WEDNESDAY, JAN. 10, 1905.

A person should show the same amount of loyalty to the town that they live in, as they do to their native country. Patriotism to one is as necessary as to the other. We tell a person that knocks this country to move out and go to some country that they can find all of the abuses they complain of abolished. It is right to tell the knockers of a town they should move to some place where they can live without boring their friends and others with the shortcoming of their city. When we have faith in our city, others will commence to have confidence in us, and not until then. We have people that have every cent they have invested in property stand around on the street corners and say, "This town is on the bum, so slow that it couldn't catch a decent cold." That is no way to talk, but truthfully say, we have a great country, undeveloped as it is, and the only thing that we need is more confidence in what we have got, but that we expect to have more as soon as we can secure the necessary capital; and that will come when capital have confidence in us and not a minute before. When the time come this place will be throbbing every minute of the day and night with energy and prosperity. That in only in a few short years we will show a pace that will take the breath away from our more prosperous communities. Manufacturers will always go where the raw material is, providing that the conditions are right, and that no hold-up game is practiced on them. There is too much of the bancoing of everyone with money. If a man should come into a town and want to spend his money for something that will be of a tangible benefit to the town, the knockers and others should be the first ones to offer the man or men with the long green, the glad hand of fellowship and do what they can to have them locate in our midst. Loyalty to a person's home town is an easy thing and that have the welfare of themselves and children at heart. The country was here before any of us arrived and will remain long after we are gone and forgotten. But the villages and country will stay until the judgment day blots this country of ours off of the face of the map, and not until then. Be loyal to your town or city as you are to the state and nation.

The Commander Mining Company who are operating on Sixes or Rusty Gulch has met with quite a drawback from the wind storm that visited that section last week. Their fume that has cost many thousand dollars to repair it. This is a great misfortune from the fact that the company had only commenced for a few days only to use their heavy giant and had only commenced piping sufficiently to find that their grounds were rich in gold and it is thought that it will take a month with several men to repair damages. The Salmon Mountain Coarse Gold Mining Company, we understand, have discovered the "parent ledge" west of the original Salmon Mountain prop. rty. Experts claim that this ledge has supplied the grounds with the wealth that has been taken out of that mine under giant and placer operations. The company has a crew of men who are sinking down on a new find and tests are being made daily with very promising results. An expert from Colorado has been examining that mining region for some time and though he has had many years experience he says he has never seen a more promising region than the Johnson, Salmon and Sixes mining district, and he predicts that there will be capital invested and machinery placed to successfully handle the immense amount of ores that are in sight in the locality. We have often asserted that the mineral belt that follows the Coast range through Coos and Curry counties would become a great industry, and from recent developments we conclude that our position is correct. It is estimated by old settlers that there has been several hundred thousand dollars taken from Salmon mountain, Johnson's creek, Sixes and Rusty Gulch by placer operations and quartz of various grades has lately been uncovered, some assaying as high as $600 to the ton. So we might say that quartz mining has just commenced, and there are large fields for exploration.

The state tax board, composed of the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer, made the annual levy and apportioned the state tax to be paid by each county for the support of the state. The total amount required for the ordinary expenses for the two years beginning January 1, 1905, is $1,858,047.69. The total expense to which the state will be subjected for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1906, is placed at $877,516.15; receipts from miscellaneous sources at $277,518.15; and the total revenue for state purposes apportioned among the several counties for the year 1906, $600,000. The levy for Coos county for this year is placed at $12,000. Among the chief items in the list of expenditures are $150,000 for public buildings; $41,000 for the state board of agriculture; $25,000 for the state university; $222,000 for the insane asylum; $30,000 for fisheries; $66,000 for the state prison; $45,000 for the Indian war veterans and $45,000 for the national guard. The levy for last was about double the amount this year.

Norway Items.

