitiful souls of the "Seventy-nine." All attempts to make the public mind its own business about the marriage of Miss Roosevelt and Mr. Longworth will be in vain. The public is interested in any wedding, as the marriage columns of any newspaper testify, it is absorbed in White House weddings especially, witness the great number of people who can tell just how many and who have been married there, and it is vastly more excited about the marriage of the daughter of Theodore Roosevelt of whom it delights to say nothing more complimentary than that she resembles her father.

Great Eruption up North.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 26.—Passengers on the steamer Tees from the north yesterday report a great volcanic eruption on Princess Royal Island on December 2nd. The whole side of Mount Pevo, which is over 1000 feet high, slid into the surf at Inlet Lake, raising its level about 12 feet. General Manager Lucedu, of the Surf Inlet Mines, and a party were crossing the lake in a launch at the time, and as enormous waves were created had great difficulty in saving their lives.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Abs olute Harmless.

The fault of giving children medicine containing injurious substances, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by R S Knowlton.

In a government press bulletin that comes to this office we notice a decision by the "United States Board of Geographic Names" that will prove of interest to many of our readers who come from New Hampshire, it will prove easier for them when the assessor or the census enumerater comes around and asks where they were born and what body of water was the nearest to their birthplace and you can truthfully say "Souhegan" river, Hillsboro county, N. H., (not Quoiquin-spasakessamanag, Quoiquin-spasakessanannag, Quoiquin-spasakessanannag, nor Quoiquin n a-passa-kesta-na-na-g-n-o-g.) Or the mountain in the same country, Uncaoonuc; mountains, Goffstown, Hillsboro county, N. H. (Not Uncaodnuc, Uncaoonuc, nor Unkonoonuc.) We might all be residents of Coos county, Oregon, 75 miles from the railroad, but we do not have to go to bed at night or work all day with such a black cloud of letters hanging over us like those two names.

Archie Taylor, youngest son of J. C Taylor, died rather suddenly at his home in this place, Sunday, of inflammation of the heart. The little one had been ill for a couple of weeks, and though as they thought, in no imminent danger, death was rather unexpected. He was past six years of age, and leaves, besides his parents, two sisters and two brothers to mourn his death. They have the heartfelt sympathy of the people in this community in this time of their sad bereavement. After the funeral services, which were held by Rev. Boach of Bandon, at 9:30 Tuesday morning, in the Prosper Hall, the remains were taken to the Bear Creek cemetery for interment.—Prosper correspondent in Bandon Recorder.

Mrs. Fitz After a Divorce.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by R S Knowlton.

Cured Lumbago

A B Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903. "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by R S Knowlton.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin L L D

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by R S Knowlton.

Note and Comment.

Official recognition by the powers that the foreign affairs of Korea will henceforth be administered from Tokio has doubtless convinced the former members of the diplomatic corps of the Hermit Kingdom that their career (Korea) is over.

The President by his prompt disapproval of the Foraker Bill, the first Republican measure for Railroad Rate Legislation, has so focused public and Congressional attention upon the subject that it will be practically as impossible to ignore the question as to pass any measure not clearly affording a remedy for existing abuses.

The New York Times says official feeling in Washington is much against the Foreign Engineers that voted for a sea level canal "when they might have known the President had decided upon a lock canal." It would be interesting to know how much this official feeling influenced the decision of these distinguished gentlemen to have their next meeting at Brussels, about as far from the White House as practicable for them to assemble.

The reports that Secretary Root is familiarizing himself with the archives of the State Department has made the friends and sympathizers of the oppressed Russian Jews hope that Mr. Root may discover the papers of our first Secretary of State who believed that we could keep the nations in the path of justice, "by making justice" their interest and injuries to react on themselves."

The importance of the questions that will come before the next house of Representatives is so great that more than usual interest is manifested in the formation of the various committees by which their solution must be made. Sneaker Cannon is besieged on all sides by applicants not a few of whom feel more at liberty to go to him with their wishes since his recent declaration that "what we call our troubles are not troubles at all but only obstacles for us to overcome."

Credible reports from Washington indicate that the President's message will urge upon Congress a reduction of the Philippine tariff duties practically amounting to the establishment of free trade with us. His best arrangement for this change is the fact that it is recommended by all the Congressmen with Secretary Taft, no one of whom now believes that American industries could be other than benefitted by such a concession.

Secretary Root has made evident his desire for a more cordial friendship between this country and those of South America. Well informed Democrats in Washington see in this policy the realization of the wishes of Thomas Jefferson whose letters in the State Department show that in 1820 he urged upon our minister in Brazil "the advantages of a cordial fraternization among all the American nations and the importance of their coalescing in an American system of policy totally independent of and unconnected with that of Europe."

Those that see in the news dispatches announcing a New British Ministry only the evidence of a change are superficial the present administration desires free trade between England and her colonies with a tariff against the world. This would more closely unite politically the colonies that fought and won the Boer war, but it would lose for England the carrying trade of the world, and with that would pass her naval supremacy. Whatsoever affects what even temporarily is of interest to every country in the world.