There has been a great deal of sickness in our neighborhood lately, so much sore throat and colds. Jos. and James Barkdoll are both quite sick at present with pneumonia. Dr. Stemler is waiting on them. Tice Wagner, of Coquille, accompanied by his wife and little daughters, spent a few days last week visiting his sisters, Mesdames Joe Lett and J. H. McCloskey. J. W. Clinton came up from his lower river camp last week and is rushing work on his new barn, and hopes to have it in better shape to receive the next hard storm we have. Mr. Burgess came up from the lower river and is making a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Finley Schroeder. Mrs. A. H. Bender, of Myrtle Point, is visiting in Norway. She brought the young postmaster down to see Grandpa and Grandma. J. L. Randleman came up from Clinton's camp to spend Sunday with his family.

THIRIE TRICK.

Riverton Pick-ups.

E. J. Price has sold out his interest in the sawmill, also all his real estate in this place. The purchaser is M. R. Lee. While we shall all miss Mr. Price and his family, and wish him all success in the future in what ever enterprise he may enter upon, we welcome Mr. Lee and hope him success with the mill.

D. S. Rouse has resumed operations in his coal mine. From present indications we expect the mine to do rushing business soon.

Mr. Davidson, from down the coast, was here one day last week soliciting subscriptions for the Band Recorder.

The masquerade ball last Saturday night had better attendance than could be expected under such circumstances, raining weather and muddy roads.

We are now having a milk famine in our town. At present there is none to be bought.

DONA ANNA.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism
"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

A Quiet Wedding.

On the 17th of December last there was a quiet wedding at the residence of George Elliott in the town of Riverton, when Miss Laura E. Watts, a half sister of our townsman, George Elliott, was united in marriage to Albert S. York, O. A. Kelly, J. P., officiating. After the wedding ceremony all present partook of a bountiful repast which was awaiting them.

A GUEST.

Death of E. B. Dean.

E. B. Dean, formerly of the firm of E. B. Dean & Co., but late president of the Dean Lumber Co., died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. F. Dillman, at Sacramento, last Tuesday. He was about 80 years old.—News.

Mrs. Margaret Miller of Geo. M. Miller, of Eugene, and of Joaquin Miller, the poet, died at home of the latter near Oakland, Cal., on Dec. 21st. She was a native of Indiana, and came to Oregon with her husband and four children in 1852.

The steamer Homer had a narrow escape from being wrecked on the Columbia bar last Thursday. The bar was very rough, and while in the breakers on the crest of the bar, the tiller snapped. Capt. Donaldson used the twin screws in handling the vessel, keeping her head to the sea while backing into smooth water, and returned to Astoria in safety. Seamen say if the Homer had not been provided with twin screws she would undoubtedly have been wrecked.—News.

Bancroft Items.

The storm Saturday morning did a considerable damage to timber, causing some hindrance to travel, besides racking a few unfinished buildings.

D. Barker, of Eden Valley, and his sister, Mrs. Tyler, started for Myrtle Point today. Mrs. T. is on her way home to South Dakota. She expects to return to Oregon in due time and settle permanently. Mrs. F. S. Evernden and Mrs. Frank Fish started for Coquille today on a visit which is of mutual interest to both families.

Arthur Fish and Ray Gilkey spent their holidays on Myrtle Creek and profess to have had a good time which is no more than is due them for their tiresome tramp through the mud.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Appleton had a family reunion at their home during the holidays.

Miss Josie Houser was thrown from her horse and hurt her arms and shoulder, but is getting along all right. James Guiver cut his foot recently but is able to be around at his work again.

The health of the community is fairly good, notwithstanding the cold weather and the bountiful feasts at Christmas and New Year's. AUTO.

Spolied Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W 24th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spolied with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at R S Knowlton's drug store.

Ready to Fight Boxers.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington, D. C., says: The attitude of the Chinese toward foreign interests generally has become sufficiently hostile to warrant preparations on the part of the various governments for the suppression of another demonstration such as that which occurred in 1900. The Navy Department had intended to order the battleship Oregon back to the United States, but in view of the threatening situation which has developed instructions have been cabled to leave this vessel in the Orient. There is no change in the purpose of the President to increase the battleship squadron in Asiatic waters by two vessels during the coming Spring.
